

Close Fights Top Intramural Boxing

By DON CASCIATO

The Penn State cavalcade of intramural sports entered its second night of boxing and produced an exciting card of six matches. The bouts took place last night before a large and enthusiastic crowd at Recreation Hall.

Two bouts stood out as the most exciting fights of the night. Bill Smith, Delta Sigma Phi, decisioned Lee Gemmill, Lambda Chi Alpha. In the other thriller, Richard Wilson, Lambda Chi Alpha, defeated Arthur Borczon of Phi Kappa in three rounds.

Smith, fighting in the 155 pound class, was the aggressor throughout the fight, although Gemmill did open strong in the opening seconds of the third round. Smith retaliated well in the third frame, however, to score a knockdown towards the end of the round.

Wilson completely outclassed Borczon in a heavyweight bout. He knocked his opponent down three times with a combination of strong left jabs and a crossfire of solid punches.

In the only 128-pound fight of the evening, Dave Frick won over Bill Kuhnsman in the maximum three rounds. Frick, fighting for Theta Chi, was on the defensive much of the match as Delta Upsilon's Kuhnsman, a southpaw, fought aggressively to confuse Frick with his left handed punches. However, Frick had the right punches when he needed them to win.

In the 135 pound class, Fred Doyle of Beaver House beat Ralph Moore of Lambda Chi Alpha in a very evenly matched fight. Doyle, scoring with solid rights and a fury of punches towards the end of the second round, outpointed his foe.

Charles Strauss, Tau Phi Delta, decisioned Bill Walton, Alpha Sigma Phi, in a 155 pound tilt. Strauss forced the fight and put Walton on the defensive. Strauss fought well with a good crossfire and strong jabs.

Dick Hand, of Lambda Chi, won the final bout of the night when he outfought Gordon Krieger, Theta Xi. The fight was fought on very even terms. Hand, the shorter of the two fighters, forced the fight in the second round and was able to defend himself well. Krieger rallied with some strong punches in the third frame, but it wasn't enough.

Sydney Kurtz, Theta Kappa Phi, Don Moyer, Sigma Nu, Doug Childlow, Pi Kappa Alpha, Bill Klumek, Pi Kappa Alpha, Alvin Clemens, Beta Theta Pi, and Jim Senry, Phi Delta Theta, won their matches by forfeit.

Brown Willing to Fight

CHICAGO, Dec. 5—Joe Brown, the lightweight champion, sees three men in his future—Ralph Dupas, Kenny Lane and Duilio Loi. He is ready to fight one and all, if the price is right.

A HARD RIGHT . . . but it didn't do any good. Despite this sharp right hand shot by Theta Xi's Gordy Kreiger at Lambda Chi Alpha's Dick Hand, it was not enough to turn the tide. Hand won on a decision.

Alpha Sig Bowls High Game

Alpha Sigma Phi rolled 865 in the third game of its match with Phi Kappa Psi in Wednesday night's intramural bowling activities to pull down the League B team high scoring honors.

Ray Euler of Alpha Sig took the high singles laurels with a 209 game and Delta Chi's Dave Bucke bowled 556 points for the

3 Cop 4th IM Cage Win

Alpha Tau Omega, McKee II, Watkins 16 points, defeated Sigma and Watts I became the first Tau Gamma, 35-30. Watkins point teams to cop four wins in intramural basketball action. They total was the high of the night rolled to these heights Wednesday night at Rec Hall.

In the other two fraternity tilts of the evening, Theta Xi edged Theta Delta Chi, 29-26 and Sigma Chi beat Pi Kappa Phi, 32-23.

The remainder of the independent schedule saw the Cardinals defeat the Masters, 25-23; the Jordan Jaguars edge McKee 3-4, 26-25; and McKee I win over Jordan II, 28-19.

Second to Watkins in the scoring column was Larry Bayer, with 15 tallies.

LOVE IN THE LAUNDRY

Last month we got the following letter:

Dear Van Heusen, you rats:

Thanks mucho for breaking up the hottest romance since Scarlet and Rhett. Me and Laundry Mark x428Fy might be honeymooning in Palm Beach today if it wasn't for your so-called smart ideas. Go shoot yourselves in your ulcers. Respectfully yours, Dorothea Jones.

We tracked down the story behind it and found that Miss Jones worked a steam-iron at the Acme Laundry in Eastpox, N. J. Last year, while ironing a shirt belonging to Laundry Mark x428Fy, she had noticed a small piece of paper protruding from the slot on the collar. Curious, she pulled it out and read: "Whoever you are, I love the way you press my shirts. I think I may love you too. Interested?" She blushed, but daringly wrote her answer — "Interested, sorta," and slipped it in the collar-slot. Ten days later came another shirt from x428Fy and, sure enough, another note: "If you can cook like you can write I may be smitten beyond recall. Fascinated?"

This time she almost swooned, and wrote back, "Wow, am I!"

Anyhow, note followed hot note and Miss Jones began thinking of turning in her steam-iron for a marriage manual. Until one day tragedy struck. x428Fy's shirts arrived as usual, but when Miss Jones turned to the slot she found it sewn-up. Frantic, she tried to rip it open. No luck. She could feel something thin inside, but she couldn't get to it. And that's how it's been ever since!

You see, x428Fy had switched to slotless Van Heusen Collarite shirts—with sewn-in stays! You should, too! These micro-thin stays can't get lost, keep your collar flat, and launder with your shirt! Specify Collarite next time.

And don't feel bad about Miss Jones. She took her unhappiness out in hard work and was promoted to assistant manager. We expect a thank-you note from her any day.

Discover one of the great advances in shirt history. Sewn-in collar stays that can't get lost. Only at . . .
