

KDR, Sinkers IM Victors 16 Pins Dominate IM Wrestling Results

KDR's Cop 3rd Crown In 4 Years

By DON CASCIATO

Kappa Delta Rho defeated defending fraternity Intramural Basketball Champion Alpha Sigma Phi, 38-35 last night to become the IM cage champs for the third time in the past four years. In the independent championship tilt, the Sinkers romped the Cardinals 55-32.

The fraternity tilt was nip and tuck throughout, the lead changing hands several times. KDR went ahead to stay at the 6:00 minute mark in the fourth frame. Trailing 28-27, Dan Radakovich scored on a one hand set shot to put the new champs in the lead to stay, 29-28. Pat Reilly added a field goal at the five minute mark and Joe Schaffer, who was the leading scorer of the night with 19, made it 32-28 with 3:58 remaining in the game.

At this point, Alpha Sig started to close the gap on a Dick Ferrari field goal and a foul goal by Ralph Brower. Just when it looked like Alpha Sig might pull the win out of the fire with a strong ending spurt, KDR came through like champions.

Joe Burns' field goal and another Shaffer basket gave KDR the lead 36-31. Alpha Sig threatened again with 1:25 left but the deficit was too much to overcome.

Harry Brown and Ferrari paced the losers attack with 14 and 13 counters. Shaffer was the lone man in double figures for KDR.

The Sinkers outshot and out-rebounded a determined Cardinal team in their 55-32 victory. A big third quarter was the deciding factor in the game, the Sinkers scoring 23 points compared to only three for the Cardinals.

The new Indie champs took the lead at the end of the first quarter, 6-5, on a field goal by Denny Schaffer and were never headed after that. They increased the lead, 20-15 at the half.

Then the Cardinals fell apart as the Sinkers romped to the crown. The Cardinals opened the third frame with a field goal and ended it with a foul—and that's all they got.

The champs, displaying the form which carried them to a 9-1 mark before last night, were never in trouble. Behind the sharpshooting of Stu Barber and Schaffer—each with 16—the Sinkers romped to a 41-18 spread at the end of the third quarter.

The Cardinals stayed in the game in the fourth quarter with 12 points compared to 14 for the Sinkers—but it was too late to do any damage.

Bob Washko tallied 11 for the winners. Bill Benton, with 14, and George Carson, with 10, were the only double-figure scorers for the Cardinals.

Consecutive Upsets

For two years in a row, Penn State has beaten Pitt on the wrestling mats, the only Eastern team to accomplish the feat. Each time the score was 14-11. In 1957, the upset snapped Pitt's winning string of 26 straight meets.

UP FOR TWO . . . Bob Alexander, the Sinkers, lets fly with an accurate jump shot in last night's independent intramural basketball finals at Recreation Hall.

Acacia Holds Lead; Harnett Romps Again

IM HANDBALL

Second-seeded Don Harnett, Tau Kappa Epsilon, moved one step closer to the finals when he trounced Bill Schwab, Phi Delta Theta, 21-1, 21-0 in Wednesday night's fraternity handball singles competition.

Harnett has had a total of two points scored against him thus far in the tourney.

John Krall, Phi Mu Delta, scored the night's second biggest victory by downing Steve Dubin, Zeta Beta Tau, 21-3, 21-1.

Gene Flick, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Walt Krauser, Sigma Pi, and Bill Hutchinson, Phi Kappa Sigma, scored wins to enter their flight semi-finals.

Other winners were Hal Pel-low, Phi Kappa Sigma, Jim MacLaughlin, Sigma Nu, Dick Lippe, Phi Epsilon Pi and Frank Korbini, Kappa Delta Rho.

IM BOWLING

Acacia beat Alpha Chi Sigma, 3-1, Thursday night to keep a slim lead in Intramural Bowling Fraternity League C. In second place is Alpha Chi Rho, victor over Theta Kappa Phi by a 3-1 score.

Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Mu and Lambda Chi Alpha all scored 4-0 shutout victories over Alpha Phi Delta, Chi Phi, and Triangle respectively.

Pi Kappa Alpha downed Phi Kappa Sigma, 3-1.

In Fraternity league D Beta Theta Pi blanked Zeta Beta Tau and Beaver House shut out Beta Sigma Rho to stay one-two in the second half title fight.

Phi Kappa Tau blanked Phi Sigma Delta and Delta Sigma Phi downed Phi Gamma Delta, 3-1; the Tau Phi Delta-Sigma Tau Gamma and the Sigma Phi Epsilon-Phi Sigma Kappa contests ended in 2-2 ties.

By BEN BRONSTEIN
Pins dominated the results of the intramural wrestling matches at Recreation Hall last night for the third consecutive evening.

Sixteen bouts ended by falls, four by decisions, and six by forfeits.

Dick King, Lambda Chi Alpha, last year's 128-pound king, pinned Henry Deemer, Tau Kappa Epsilon, in one minute and 59 seconds of the second period in a rugged match of 135 pounders in the headline bout. But for a while it looked like the champ might not make it past the first round in his new division.

The surprising Deemer scored a takedown and a near-fall until King suddenly rallied and pushed his opponent's shoulders to the mat to avoid an upset.

Kevin Crowe, Sigma Nu, pinned Gene Hilty, Lambda Chi Alpha, in 36 seconds of the third frame in a battle of 165 pounders in what proved to be the evening's best exhibition wrestling—on the part of Crowe, that is.

Crowe was in complete control during the whole match. As the bout started he moved deliberately and sometimes savagely to register a takedown and two predicaments in the first period. In the second frame he scored a reversal and proceeded to wear out his tired opponent the remainder of the period.

He then needed only 36 seconds in the third period to pin his perseverant foe and end a battle of ability versus strength.

Varsity lineman Bill Wehman, Alpha Sigma Phi, beat George Vince, Chi Phi, by default when Vince no longer could take the rough handling of the huge Wehmer in this heavyweight contest.

Al Barth, Delta Upsilon, fashioned the fastest fall by pinning Leo Kaercher, Alpha Chi Rho. Other fast pins were registered by Don Rotell, Delta Sigma Phi,

1:30; Lincoln Alperin, Phi Epsilon Pi, 1:43; Thomas Moore, Delta Tau Delta, 1:55; and Charlie Steele, Tau Epsilon Phi, 1:57.

Chuck Zandt, Lambda Chi Alpha, pinned Joe Davis, Theta Xi, in 1 minute 59 seconds, just beating the buzzer by one second.

Three of the four decided bouts were won by wide margins. Dave Barnett, Phi Epsilon Pi, whitewashed Dick O'Conner, Phi Delta Theta, 5-0, with a takedown, an escape, and a predicament.

In the first indie match of the year, Norm Davis downed Ron Andrews, 7-1, to overshadow a never-say-die effort by the loser. Larry DiGiacinto, Phi Kappa Sigma, handed an 8-4 defeat to Charlie Bibleheimer, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Other winners were: Ralph Borzorth, Pi Kappa Alpha; Don Moyer, Sigma Nu; Glenn Klippenstein, Alpha Gamma Rho; Bob Kaul, Beta Theta Pi; Tom Nell, Aloha Tau Omega; Ted Halter, TKE; Ron Passmore, Delta Sigma Phi; and John Chatley, Kappa Delta Rho.

Forfeit wins went to: Larry Freed, ATO; Ed Dempsey, Theta Xi; Lou Tronzo, Phi Gamma Delta; Dave Beary, Phi Gamma Delta; Sherman Timmins, Delta Chi; and Bruce Banks, Sigma Phi Epsilon.
