

Gymnasts Whip Navy; Frosh Lose

By MATT MATHEWS
Jay Werner and Phil Mullen were the only two Lions to take a pair of wins when the Lion gymnasts swept five of six events Saturday in roaring over previously-undefeated Navy, 61½-34½.

The freshmen lost to the Plebes at Annapolis, 61-35.

Werner had firsts on the parallel bars and the flying rings. Mullen's two wins were: the rope climb in :03.7 and a new bride. He was married Saturday afternoon.

The climbers again took an amazing 1-2-3 sweep of the event with one minor hitch. Don Littlewood was tied for third with an :04.2 clocking. Vince Neuhauser climbed the 20 feet in :03.9.

But the "shining light" was Werner as he repeated his performance of last week against Syracuse. His flying rings routine was one of the smoothest exercises seen in the Rec Hall confines in a long time.

He also accomplished another feat that escaped him during the first four meets when he beat Captain Bob Foht on the parallel bars, 253-243. He was defeated on the high bar, although he duplicated his best routine and his score of last week, a 263. However, teammate Lee Cunningham hit with a sensational 268.

TUMBLING—1. Dulaney, 258, 2. Cunningham, 242, 3. Cowan, 238, 4. Stumbe (N) 218, 5. Sparks (N) 208. Event—11-3.

SIDE HORSE—1. Sheppard (N) 258, 2. McFarland (N) 240, 3. Kimmel (N) 223, 4. Cunningham, 219, 5. Donatelli, 177. Event—3-13. Meet—16-16.

HIGH BAR—1. Cunningham, 268, 2. Werner, 263, 3. Morgan, (N) 251, 4. Savadove, 239, 5. Cooper (N) 234. Event—12-4. Meet—28-20.

ROPE—1. Mullen, 3.7, 2. Neuhauser, 3.9, 3. (Tie) Littlewood and Wheatley (N) 4.3, 5. Davidson (N) 4.3. Event—12½-3½. Meet—49½-23½.

PARALLELS—1. Werner, 253, 2. McNutt (N) 218, 3. Foht, 243, 4. Savadove, 214, 5. Morgan, (N) 194. Event—11-5. Meet—51½-28½.

FLYING RINGS—1. Werner, 276, 2. Houston, (N) 251, 3. Sidwell, 248, 4. Chamberlin, (N) 228, 5. Donahue, 215. Event—10-6. Meet—61½-34½.

Matmen Tie Terps, 14-14

Maybe that dream of beating the power-packed Pitt in wrestling Saturday night at Recreation Hall isn't as far-fetched as most Penn State mat fans have been led to believe. At least not judging from the performance of the Lions over the weekend against Maryland.

The Nittanies battled the favored Terrapins to a 14-14 draw last Saturday night at the Maryland Field House—and in the end it was the home team which was lucky to survive with a tie.

Penn State had a six-point lead, 14-8, going into the final two matches but neither Dan Gray, the substitute 177-pound entry, nor heavyweight Ray Pottios could come through with the necessary victory for a Penn State win.

Gray, wrestling in the place of sophomore Hank Barone, made a brilliant effort before bowing to Maryland's highly-regarded co-captain Dick Dean, 4-0.

Pottios lost a listless 4-2 decision to weak Bob Dougherty.

The meet opened with indications of a Maryland romp when the Terp's Ray Osborne threw Jack Maher in 2:40 with a double bar arm. But from that match until the last two, Maryland had little consolation.

Captain Johnny Johnston went looking for a fall against Dick Van Auken at 130 pounds but could manage only a 9-6 decision. But Johnny's far-distant cousin Danny shot the Lions into the lead with a 5-0 whitewash job against Bill Crandall.

However, Maryland's national standout Nick Biondi put the Terps back into command by handing Guy Guccione his fourth loss of the season, 4-1.

The next two matches were all Penn State. Sam Minor toyed with Joe Thomas in taking a 4-0 decision at 157 and George Gray gave the Lions their 6-point spread when he flattened Dick Besnier, an old high school pal, in 4:07 with an outside cradle.

Then came the disheartening losses at 177 and heavyweight.

Summaries:
123—Ray Osborne (M) pinned Jack Maher, 2:10 with double arm bar.

124—John Johnston (PS) decisioned Dick Van Auken, 8-6.
127—Dan Johnston (PS) decisioned Bill Crandall, 3-0.
147—Nick Biondi (M) decisioned Guy Guccione, 4-1.
157—Sam Minor (PS) decisioned Joe Thomas, 4-0.
167—George Gray (PS) pinned Dick Besnier, 4:07 with outside cradle.
177—Dick Dean (M) decisioned Dan Gray, 4-0.
Hwt.—Bob Dougherty (SD) decisioned Ray Pottios, 4-2.
