Bisons Withstand Rally Hennon, Wilt, Rodgers To Win Overtime Test Get All-American Berths

Penn State closed its basketball season on a losing note last night, falling in a single-overtime duel before an under-rated Bucknell five, 75-73, at Lewisburg. The loss was the Lions' 11th in 19 games.

The Bucknell frosh topped the Nittany frosh, 71-58, in a preliminary test.

In winning, the Bisons increased their home-court victory skein over the Lions to three consecutive years and, in the process, did what no other Bison club has been able to do in the last 10 years—beat Penn State twice in one season. The Herd took the first step to that goal when they topped the Lions, 63-56, in their season's first meeting two weeks ago at Recreation Hall.

The victory, the Bisons' fifth in a row, pushed their season's card to 15-8. They close the year with a home contest against Muhlenberg Saturday night.

In a game that saw the lead change hands twice—the score was tied three times—the Bisons had to withstand a desperation rally by Penn State to grab the tight victory.

With the Lions on the short end of a 55-39 count in the latter part of the second period—a situation that looked as bleak as a storm at sea—Co-Captain Ron Rainey and junior Ted Kubista took Lion scoring affairs into their own hands to put their club back within striking distance.

Scoring 17 points between them—Rainey nine, Kubista eight—the Lions tied the score 69-69 in the final minutes on a Rainey goal.

Big Hal Danzig put the Bisons out front temporarily, 71-69, on a tap. However, Rainey, his shots falling in with amazing accuracy at this point, hit with a jump from the right side just as the buzzer went off to send the game into overtime, 71-71.

In the overtime, Jack Flanagan and Rainey traded baskets before Bob Edwards was fouled by the Bisons' Bob Ericsson. Edwards missed the one-and-one opportunity and the Bisons gained control.

With approximately 1:30 remaining, Rainey fouled Bison substitute John Strizzi. Strizzi made the most of his one-and-one opportunity and the Bisons had the ballgame.

The Lion attempt to tie the score failed and the game ended with Strizzi holding the ball from the desperate Lions as the final three seconds went by the clock.

Rainey led the Lion scoring attack with 23 points, assuring himself of his second individual Lion scoring title. He finished the year with 294 points for slightly better than a 15-point average. Wally Colender was next for the Lions with 16 points while Kubista followed with 15.

But the big noise as far as scoring went was the 6-10 Danzig. He totalled 32 points to become the first Bison to hit the

NEW YORK 17, 236 Park Ave. MONTCLAIR, N.J., 33 Plymouth St.

NEW YORK, March 5 (AP)—Negroes for the first time dominated the All-America basketball team selected for The Associated Press by 316 sports writers and sports broadcasters representing all sections of the nation.

There are four on the first team announced today—Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas, Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, Elgin Baylor of Seattle, and Guy Rodgers of Temple.

The fifth man is Don Hennon, Pitt's little 5-8½ star.

Chamberlain, a junior named to the first team for the second straight year, led the voting with 1,592 points and 297 first team votes on the basis of five for a first team vote and two for a second team placing. Robertson, a sophomore who put Cincinnati back on the basketball map, was second with 1,330 and 256 firsts. Baylor was third with 1,327 and 249 firsts. Rodgers had 975 and 172 firsts and Hennon 717 and 109 firsts. No one else came near getting 100 firsts.

Bob Boozer, Kansas State's Negro star, was named on a second team along with Archie Dees, Indiana star; Bailey Howell of Mississippi State; Lloyd Sharar of West Virginia, a Meadville, Pa., native and Pete Brennan of North Carolina.

Jerry West, West Virginia sophomore; Tommy Keatts, North Carolina; Mike Farmer, San Francisco; Johnny Green, Michigan State, and Tom Hawkins, Notre Dame, comprise a third team.

These top 15 players each will receive a certificate from The Associated Press.

Oddly, three of the first team are native Pennsylvanians. Chamberlain and Rodgers are from Philadelphia while Hennon hails from Wampum, Pa., a suburb of Pittsburgh. Rodgers is the only senior on the first five.
