

DU, Lambda Chi Lone Contenders for Crown

By DON CASCIATO

Delta Upsilon won one fight to boost its number of finalists to three last night as it prepared to defend its intramural boxing crown at Recreation Hall Thursday.

The defending champs have 60 points compared to Lambda Chi Alpha's 50 points. Lambda Chi placed four entries in the finals when it advanced one man last night.

George Hunter, Delta Upsilon, defeated Don McElhaney of Sigma Pi in a 135-pound bout, to capture the lone victory for DU. Hunter had to hold off a last minute flurry by McElhaney in order to enter the finals.

DU's other semifinalist, John Dubinsky, was defeated by Dan Lessig, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in the night's only 165-pound tussle. Lessig, after a poor first round, fought well in the next two frames to win.

Lambda Chi Alpha remained in contention for the crown when heavyweight Dick Wilson stopped Frank Urban, Phi Delta Theta, in two rounds. The fight was stopped near the close of the second round when Wilson landed a right to body and a left to the head.

In a 175-pound tilt, Sam Stellatella, Alpha Phi Delta, won over Jim Schry, Phi Delta Theta. Stellatella was the aggressor throughout the bout and used a good left and a strong right combination to score the win.

Beale Kinsey, Beta Theta Pi, outfought Dave Frick, Theta Chi, in the only 128-pound fight of the night. Kinsey forced the fight and set up his opponent well, landing with solid combinations.

In a 155-pound bout, Delta Sigma Phi's Bill Smith displayed a fine fighting style in beating Beta Theta Pi's Al Clemens. Smith charged his foe all through the fight. Clemens fought a game bout, but could not ward off his opponent.

In the lone 145-pound fight, Al Thumler, Sigma Pi, defeated Doug Childlow, Pi Kappa Alpha. Frank Lobb fought a steady fight as he bested John Collins in a 155-pound independent scrap. Lobb forced the fight and knocked Collins down in the second round.

In a very close 135-pound indie tussle, Bob Burlbaugh decimated Charles McCardell. McCardell put his foe on the defensive several times, but Burlbaugh had the good punches when he needed them. In the other 135-pound independent fight, Bob Wands beat Maurice Hobaugh.

Delta Sigma Phi's Tony Di-Guglielmo won by forfeit in the 135-pound division over Sigma Nu's Don Moyer. Bob Smith also won by forfeit when Gary Fry failed to answer the starting bell.

A SMASHING RIGHT is sent on its way by DU's Jack Dubinsky (r) in his 165-pound bout with Dan Lessig, SAE. The punch landed but was not enough to score a Dubinsky victory. Lessig won by a decision.

Soccer Captain Picked

Howie Maierhofer, a junior halfback from Buffalo, N.Y., has been named captain of Penn State's 1958 soccer team. Maierhofer, a student in labor management relations, replaces senior fullback Ralph Brower, as the Lion booters' team leader.

A playmaker of note, Maierhofer was one of the key men behind the 8-1-1 record posted by this year's Lion soccer team. He is rated as one of the best halfbacks in Penn State's soccer history and is a top contender for All-American honors this fall.

Soccer Coach Ken Hosterman describes Maierhofer as "a hustler and experienced soccer player." Phil Bostley, a junior in arts and letters from Nuangola, was selected as the head soccer manager, replacing Jack Helphern, a senior from Altoona.

Maierhofer Named to first assistant manager positions were Mark Willensky, a sophomore in business administration from Scranton; Fred Biesscker, a sophomore in business administration from Scranton; and Bob Shapiro, a sophomore in business administration from Allentown.

Time Out

The dorms and town are bustling. Everyone is rushing around.

But you can relax and take it easy for a few hours at Duffy's in Boalsburg. Dinner at Duffy's will prepare you for the final rush home.

A quiet meal of steak or chops will taste good before you go home to turkey. Drive out this week.
