

'The Caine Mutiny' Will Open Tonight

Herman Wouk's courtroom drama, "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial" will be presented by Players at 8 tonight at Center Stage.

The show will run for three weekends—tonight and tomorrow, Dec. 13-14 and Jan. 10-11. The production has been designed and staged by George Cavey, graduate student in theatre arts, as part of the requirements leading to his master's degree.

"The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial" is a tense courtroom drama based on the fictitious relief of a ship from its commander and the resulting court-martial of the lieutenant who spearheaded the relief. The trial becomes a battleground on which is examined and tested the military principle of respect for command. It also shows a personal battle between the lawyers involved.

The courtroom bristles as defense counsel Barney Greenwald doggedly examines Lt. Cmdr. Philip Queeg, the officer whose command was seized on the high seas. The ensuing scene has been called a landmark in contemporary drama.

The play was adapted by Wouk from his own best-selling novel, "The Caine Mutiny." Another of his plays, "Nature's Way," premiered on Broadway this season, and his novel, "Marjorie Morningstar," was a best-seller of last year.

Gerald Denisof will play Greenwald in the Players production and Floyd Santoro will play Queeg. Bruce Taylor and Duane Shiarella will play, respectively, Lt. Stephen Maryk and Lt. Thomas Keefe, instigators of the mutiny.

230 Tickets to Be Given
A total of 230 tickets for the piano concert by Philippe Entremont will be available to students free of charge from 1 to 5 p.m. today at the Hetzel Union desk. The concert, sponsored by the State College Concert Association, will be presented Wednesday night in Schwab Auditorium.

Smith to Decide ROTC Vote

The Woman's Student Government Association Senate Wednesday night gave its president, Susanne Smith, permission to vote as she saw fit on the compulsory ROTC question after hearing arguments at All-University Cabinet meeting.

The senators said they felt the arguments she heard at Cabinet would be better than any they discussed at their meeting. Miss Smith said she thought the arguments boiled down to two basic ones: to train officers on a voluntary program or to train all the men on a compulsory program.

One of the senators said she thought it would be better because of the condition the world is in today to have all the men trained in case of a crisis.

Officials Seek More Rec Data

The student opinion survey of the University's recreational and social facilities, now being conducted at the request of President Eric A. Walker, is looking for suggestions from "any person or any group" that thinks they can help the survey.

Dr. Robert G. Bernreuter, who is heading a group of administration members and students taking the survey, said the group "would welcome any information, suggestions, or recommendations that any person or any group believes they could contribute to the study."

The purpose of the study is to determine if recreational and social facilities have "kept pace with the increased growth of the University," according to Bernreuter.
