Golfers Face Test at Army; Stickmen Travel to Penn

While the lacrosse team meets an inexperienced Penn team today, the golfers face one of their stiffest tests of the season at Army. The Cadets are rugged any year, and particularly on their home greens.

Immediately after the Lions whitewashed Lehigh, 7-0, in their opener last week, Coach Joe Boyle pointed to the Army contest as the one which should prove "just how good we really are."

Boyle has one of the strongest golf teams the Lions have fielded. Heading the list of experienced linksmen are Pat Reilly, Bill Davidson, John Felus and Charlie Decker.

Although the Lions beat the Cadets at home last year, 6-1, the home green advantage is the number one problem.

The second touring varsity unit, the lacrosse team, goes against a Penn team this afternoon that has dropped its first two contests. The Lions are 3-1.

The Red and Blue lost their opener to Yale, 8-1, and last Saturday dropped a 15-1 decision to

Fred Donahoe ... high scoring midfielder team offense is composed of attackman Fred Felser and midfielders Pete Glading and Bob Ayers. Felser was the team's high scorer last year.

The Lions also depend on the midfield to do the majority of the scoring with record-holding attackman Bill Hess on the injured list. In Wednesday's 22-5 loss to Maryland, midfielders John Behne and Fred Donahoe accounted for the Lion scores with Donahoe taking a 3-2 advantage.

Chip Henderson completes the first midfield trio for the Lions while Captain Irv Lieberman works the third post for the Quakers. Lieberman was selected by the coaches and officials for a first team berth on the Penn-Del League team last spring. He was also picked by the coaches for a second team berth on the All-Ivy League team.

Baer will probably start his regular attack of Barry Price, Harry Brown and Jim Winpeny. On the defense he will use Dick Dill, Gove Elder and Ray Tuleya and in the goal, Burt Houseworth.

While the varsity is playing at Penn, Coach Lou Girard's frosh stickmen will meet the Lower Merion High School squad at Lower Merion.

a future Lion opponent, Rutgers. On Wednesday they beat Lehigh, 6-2.

As with the Lions, the Quakers evidently lack a scoring punch. The nucleus of the home

IM VOLLEYBALL

On the basis of individual wins Thursday night, Alpha Chi Rho and Phi Mu Delta went into a first place deadlock in fraternity League D. Alpha Chi Rho whipped Beaver House, 15-5, 15-5, and Phi Mu Delta beat Triangle, 15-2, 15-11. Also in League D, Theta Delta Chi notched its first win, beating Zeta Beta Tau, 15-10, 10-15, 15-5. The only League E game saw Delta Tau Delta nip Delta Theta Sigma, 16-14, 23-21.

In indie action, the McKee Trojans posted the first whitewashing of the current tournament, beating the Sixty Niners, 15-0, 15-0. Other wins were turned in by McKee II, Hanna's Horrors, and Watts I.

IM Handball-Doubles

The race to crown a championship doubles-team in IM handball began Thursday night. Defending Champs Don Harnett and Bob Campbell of Tau Kappa Epsilon were the only team to be idle as inter-flight matches got underway.

Varsity tennis players Gene Flick and Charley Bibleheimer of Tau Kappa Epsilon beat Phi Mu Delta's John Krall and Paul Sweetland, 21-5, 21-16; Paul Schonbacker and Paul Trimmer of Phi Delta Theta edged Beta Sigma Rho's entry of Joe Fenkel and Jerry Carp, 21-10, 20-21, 21-19, and Les Walters and Joe Reilly of Delta Upsilon beat Jim Keith and John Haas of Pi Kappa Phi, 21-5, 21-9.

Rookie's Grand Slam Spoils Buc Home Debut

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rookie Vada Pinson's grand slam home run—his first homer in the majors—earned the Cincinnati Redlegs a 4-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday in the season's opener at Forbes Field.

Bob Purkey, a right-hander who was with the Pirates a year ago, won the nod over his former teammates but needed help in the ninth after loading the bases. Hal Jeffcoat snuffed out the Pirates' rally, getting pinch hitter Gene Freese to hit into a double play.

The Redlegs got only 4 hits off four Pirate hurlers.

A crowd of 34,032—largest opening day attendance since 1948—saw the Pirates score their run in the sixth inning on an infield hit by Dick Groat and singles by Ted Kluszewski and Frank Thomas. Kluszewski and Thomas each got two hits for the Pirates.

Two walks and two errors set up the Redlegs' scoring. After Ed Bailey flied out, Roy McMillan walked. Purkey tapped in front of the mound, but Thomas threw wild to second. McMillan raced to third. Billy Virdon, recovering Thomas' heave, threw wild to third. Purkey reaching second. McMillan digging for the plate fell over Kline, but got back to third in time. Pinson followed with his shot into right center.

Indians, White Sox Yankees Win in AL

DETROIT (AP)—The Cleveland Indians overcame their own mistakes Friday for a wild 7-5 triumph that wrecked the Detroit Tigers' home opener before 46,698 sun-baked spectators.

While his teammates raked five Detroit pitchers for 16 hits, southpaw Herb Score lasted the entire nine innings despite many shaky moments. He walked 8 and struck out 8 in posting his first victory since he was struck in the eye by a line drive and sidelined early last May.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Big Jim Wilson left Kansas City hitters with little more than a dull ache Friday and Chicago's supposedly powerless hitters unloaded four home runs as the White Sox defeated the Athletics 11-7 and spoiled the home club's opening for 23,001 fans.

NEW YORK (AP)—Whitey Ford hurled a strong five-hitter Friday as the New York Yankees opened their home season with a 3-1 victory over Baltimore and moved into first place in the American League.

Ford, in winning his fourth straight as the Yankee Stadium opening day hurler, struck out six and walked two.
