Steele-Dubbs Personal Feud Claimed in Church Sermon

Letter on Page Four

The Rev. Donald R. Cutler, assistant to the Rector of St. Andrews Episcopal Church, said in a sermon Sunday that the whole incident concerning Robert Steele, All-University president, and the $150 "isn't just an incident of wrongdoing, but a personal argument between Steele and Ed Dubbs."

He said Dubbs, Collegian editor, has seen a "marvelous opportunity for Collegian to give the axe to Mr. Steele."

He termed this "personal argument" a product of the "fragility of the community"—the fragility being the inability to provide an atmosphere of forgiveness.

Within this fragile community, he said, "Bob Steele is not free to confess his error because the community cannot accept the confession and forgive."

In his association with people of the community Mr. Cutler, Episcopal chaplain to students, said he has noticed four basic opinions on the "Steele case."

• Steele is a great guy—let's leave it at that.

• The real culprit is George Donovan.

• Let's not ruin Steele's life because of one error.

• "Crucify him!" It's a real error and he should be punished.

Mr. Cutler illustrated his sermon on the several kinds of confessions with the "Steele case." He said one type of confession demands a community that can forgive and have mercy.

He said Steele admits that he "made a bit of a mistake but hasn't done any wrong." Then Cabinet fell in behind him with a vote of confidence for his actions, he said.

Collegian, he said, took up the banner from there saying "let's get someone up on the cross before the crowd goes home."

"This community is so fragile," he said, "there is little hope it can be resolved. The positions are slightly ridiculous and little can be done until everyone forgets it."

Knife Named Head Of Hotel Greeters

James Knipe, sophomore in hotel administration from Lower Merion, has been elected president of the University's Hotel Greeters Association.

Other officers elected are Neil White, vice president; Anita Lorah, treasurer; Virginia Taylor, recording secretary, and Bernard Hudnick, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Ada F. Kanhaus, Cumberland County home economist and W. A. "Spike" Kelley, of the President's staff, were appointed as advisers to the Hotel Greeters.

The congress prepared two bills in the same manner as the Congress of the United States, working in committees and using parliamentary speaking.

David R. Scott, of the men's debate team, was given a speaker award for outstanding parliamentary speaking.

Vicki O'Donnell, of the women's team, was presented the award of "Gavel Girl," based on her speaking ability, what she contributed to the congress and how she delivered an after-dinner speech.

The women's debate team placed second in the Carnegie Tartan tournament at the Carnegie Institute of Technology this weekend.

The team had the same win-loss record as the first place team, Duquesne University, but had few individual points and was placed second.

The affirmative team of Sandra Grotzky and Marian Camins defeated St. Vincent's College and Albion College. They were defeated by Messiah College and Mt. Mercy College.

Ellen Donovan and Mary Ann Gemmill of the affirmative team defeated St. Vincent's College, Washington and Jefferson College, University of Pittsburgh and Mt. Mercy College. They debated the national topic, "Resolved: that compulsory membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment should be made illegal."

Are You A Bore?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique of everyday conversation which can pay you real dividends in both social and business advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, self confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by what they say and how they say it. Whether in business, at social functions, or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can make a good impression every time you talk.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in everyday conversation, the publishers have printed full details of their interesting self-training method in a 24-page booklet, "Adventures in Conversation," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply send your request to: Conversation Studies, 835, Ramsey Parkway, Dept. 3753, Chicago 14, Ill. A post-will do.
