

Sigma Nu's Crowe Pins Opponent in 25 Seconds

It took Kevin Crowe, Sigma Nu's 165-pound fireball, 25 seconds to show Alpha Chi Rho's Kent Schoch the lights and turn in a spectacular performance in last night's intramural wrestling competition.

As the match opened Crowe faked his opponent off-balance, shot in and scored with a driving double leg takedown. He ended the match with a half-nelson and crotch body press.

Tom Williams, Delta Theta Sigma's 145-pounder powered his way to a decision over Marty Lieb, Alpha Zeta. Williams took his man down early in the first period and from then on it was his match. The rangy grappler tried for the fall twice and scored on predicaments but Lieb proved too much to pin and the match ended in a 7-0 decision in William's favor.

Tom Kessinger, Sigma Chi, pinned Delta Upsilon's Dave Dulaney in what proved to be the evening's outstanding 128-pound dual. It was a case of experience over power as Kessinger panned his opponent and ended the match at the 68 second mark with a body press.

Dick King, Lambda Chi Al-

pha's mat-wise 145-pounder, rode George Layman, Alpha Chi Sigma, to a fall in the second period. In the first period last year's 137-pound champ scored a double-leg takedown. And as the period came to a close, King was very near a pin with a reverse nelson-crotch body press. As the second period began Layman took the top position. King spun into a speedy switch reversal, powered his way to a body press and at the 43 second mark it was all over for Layman.

Bob Kaul, Beta Theta Pi, pinned Harvey Nixon, Phi Epsilon Pi, in a stand-out 165-pound battle. Kaul was taken down early in the match but he quickly scored a switch reversal and rode his man for the remainder of the period. Nixon set himself off balance on a try for a switch during the second period. Kaul saw the opening, cross-faced his opponent into a body press and showed him the lights at the half way mark in the second period.

Sticklers!

WHAT IS THE MAN WHO KEEPS THE CIGARETTE MACHINES FILLED WITH LUCKIES?
(SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

THE REALLY GREAT MEN of history are forgotten men. Who did throw the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder? Is Kilroy still here? Does anyone remember Dear John's last name? No, friends, they're all (Sob!) forgotten. So right now, let's pay homage to the greatest of them all—the man who keeps the cigarette machine filled with Luckies! Let's honor the guy who supplies the one cigarette that's packed end to end with fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Let's salute (Fanfare!) the Vender Tender! Touching, isn't it?

Stuck for dough? START STICKLING! MAKE $25
