Booters to Face Standout Goalie

There's one thing that most of Penn State's soccer fans seem to have in common this year—an outstanding goal keeper. At least in the game notices.

But Ron Goga, Pitt's brilliant goalie who the Lions will face tonight morning at Beaver Field, is perhaps the most worthy of his accolades.

Goga has been almost infallible this season. In nine games—eight of them victories—the lanky junior from Munhall has given up but six goals, an average of 0.75 per game. Included are six shutouts, four by 1-0 margins. Army was Goga's latest 1-0 victim. That was at the Point last Saturday.

Actually, Goga has had only one bad day. That was against Navy and it turned out bad for the whole team. The Middies won 4-1, handing the Panthers their only loss of the season.

Those two foes, Army and Navy, are the only common opponents for the Lions and the Panthers. The Nittany booters whipped the Cadets, 4-1, and were deadlocked by the Middies, 2-2.

Other Pitt conquests were recorded over Akron 2-1; Ohio State, 4-0; Brockport Teachers, 1-0; Grove City, 2-1; Slippery Rock, 1-0; North Carolina State, 1-0; and Allegheny, 3-0.

Bresenelli has been an all-American honorable mention selection for the past two years and is almost a cinch to repeat that honor this fall. He's been the team's leading scorer since his sophomore year, two years ago.

Sammy Hazou, a native of Arabia, is another of the Panther standouts. Hazou, a three-year veteran right wingman, is second to Bresenelli in the scoring this year.

Center half Dick Kipp and right half Jack Hester are the other experienced lettermen. Both were starters on last year's Pitt team which recorded a 3-5-2 record.

ATO, DU Advance To IM Swim Finals

By BILL JAFFE

Alpha Tau Omega and Delta Upsilon will meet in the finals of the Intramural fraternity swimming competition Monday night while the Corn Grinders garnered a berth in the finals of the independent competition.

Alpha Tau Omega swept first place in the 120-yard relay event to edge Delta Tau Delta, 22-19, and Delta Upsilon bested Delta Chi, 24-21, in last night's meets at Glennland pool.

The Corn Grinders swam past the Mermen, 29-12, to enter the finals.

The ATO relay team of Larry Bayer, Bill Pindar, Harry Sloat and Bob Weid defeated the DTD team to garner five team points. ATO's Pindar swept first place in the diving competition with a 19.1 score.

Delta Tau Delta's Bob Pulver copped two first place finishes, the 60-yard free style and the 60-yard breast stroke events. Bob Berry captured first place in the 60-yard back stroke race for ATO and placed second in the free style swim event.

Delta Chi's 120-yard relay team of Bob Shiffner, Jim Hepler, Jack Engle and Mike Stollmyer tied the intramural relay record with a :59.6 timing but Delta Chi lost the 3-point decision to Delta Upsilon.

DU's Adie Stevens garnered first place in three events to pace the winners. He won the free style swim in :32.7, the breast stroke in :37.8 and the diving competition with a score of 20.4 points. Shiffner of Delta Chi won the back stroke race with a :40.4 timing.

The Corn Grinders placed first in all five events to score a 29-12 win over the Mermen. Dan Gifford won the free style event.

John Parks the backstroke race, Jim Weber the breast stroke event, Bill Brunner the diving competition, and the relay team of Weber, Scally, Parks and Gifford won the 120-yard free style race.
