

Lion Golf Team Well Balanced

"Our first five men are all fine golfers and most of the time there is not more than a stroke difference in their scores." This was varsity golf Coach Joe Boyle's appraisal of the men he will start against Lehigh in Saturday's golf debut here.

Number one starter will be Captain Pat Rielly. Rielly is a steady man off the tees and on the greens and is an exceptionally fine short iron shot.

In the number two slot will be Bill Davidson, a returning letterman. Davidson played outstanding golf for the Lions last year.

The stocky junior hits a long ball from the tee and is "one of the best around the greens," according to Boyle.

He was a semifinalist in the Eastern Intercollegiate Championships last year and qualified for the National Intercollegiate Championships.

John Felus, another returning letterman, will fill the third starting spot. Felus, 5-2, 128 pounds, broke the competitive Lion course record with a 65 in a dual meet with Army last year. According to Boyle, Felus is a very deadly putter.

Number four starter will be Bob Bainbridge. Bainbridge is a consistent player, Boyle said. He played in the fifth slot last year and lost only two out of twelve matches.

Charlie Decker, the fifth man on this Nittany team, is a newcomer to the team. "He is a well rounded golfer and will be a tremendous asset to the team," Boyle said. Decker was the winner of the All-College Golf Championships held last fall.

The sixth and seventh men on the card will be participating in their first varsity meet and Boyle will be watching them in match competition for the first time. The sixth starter will be Ray Altman. He will be followed by Gary Stultz.

The team will play eight dual meets, one triangular meet and will enter the E.I.G.A. Championships in New Haven, Conn., May 10.

The team will play only three matches on the University course.

Boyle pointed to the Georgetown, Syracuse and Pittsburgh matches as the toughest, with Army as a darkhorse.

Syracuse's strongest point is their junior sensation, Warren Simmons. Simmons was medalist in both the National Intercollegiate Championships and the E.I.G.A. tourney last year.

Boyle, who coached last year's team to a ten and two record, summed up the coming season with this statement: "If our two newcomers—Altman and Stultz—come through for us we ought to have a good year due to the strength of our first five positions."

Experience Gives Lion Netters Boost Toward Winning Season

Lion tennis Coach Sherm Fogg is depending on the experience of five returning lettermen to get the Lion net team "back on the winning side" and atone for last year's losing season—the netmen's first in eight years.

Last year the Lions had only two returning lettermen and, in direct contrast to this year, inexperience was Fogg's chief woe.

Captain Fred Trust, one of the Lions' top players since his sophomore year, heads the list of returning starters. Veterans Charlie Bibleheimer and Chuck Questa are Fogg's two and three men.

Lettermen Dick Jacobs and Don Harnett, plus newcomer Gene Flick, who will be competing in his first varsity match Saturday against Western Maryland, complete the first six players.

Alan Krall up from last year's freshman team, and Mel Royer, a junior in his first tennis season, will get their baptism of play when they enter doubles competition.

Four good sophomores will be trying to break into the starting six as the season progresses. They are Herb Laub, Czaba "Cobby" Koblos, a Hungarian who came here from Germany, Bill Mikesell, and Mike Baer.

Trust is considered by Fogg as one of the three top players in Pennsylvania. Lehigh's Bill Scarlett and Bobby Latchaw, who Fogg expects to be a sophomore sensation, are rated by the Lion mentor as the other two top players in the state. Incidentally, fans will get their chance to see Fogg's three top choices when the Engineers and Lions meet here May 3.

A summary on the Lion top three could be:

● Trust—features a strong serve and equally potent forehand as his main offense.

● Bibleheimer—an aggressive boy with a powerful first service.

● Questa—plays a smooth game based on amazing control and a good backhand.

The Lions have a 14-game schedule, five at home and nine away—one handicap Fogg must contend with. However, the Lions have a chance for a good start with the first three matches to be played at home.

The Lions' home schedule is: April 12, Western Maryland; April 18, Maryland; April 23, Juniata; May 3, Lehigh; and May 17, Bucknell.

All home matches will be played on the Beaver Field courts. The time will be 1:30 on Saturdays and three o'clock on weekdays.

Fogg expects Lehigh and Maryland to top the home schedule.

IM Volleyball Tournament Moves Into Third Round

Comeback games were the order of the day as the IM volleyball tournament moved into the third round.

After losing the first game, 11-15, Delta Sigma Phi rallied and went on to beat Phi Kappa Sigma in the remaining games, 15-1, 15-4.

"Comeback" wins were also turned in by Lambda Chi Alpha and Theta Chi. Lambda Chi beat Phi Kappa, 16-14, 8-15, 15-10; Theta Chi lost an early lead, but came on to beat Theta Xi, 15-3, 9-15, 15-5.

Tau Kappa Epsilon proved that they would be a definite threat for the fraternity championship when it won its third victory in as many starts at the expense of Alpha Phi Delta, 15-2, 18-16. Sigma Chi also grabbed win number three, walloping Alpha Rho Chi, 15-2, 15-2.

Defending champs Alpha Sigma Phi had an easy time when they breezed past Phi Kappa Tau, 15-4, 15-6. Tau Phi Delta also had an easy time in beating Alpha Gamma Rho, 15-2, 15-3.

In other games, Phi Epsilon Pi beat Sigma Tau Gamma, 15-10, 15-11; Sigma Pi nipped Alpha Zeta, 15-12, 15-11; Delta Upsilon beat Beta Sigma Rho by identical scores of 15-8, 15-8. Forfeit wins were gained by Kappa Delta Rho and Pi Lambda Phi.

GRADUATE THEN FLY

The Air Force pilot or navigator is a man of many talents. He is, first of all, a master of the air—and no finer exists. In addition, he has a firm background in engineering, electronics, astro-navigation and allied fields. Then, too, he must show outstanding qualities of initiative, leadership and self-reliance. He is, in short, a man eminently prepared for an important career in the new Age of Space. As a college graduate, you will be given priority consideration for the Air Force Aviation Cadet Program. While openings are limited, you will be tested and advised immediately of qualification status. Find out if you measure up. Paste the attached coupon on a post card and mail it now.
