Dear Christina.

With this cold weather, my boy friend and I have had to spend much more time in the dorm lounge. Lately I've had the feeling that the housemothers don't approve of this. What can I do?

Avast, Me Hearties-or, What's With Tradition?

When does a tradition become a tradition? Your guess is a good as ours, but here is the business: Tonight is the night of Delta Sigma Phi's annual Sailors' Ball. That's a tradition. Tonight the CAMPUSEERS are providing the music for Sailors' Ball. Now maybe that's not a tradition YET, but the CAMPUSEERS have been playing for Sailors' Ball since 1950. That's a long time in anyone's contract book. A lot of Delta Sigs have gone out into the cruel word in that time. What do they look for when they come back for the big weekend? Why, the CAMPUSEERS—natch!

Sailors' Ball—quite a blast. The CAMPUSEERS—quite a band
