

Men's Debate Team Ties 2d Place at Allegheny

The men's debate team tied for second place with a record of five wins and one loss at a tournament held at Allegheny College last weekend.

The theme of the debate was: "Resolved: That Membership in Labor Organizations as a Condition for Employment Should Be Illegal."

Coed Pre-Rush Will Preview Sorority Life

Freshman women will get a brief glimpse of sorority life this week when pre-rushing will be held.

Pre-rush, according to Grace Antes, president of Panhellenic Council, also gives a coed a chance to see what formal rushing will be like next semester.

Pre-rush began at 9:15 last night in the lounges of the freshman residence halls with fireside chats sponsored by Panhel.

Registration for pre-rushing will be held from 9 a.m. to noon and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. today and tomorrow in 105 Old Main. There is no charge for registering for pre-rush. A $1 fee is charged for registering for formal rush.

Open houses will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday. A coed need not have an invitation from a sorority to visit its suite. Dress will be school clothes.

R. Mae Shultz, assistant dean of women, has urged all coeds to take part in pre-rush. Pre-rush in no way obligates a coed to rush formally next semester, she said.

Mann Given Library Post

Charles W. Mann, library bibliographical researcher for the past three years, has been named rare books and manuscript assistant, according to Ralph W. McComb, librarian.

Mann will be responsible for the organization and care of the growing collection of rare books and manuscripts, and with assistance from members of the library staff and the faculty experts to initiate a program for the acquisition of additional materials in this field.

His appointment was recommended by a special committee of the College of the Liberal Arts, selected to advise with the librarian on the handling of the special collection.

Mann received his bachelor of arts degree in arts and letters and his master of arts at the University. He has been on the library staff since 1954.

Entremont to Give Recital Tomorrow

The State College Concerts Association series will have a touch of the international when Philippe Entremont, the youthful French pianist, will present the second program of the series.

The concert will be held at 8:30 tomorrow night in Schwab Auditorium.

Entremont, who is only 23, has won many awards and toured through many countries in his international career as a concert artist. He is currently on his fourth tour in the United States and Canada and he has been heard throughout Europe on annual tours during the past five years.

Entremont started his piano lessons at the age of six. When he was 17 he won the Queen Elizabeth of Belgium contest, an internationally famous piano competition. He was 19 when he became first laureat and Grand Prize Winner in the International-Marguerite Long-Jacques Thibaud competition which is held annually in Paris.

In his first New York appearance in 1953 Entremont received top praise when he premiered the Jolivet Concerto in Carnegie Hall with the National Orchestral Association under Leon Barzin.

The program is open to members of the association. Those tickets available to students at the Hetzel Union desk already have been taken.

Little Man on Campus

by Dick Biber

"Today we begin another exciting and stimulating unit in late medieval history."

The team also participated in a tournament at Temple University and had a record of six wins and two losses.

In the Allegheny tournament the affirmative won all three of its matches. Jay Feldstein and David R. Scott were the members of the team. They defeated Westminster College, Washington and Jefferson College and the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Members of the negative team were Alan Elms and Paul Balserak. They won two and lost one, defeating Grove City College and Case University and losing to Mount Mercy College.

Peter Galie and Arthur Ichter were on the affirmative team at the Temple tournament. They beat the University of Pennsylvania, Harvard University and Messiah College, while losing to Dartmouth College.

The negative team, composed of Robert Lockard and Kermit Winkelblech, defeated Marywood College, Morgan State College and Ursinus College and lost to Rutgers University.

The women's debate team vied in a "novice tournament" at Temple over the weekend. Results of the competition were not released. It was the first debating competition the team entered this year.

Louise White and Harlene Lit were on the affirmative team while Patricia Bilonik and Barbara Kershnick were on the negative team.
