

Matmen Seek to Snap Two-Meet Losing Streak

Penn State's wrestlers will be trying to snap an almost unbelievable two-meet losing skien this evening when they face Maryland on the Terripan mats.

It's been over a decade since the Lion matmen have lost two meets in succession. But, unless the Nittanies win (or tie) this evening, they are almost certain to end up with four straight dual losses at the end of the season.

The fourth would be a defeat to Pitt, whom the Lions meet in the 1958 finale next Saturday night at Recreation Hall.

The Panther team, one of the nation's wrestling leaders, is favored up to 10 points at this early stage.

But back to the Maryland fracas. In order to beat the Rebels this evening, the Lions will have to perform much better than they did in their last two encounters when they were soundly beaten by Cornell, 19-8, and Syracuse, 21-8. In those two frays, the Lions didn't look anything like the reputable Penn State teams of the past 10 years.

Two regulars, Earl Poust and Hank Barone, will be absent from the Lion starting lineup tonight and that won't make things any easier for Coach Charlie Speidel. Both are missing because of injuries.

Poust, the veteran 147-pound ace, was put out of commission with a shoulder separation in his match with Syracuse's Gordon Carberry last week. He'll be lost for the Pitt meet also.

Barone, the sophomore 177-pounder who became eligible only three weeks ago, twisted a knee in a practice session last Wednesday. He had looked exceptionally well in his first two matches, losing to Cornell's John Gardner by one point and tying Syracuse's Bill Murphy.

Despite the loss of two regulars, only one new man will be seen tonight. That will be Dan Grey, a senior who wrestled (and lost) a varsity match against Lehigh a couple of years ago. Grey will replace Barone at 177. He won the starting berth by flattening sophomore Dan Faris in an elimination match Thursday night.

To make up for the absence of Poust, Speidel is shifting his weights around again. The first four posts will be held by the same men who wrestled last Saturday—Jack Maher at 123; Johnny Johnston at 130; Dan Johnston at 137; and Guy Guccione at 147. Sam Minor will go at 157. George Gray at 167 and Ray Pottios at heavy-weight.

Gray, who has seen action at both 167 and 177, didn't wrestle last week because of another Speidel weight shift. That one had Poust at 157, Minor at 167 and Barone at 177.

Syracuse, Like Pitt, Finds Cage 'Error'

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Feb. 21 (AP)—Syracuse University said today it had discovered a member of its basketball team was ineligible for competition under rules of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Lew Andreas, Orange athletic director, said William Stearns, a sophomore from Glen Aubrey, N.Y., was not eligible for competition under the ECAC's 5-year rule.

Stearns, considered the 10th man on Marc Guley's squad, had played in seven Syracuse games, three won by the Orange. He played a total of 27 minutes and scored six points.

Stearns attended Cortland State Teachers College in 1952. After a season, he dropped out of school. In the fall of 1956, he entered Syracuse.

A student must complete his athletic career in a 5-year period according to the ECAC ruling. Stearns' eligibility was completed last season.

Andreas said he had contacted the seven schools against whom Stearns played and reported the situation. Those involved were Army, Georgetown, Canisius, Cornell, Fordham, Holy Cross and Penn State. Syracuse defeated the first three teams.

He said athletic officials at the schools declined to accept forfeits. Andreas said the "error was ours, not the boy's."

A similar situation was discovered at the University of Pittsburgh Feb. 14.

Syracuse 'Freeze' Lion Cagers, 45-31

(Continued from page six) hitting on eight of 12 shots—most of them from the inside—he finished with 22 points. He also pulled down 17 rebounds, tops for both clubs.

Now carrying a 7-9 record, the Lions meet Colgate tonight at Hamilton, N.Y. But the win season is just about gone.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

"Problems keep life interesting for a telephone engineer"

"I've taken part in all kinds of engineering projects during the five years I've been with the telephone company," says Bill Rhode, M.E., Tulane, '52. "Each project brings special problems to solve.

"Take a couple of recent jobs I did as examples. One was to plan and oversee the relocation of telephone facilities near a new drawbridge. The job included designs for attaching telephone cable to the finished bridge and for providing service to the bridge-tender's office and the locks.

"The other job was completely different. It involved bringing telephone service to an entire community of new homes—New Orleans' Park Island Subdivision. First I made field studies to determine requirements, then designed telephone facilities to take care of the community for 20 years.

"Another thing about these jobs—they're a result of the growth of the telephone business. Not only do problems like these keep life interesting for a telephone engineer, but they mean that careers are full of opportunities to show what you can do and get ahead."

Wilmer J. Rhode is with Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. He is one of many young men who are finding interesting and rewarding careers with the Bell Telephone Companies. Ask your placement officer for information about the careers these companies offer.
