

In Defense of Two Titles

Gymnasts Wallop Temple, But Trackmen Lose W. Va. Over Vacation

The only Lion undefeated varsity team at the moment is the gymnastics squad with a 2-0 record. The defending Eastern and National (NCAA) collegiate champions scored easy 30-point wins over the two softest opponents on their schedule—Temple and West Virginia.

In both meets, a sophomore Lee Cunningham paced the team with high-scoring firsts on the side-horse and horizontal bar, while four other Lions swept the top position in the remaining events. Against Temple, the final score was 63-33 and the final in Saturday's meet at Morgantown was 62-32.

Cunningham coming along as expected, won on the horse against Temple with a 234 and improved his score against the Mounties with a 252. On the horizontal bar, the sophomore star was consistent with a 267 against Temple and a 265 against West Virginia.

His counter-part, Jay Werner, only had two fair days. Although winning easily in his specialty—the flying rings—Werner placed third on the parallel bars and fourth on the high bar against Temple. He improved somewhat against West Virginia with a second on the side horse and parallels.

Winning both times on the parallels by impressive 251 and 256 scores was Captain Bob Foht.

Vince Newhouser took two firsts in the rope climb with a 4.6 at Temple and 4.5 against the Mounties. Senior John Hiding had a 4.7 against the Owls, but missed the pan on both tries at Morgantown. Don Littlewood recorded a 4.9 in the West Virginia meet.

A happy surprise was the performances of sophomore tumbler Graeme Cowan. The inexperienced Cowan has taken firsts in both meets, with scores of 245 and 253 while leading the Lions to a sweep of the event against Temple.

Junior Dave Dulaney tied Cowan in the opening meet and finished six points behind the second time out. Adie Stevens earned a third against Temple (21-8) but was injured and did not make the trip to Morgantown.

Campanella 'Much Better'

GLEN COVE, N.Y., Feb. 2 (AP)—Roy Campanella was reported "much better" today, although his paralysis shows only slight improvement.

Moran Stars at Navy

Trackmen Lose

Junior Ed Moran set two Navy field house records and anchored a Nittany relay team which set a third record in the Lions' 61½-38½ loss to Navy Saturday at Annapolis.

Moran won the mile in 4:24.7, the 1000 in 2:16 and anchored the Lions' winning two-mile relay team with a 1:59.4 half-mile.

Lion high jumper Bob Parker set a new Penn State indoor mark with a 13'6" leap in the Philadelphia Inquirer games, finished sixth in the pole vault against Navy.

Second place finishes for Penn State were turned in by Fred Kerr in the mile and two-mile events, Jim Norton in the 600. John Fariera in the high jump and Buster Thomas in the 60.

Third place efforts for the Lions went to Fariera in the high hurdles, Blain O'Conner in the 60. George Jones in the 1000 and Dick Campbell in the high jump.

Bill Schwab in his first varsity track meet turned in an impressive 1:57.5 on his half-mile leg of the two-mile relay.

Navy set six field house records in the meet. It was only the second track meet held in the recently built structure.

The midshipmen scored 27 points to 0 for the Lions in the broad jump, shot put and pole vault—three events which the Nittany trackmen have inferior or non-existent training facilities.

Co-captain Ogie Norris, who was scored by Jerry Seckler at 157 pounds when he topped Greg Ruth, 7-6.

Steve Dasta and Lehigh's Dick Kerr drew, 1-1, at 137 pounds and Emory Morrison battled the Engineer's Thad Turner to a 1-1 stalemate at 167 pounds to end the Lion scoring.

ACE LION FLYER Jay Werner starts swinging into a difficult move in his high-scoring routine on the flying rings. Werner picked up a first with 277 against West Virginia for the highest score of the meet.
