

University to Offer Summer TV Math

The University will be one of six central Pennsylvania colleges and universities to offer summer instruction in English, mathematics and science over station WFBG-TV, Altoona.

The University, through its Altoona center, will be in charge of the mathematics instructional program. Indiana

WSGA To Fill Posts March 11-13

Ellen Donovan, junior in arts and letters from Emporium, and Sandra Shogren, junior in arts and letters from Pittsburgh, are nominees for president of Women's Student Government Association.

Preliminary elections will be held March 11 and the final elections March 13.

Students nominated for vice president are Jeanette Butler, Nancy Clark, Jessie Jangigian, Janet Moore, Kay Rarig, Sally Seifarth, Mary Struble and Arlene Starkey.

Women running for treasurer are Susanne Bishop, Janet Callaway, Susan First, Sally Genszler, Alice Hoyt, Marlene Neff, Betty Orcutt and Sue Smithson.

Nominees for senior senator are Barbara Bell, Janet Grayshon, Arlene D'Onofrio, Nancy Hubbell, Suzanne Ittel, Bonnie Jones, Sybil Kersh, Jean Kissick, Marjorie Ludwig, Cynthia McKay and Florence Moran. One will be elected.

Nominees for junior senator are: Ellen Butterworth, Jane Crowl, Catherine Fleck, Mary Masters, Jody Miller, Loretta Mink, Mary Paxton, Josephine Rider, Anne Ruthrauff and Betty Thompson. One will be elected.

Nominees for sophomore senator include: Barbara Bragdon, Roberta Engelbrink, Sheila Gallagher, Linda Harmon, Elizabeth Ingley, Joan Kemp, Margaret McPherson, Barbara Moore, Nancy Nicholson, Lucille Thiessen and Jane Ingley. Two will be elected.

Eleanor Baker, Judith Dubois and Phoebe Humphrey are nominees for town senator seat.

Women will vote in the dormitory in which they eat. Town girls will vote in McAllister Hall.

Research Head to Talk At Mechanics Seminar

A. M. O. Smith, Supervisor of Aerodynamics Research at Douglas Aircraft Co., El Segundo, Cal., will discuss, "Effects of Roughness on Transition in Laminar Boundary Layers," at the fluid mechanics seminar.

The meeting is at 4:10 p.m. today in 1 Sackett.

WSGA May Alter Name Of Guide

The Women's Student Government Association may change the name of its handbook, Cicerone, according to Sandra Gusky, junior in journalism from Pittsburgh.

Miss Gusky said Wednesday the committee thought that the present Latin name was meaningless and hoped to get a more descriptive one.

Helen Baldwin, junior in education from Lewistown, was appointed coordinator on campus for the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students (IAWS).

It was announced that WSGA will send delegates to the IAWS convention April 2-5 at the University of West Virginia. President Susanne Smith, Helen Baldwin and other members of senate will represent the University.

The Senate on Wednesday also discussed May Day. It was announced that the women gymnasts and the Interlandia dancers could not be used again this year for entertainment. It was suggested that modern dancers be used.

It was also suggested that Beaver Field might be less expensive than the lawn of Old Main for the festivities.

Alpha Kappa Psi Initiates 14 Student Members

Fourteen students have been initiated into the Gamma Epsilon chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional business fraternity.

They are Emil Berish, Conrad Dougherty, Andrew Gaydos, William Graham, George Hulse, Nicholas Iuliano, Robert Jacobs, Donald McCleaf, Larry Olivia, Mansuato Pierucci, Leo Shuba, Peter Surmick, Clarence Swingle and Nicholas Triano.

State Teachers College will conduct the program in physics studies and Juniata College will be in charge of chemistry.

English instruction will be coordinated by St. Francis and Mt. Aloysius Colleges. Also cooperating is Lock Haven State Teachers College.

The series will be presented from June 16 to Aug. 15 and is scheduled Monday through Friday from 9 to 10 a.m. English and mathematics instruction will be given for five weeks and chemistry and physics for four.

The programs will consist of lectures, demonstrations and discussions presented by outstanding faculty members of the cooperating institutions.

They are designed for homemakers and retired persons who have not taken courses in these subjects, for high school students who want to refresh their knowledge for college in the fall and for women's clubs and other organizations which may form special listening groups.

The program was offered for the first time last summer for an 8-week period.

Hort Club to Send 12 to Flower Show

Twelve members of the Horticulture Club will leave for Philadelphia tonight to present a display at the Philadelphia Flower Show.

The students are David Horne, Thomas Roberts, Herbert Rothe, Jerry Ebrazinka, David Groff, Conrad Nicholas, Claude Sweet, Delano Muse, Larry Ridenour, Larry Reader, William Potts and James Portman.

Reader, senior in architecture from Malvern, designed the 18-by-25-foot display which contains all the flowers in a summer garden.

Approved Fraternities

All fraternities have been approved for the entertainment of women guests tonight and tomorrow night except Alpha Phi Alpha, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Kappa Psi, Alpha Phi Delta and Zeta Beta Tau. Kappa Alpha Psi, Omega Psi Phi, Phi Kappa, Pi Lambda Phi and Pi Sigma Upsilon have been approved for tomorrow night only.

ROLLER SKATE

Every Wed., Fri. & Sun. 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. E.S.T. Also Sun. afternoons 2-4 E.S.T. We RENT Chicago Shoe Skates HECLA PARK 15 miles East of State College, Rt. 41 Rink Available for Private Parties Phone Zion 2121

Ship'n Shore's brand new Tie-Tail Shirt in pastel stripings

Three smart fashion looks—all in one smart shirt! Want a blouson look? Tie the front tails, tuck back-tail in. Or go Caribbean—with front tails tied, back-tail out. Have a go-everywhere shirt too—tails untied and tucked smoothly inside! All this news, plus new new deep-cuff sleeves! Best-sudsing combed cotton broadcloth. Sizes 28 to 38. Come see all our new, new Ship'n Shores, from 2.98

Clearfield's

Across from Old Main, State College

Board Selects Five Finalists For Sophomore Queen Title

The Sophomore Class Advisory Board has selected the five sophomore finalists in the Sophomore Queen contest.

They are Audrey Finney, education major from Haverstown; Constance Edmunds, education major from Philadelphia; Marjorie Miller, education major from Bryn Mawr; Marilyn Turki, physical education major from Canonsburg; and Faith Horne, education major from Lititz.

The Queen will be selected at the Sophomore Stroll in the Hetzel Union Ballroom tomorrow night.

She will be crowned during the intermission by Steven Ott, sophomore class president.

Music for the dance will be provided by the AIM Band. James

Jimirro will be the master of ceremonies and intermission entertainment will be provided by "The Continentals."

Charles Petnick, owner of the Charles Shop, will act as a judge in the contest.

Mueller Talks at Ga. U

Dr. Erwin W. Mueller, research professor of physics, served as an invited lecturer last week at the Georgia University Center in Atlanta, Ga.

Take advantage of Collegian Classifieds

THE SPRING SUIT

by Mr. Charles

At a practical 59.95

A SUIT for neat, young figures, with a casual nonchalance. In muted checked wool. Also in grey flannel.

WE ARE HAPPY to accommodate you with a charge account.

Charles

STATE COLLEGE

124 S. ALLEN STREET ... and Allentown