

Delegation Attends 3-Day ICG Meeting

Members of the Intercollegiate Conference on Government will show its skill in "politicking" at its national convention in Harrisburg today, tomorrow and Saturday.

A full delegation of more than 25 members, headed by James Goodwin, senior in physics from Philadelphia, will attend.

The annual event is designed to give college students practical experience in pushing legislation through a model political convention.

ICG is a statewide non-partisan organization founded to provide a meeting place for representatives of any political party or philosophy. Members debate model bills, following strict parliamentary procedure. The University chapter was started about 20 years ago and is advised by Lee E. Corter, assistant professor of political science.

Ten committees tomorrow will present bills of statewide and national interest which have been debated at weekly ICG meetings and at the regional convention at Gettysburg College. Bills will be brought before the full convention of about 30 schools Saturday.

Delegations also will vie for the two top positions in ICG—state speaker and state clerk. Mrs. Carol Kling, a University alumna, will act as state clerk and assistant to the executive director. William Kling, senior in journalism from York, is regional director.

Lion's Paw--

(Continued from page one) accusations of partiality, he said. Nurock added he wasn't trying to impugn the integrity of any administrative members. Coogan, a Lion's Paw alumni, assured Nurock it would be beneath administration offices to interfere in such an investigation.

Nye, in explaining the grounds on which his committee can investigate a student activity, said a preliminary hearing would first be conducted to decide if there is enough material for an investigation. "We don't want to act as an open forum for personal disputes," he said. Investigation would have to be on facts, he added, saying the committee wouldn't be part of a case of "some disgruntled student who has sour grapes because he wasn't picked for the organization."

Nurock said last night there are many people, from all classes, who are interested in general knowledge of the group—not just because they weren't tapped.

WHAT IS THE BEST PRESENT YOU CAN GIVE A FRIEND WHO'S GOING TO EUROPE?
(SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

BON VOYAGE presents? You might give a substantial checking account in the Left Bank of Paris. A deck of cards for playing London Bridge. Or walking shoes in which to Rome Italy. Better yet, give Luckies—and make your present a Partin' Carton! A Lucky, after all, is the best-tasting cigarette anywhere. In Paris you hear, "Un Luckee? C'est merveilleux!" (That's French!) Roughly translated, it means: it's all fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. (That's advertising!) Just light up a Lucky and see for yourself! (Now, that's smart!)

Stuck for dough? START STICKLING! MAKE $25

We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get used! So start Stickling—they're so easy you can think of dozens in seconds! Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (Don't do drawings.) Send 'em all with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, N. Y.
