

Donovan Elected Head of WSGA

Ellen Donovan, junior in arts and letters from Emporium, was elected president of Women's Student Government Association yesterday.

Sandra Shogren, junior in arts and letters from Pittsburgh, runner-up to Miss Donovan, automatically becomes senior senator.

Miss Donovan received 549 votes to Miss Shogren's 534. Miss Donovan was WSGA junior senator this past year.

Jessie Janjigan, sophomore in chemistry from Kingston, defeated Nancy Clark, sophomore in arts and letters from Paoli, for vice president.

Miss Clark automatically becomes junior senator. Miss Janjigan received 543 votes to 536 for Miss Clark.

Susan First, freshman in Home Economics from Harrisburg, defeated Sue Smithson, freshman in arts and letters from Stamford. Miss First polled 592 votes and Miss Smithson polled 477.

Jean Kissick, junior in education from Chevy Chase, Md., defeated Sybil Kersh, junior in education from Snort Hills, N. J., for senior senator.

Ellen Butterworth, sophomore in education from Allentown, defeated Jody Miller, sophomore in education from Bryn Mawr, for junior senator.

Sophomore senator is Jane Ingley, freshman in home economics from Port Washington, N. Y., who defeated Barbara Bragdon, freshman in education from Philadelphia.

Judith DuBois and Phoebe Humphrey tied for town senator. WSGA senate will vote to decide the winner at the next meeting.

Approximately thirty per cent of the women voted this election, a total of 1083. Forty one per cent voted last year.

Karen Bixler
1958 May Queen

Bixler Voted May Queen; Court Named

Karen Bixler, senior in home economics from Huntington Valley, was elected May Queen in balloting yesterday.

Miss Bixler will reign over May Day ceremonies during Mother's Day weekend, May 10.

Miss Bixler defeated Phyllis Hodges, senior in bacteriology from Meadville, and Carolyn Johnson, senior in home economics from Wilmington, Del. The number of votes the candidates received were not made available. Misses Hodges and Johnson will serve as senior attendants.

Gay Glading, freshman in applied arts from Arlington, Va., was chosen maid-of-honor.

Junior attendants are Lois Piery, education major from Springfield, and Mariana Moldovan, physical education major from Farrell.

Sophomore attendants are Marjorie Miller, education major from Bryn Mawr, and Susan Graham, arts and letters, from Montclair, N.J.

Freshman attendants are Jane Kleinfeld, division of counseling student from Chevy Chase, Md., and Martha Wilson, home economics major from Wilmington, Del.

The WSGA House of Representatives will select senior women for the Honor Arch and Hemlock Chain. They are chosen for "outstanding service to the University."

Pittsburgh Firm to Assist In Borough Pool Drive

The State College Swimming Pool Association has decided to employ Ketchum Inc., a professional fund-raising firm from Pittsburgh, to assist in the fund drive for the proposed borough pool.

The drive for approximately $150,000 needed to build the pool has been planned for the last two weeks in May and the first week in June. Representatives of the firm will arrive in State College April 28 to begin preparations for the drive.

Newman Next in Line For Panhel Presidency

Rachel Newman, sophomore in applied arts from Alexandria, Va., was elected vice president of the Panhellenic Council yesterday.

Miss Newman, representing Chi Omega, will automatically become Panhel president next year under the Panhel rotation system.

Phyllis Muskat, junior in home economics from Oakmont, will serve as Panhel president. Miss Muskat was elected second vice president last spring. She will serve as president in place of Kathryn Stauffer who was elected vice president last year but lost her average for the position.

The council's rotation system provides for the election of a vice president from each sorority, starting with the oldest on campus and working toward the most recent. The vice president then becomes president the next year.

Chi Omega, the first sorority to hold the presidency, will begin the circuit for the second time next year.

Miss Muskat represents Sigma Sigma Sigma, the last sorority in the rotation system.

Carol Dominick, sophomore in journalism from Arlington, Va., was elected second vice president. The office of second vice presi-

Rachel Newman
Panhel Vice President

Helen Baldwin, Nancy Sloan and Janice Smith.

No individual voting figures were released for publication. Approximately 700 women voted, about 60 per cent of the number eligible. This percentage is about the same as the last two years.

PhysEd Society Elects Moldovan President

Mariana Moldovan, junior in physical education from Farrell, has been elected president of Lakonides, women's physical education society.

Other new officers are Mary Herbein, vice president; Carol Mason, secretary, and Dorothy Querry, treasurer.

New initiates are Marilyn Doan, Ann Lutz, Jean Nigh, Dorothy Querry and Barbara Thiel.

oooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

* CATHAUM
Now - 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 9:30
LANZA SINGS AGAIN!
with MARIO LANZA
Seven Hills of Rome
GORGEOUS COLOR "A. L. C. Color Print"

* NITTANY
Now - Doors Open 6:45
Greed and Violence
'LURE OF THE SWAMP'
Marshall Thompson, Joan Vohs
ALEC GUINNESS RETURNS SUNDAY

Ellen Donovan
New WSGA President

2 Staff Members Pen Journal Article

Two staff members have contributed articles to the January issue of the CUPA Journal, published by the College and University Personnel Association.

Arnold Addison, personnel officer for the Ordnance Research Laboratory, wrote "An Evaluation of the Effectiveness of a University Personnel Committee" and Robert G. Weaver, training co-ordinator in the department of personal services, wrote "Orienting New Clerical Employees."

McFarland Elected President of WRA

Judith McFarland, junior in home economics from Wayne, was elected president of Women's Recreation Association yesterday.

She defeated Barbara Blake, junior in home economics from Wayne.

Exact election figures were not home economics from Cheltenham, and Serena Pendleton, freshman in arts and letters from Toronto, Ontario, Canada, won the two assistant intramural chairman positions. Mary Dietrick, freshman in physical education from Mifflintown, also was a candidate for the post.

Ann Hubbard, freshman in physical education from Rumson, N.J., defeated Sandra Biber, freshman in education from Berwick, as sophomore representative.

Miss McFarland has been on the WRA Board for three years. She is president of the Golf Club and a member of the Hockey Club. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, junior advisory board and Cwens.

Miss Nigh is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, the Women's Debate Team and Cwens.

Judith McFarland
WRA President

released. Jean Nigh, sophomore in physical education from Chevy Chase, Md., was elected vice president, defeating Dorothy Querry, sophomore in physical education from Martinsburg.

Jacque Long, freshman in education from Suffern, N.Y., defeated Linda Brinsley, freshman in home economics from Pittsburgh, for the secretary-treasurer post.

Barbara Thiel, sophomore in physical education from State College, won the intramural chairman post over Carol Wilson, sophomore in recreation education from Allentown.

Jane Lambert, freshman in

Premiere
Opening
TODAY

OTTO PREMINGER PRESENTS
DEBORAH KERR
DAVID NIVEN
JEAN SEBERG
MYLENE DEMONGEOT in
BONJOUR TRISTESSE
GEOFFREY HORNE
JULIETTE GRECO WALTER CHIARI
with MARTITA HUNT RELEASED BY COLUMBIA PICTURES

FEATURETIME - 1:39, 3:39, 5:39, 7:39, 9:42

LET'S GO!

for the greatest evening of dixieland music this side of the Mason-Dixon line.

It's Eli's Chosen Six

Here is the way to spend a different enjoyable Saturday evening.

Bring your date or come yourself to see . . .

ELI'S CHOSEN SIX

Yale Dixieland Group

Schwab Auditorium - 7:30 - March 15

Sponsored by Delta Delta Delta Scholarship Fund