

Moran Will Head Nittany Thinclads ATO's 6th Victory In Meet at West Point Saturday Highlights IM Cage

Junior Ed Moran will be one of coach Chick Werner's big threats when the Lion trackteam meets Army at West Point this Saturday.

Werner has put so much reliance in Moran as a point-getter for the thinclads that he is entering him in three events—the mile, 1000-yard run, and the two-mile relay race with the key spot of anchorman.

And there's plenty of reason for Werner's reliance on this stellar junior athlete.

Moran has not only performed well on the indoor boards this year but he has been an outstanding performer in cross-country and outdoor track competition since he came to State three years ago.

Werner was particularly impressed with Moran's showing as anchorman on the two-mile relay team that won the event in the Millrose games last Saturday and set a new Penn State record for the event.

Moran finished the race for the Nittanians with a sizzling 1:51.6 half which was only one second off the accepted indoor record which was performed from a standing start.

Werner was also looking at Moran's performance against Navy three weeks ago when the Lions opened the season against the Midshipmen.

Moran won the mile in 4:24.7, the 1000 in 2:16 and anchored the Lions' winning two-mile relay team with a 1:59.4.

The Lions' are still weak in the field events—especially the shot put where they only have one entry. But aside from this, they have the depth in the other events that should give them the nod.

Fred Kerr will run the mile with Moran and will compete in the two-mile run with sophomore flash Dick Englebrink from Abington.

Co-Captain Dick Gross will again compete in the pole vault. Norris set a new Penn State indoor mark with a 13'6" leap in the Philadelphia Inquirer games but three weeks ago he finished sixth against Navy in the event.

Baseball Managers

Sophomores interested in becoming baseball second managers should sign up anytime this week at the Athletic Office in Recreation Hall or call Bill Wallis at AD 7-4957.

All candidates must have at least a 2.0 All-University average.

Penn State will open its 1958 football season a week earlier than usual, against Nebraska at Lincoln September 20.

Deadline Set For Bowling Tournament

The second annual University handicap bowling tournament will be held from Feb. 24 through March 2 at the Recreation Hall Alleys. Entries will close Feb. 17.

Tournament director Jordan Love said the tourney can hold more entries. The event is open to all University personnel active in local bowling leagues. Entry blanks are available at the alley office in Recreation Hall. Priority is given in scheduling to those who have their entries in early.

The playing times are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 6:30 and 9:00 p.m.; Wednesday at 9:00 p.m.; Saturday at 3:30, 6:30 and 9 p.m.; and Sunday 1, 3:30 and 6 p.m.

The program includes team, doubles, singles and all events. The team fee is $7.50 and the doubles fee is $3.00.

Alpha Tau Omega edged Sigma Chi, 22-21, to pace intramural basketball action Tuesday night at Recreation Hall and to remain in first place in Fraternity League E with a 6-0 mark.

Larry Baver led ATO's attack almost single-handedly as he scored 17 of his team's 22 points.

The Studniks also kept an unbeaten record intact when they defeated the Burns, 30-23. The Studniks also have a 6-0 card. Harry Palaschak was the mainstay for the Studniks with 14 points.

In other play, Theta Kappa Phi beat Sigma Alpha Mu, 26-11; Phi Kappa Phi won over Alpha Chi Rho, 24-21 and Alpha Phi Delta beat Theta Delta Chi, 36-23.

Penn Haven defeated the Wolves, 32-18; McKee 3-4 won over the Watts Devils, 32-28; and Pollock 4 beat Pollock 6, 19-13.

The scheduled encounter between Pollock 12 and the Concoctics was ruled no contest as neither team could produce the necessary five men.

Baver's 17 tallies was the high point total for the evening. Ben Amato, Alpha Phi Delta, was second with 15 markers. Dave Watkins, Alpha Chi Rho, and Palaschak were tied for third in the scoring race with 14 counters each.

Theta Xi Bowls To Loop Lead

Theta Xi jumped into first place in intramural bowling Fraternity League A by virtue of its second shutout in two matches when it blanked Phi Delta Theta, first half winners, Tuesday night at Recreation Hall.

In other alley action, Alpha Tau Omega beat Kappa Delta Rho, Theta Delta Chi won over Alpha Zeta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon topped Delta Upsilon by 3-1 scores. Phi Mu Delta tied Kappa Sigma, 2-2.
