Four Students Face Hearing After Women's Building Raid

Tribunal tonight will hear the cases of four students who were apprehended by the dean of men's office and charged with leading an ill-fated raid on Women's Building Sunday night.

A spokesman for the dean of men's office refused to name the students who were among more than 1000 shouting men in the raid.

He said the quartet was observed during the panty raid by representatives of his office who said the men were "attempting to lead others into untoward acts of one kind or another, certainly not in the best interest of the University."

The spokesman defined his use of the word "lead" as "overt acts which tended to excite or lead the crowd further."

The raid was the first such wholesale demonstration since the spring semester, 1955, when four students were suspended from the University for their part in a panty raid.

Starting at approximately 9:15, the mob marched past McAllister Hall where coeds hastened to pull the shades and lock their windows. The men descended on Women's Building, yelling "we want pants." Coeds said one student broke through the front door, while others filed into the first floor of the building.

Several men started up the fire escape as coeds came out on the third floor landing to watch.

Mrs. Virginia Hathaway, residence housemother, who was at the Artists' Series Concert during the raid, said she left a reliable girl in charge who locked the door when the raid started.

Dean of Men Frank J. Simes and his staff broke up the major portion of the raid, at the same time catching the four students.

After Simes and his staff left, a handful of the men came back and attempted to climb up a tree on the front porch while coeds hung out of the second floor windows yelling "Want a pair of pants?" "Here's my phone extension" and "Save me!"

The University announced yesterday that any students participating in "mass demonstrations" will either be suspended or expelled immediately.

Citing the violations of University regulations, rules of decency and state laws, the announcement asked students to "use good judgement in refraining from mob action . . . to the end that the University . . . will not be the object of ridicule."

Taverns Seek University Aid To Prevent Minor Drinking

Managers of a number of borough taverns have asked the cooperation of the dean of men's office in preventing minors from attempting to enter their establishments, Harold R. Perkins, associate dean of men, said yesterday.

Perkins said tavern owners have been "disturbed" recently over the number of minors that have tried to enter the taverns. The procedure of the owners, he said, has been to take the matriculation card of the minor and turn it over to the dean of men's office for disciplinary action.

Perkins cited the state law preventing any person from furnishing alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age. He also emphasized a borough ordinance making it unlawful for a minor to enter a borough establishment which serves alcoholic beverages, after 7 p.m.

This ordinance provides that minors can enter these establishments after 7 p.m. only when accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, and a fine of from $25 to $100 is provided for violation of the ordinance.

Perkins said that "ignorance seems to exist" on this point. He said many students "apparently

TKE, AOPi Win Sing Titles, To Receive Trophies Tonight

Tau Kappa Epsilon won its eighth straight IFC-Panhel Sing championship and Alpha Omicron Pi won the sorority title in the Sing finals Saturday night in Schwab Auditorium, and will receive their trophies tonight.

Singing under the direction of Robert Campbell, the Tekes kept their title over second-place Acacia, Phi Mu Delta and Phi Gamma Delta.

The AOPi's, directed by Nancy Siftar, defeated the defending champion Kappa Deltas, Delta Gamma, which placed second, and Delta Delta Delta. The winning Greek choruses will receive their trophies at tonight's IFC-Panhel Banquet at 6 in the Nittany Lion Inn.

Michael Baker Jr., president of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., Consulting Engineers, will be guest speaker at the banquet which will be attended by fraternity and sorority presidents and members of the Association of Fraternity Counselors.

Baker, a recipient of the Horatio Alger Award for his successful business, has just received a University Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Schwab Auditorium was filled for the Sing finals.

The champion Tekes sang "All Hail" in addition to the required song, "When God Men Sing." The AOPi's won the championship by singing "Sing We Sisters," written by Miss Siftar, and "Evening Reverie," the required sorority selection.

Constitution OK'd For Junior IFC

By DENNY MALICK

The Interfraternity Council last night unanimously adopted the constitution of a junior council composed of pledges and new initiates to be put into operation next semester.

The council also heard a report from Leonard Sichel, outgoing administrative vice president, that each fraternity would be assessed about $16 to cover the $800 loss from the IFC Ball this year.

According to a resolution passed prior to the Ball, each fraternity would split the loss equally, if any, from the dance. Approximately $1100 was lost in last year's Ball.

The purpose of the newly-established council is to "promote social and intellectual interests between pledges and new initiates of the social fraternities and the University," to maintain cooperation and to acquaint the new members and pledges with the IFC.

The constitution was set up by a committee headed by Fred Taylor of Delta Tau Delta.

Each fraternity will have one representative on the junior council. Officers of the council will be president, vice president and secretary-treasurer. Officers will be required to have a 2.2 All-University average.

In other business, the IFC elected five members to serve on the senior board of the Interfraternity Council Purchasing Association for next year.

The new senior boarders are Robert Ginns, Sigma Alpha Mu; James Reeves, Theta Xi; Robert Ritchey, Acacia; Ronald King, Alpha Chi Rho; and Gerald Carlson, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

James Hart, outgoing president, installed officers.

They are Edward Hintz, Phi Delta Theta, president; James Hammerle, Alpha Gamma Rho, administrative vice president; David Morrow, Sigma Chi, executive vice president; and Richard Christian, Pi Kappa Alpha, secretary-treasurer.

Hintz announced that applications are being accepted for the chairman and members of the Board of Control. The board chairman need not be a house president, Hintz said, but board members are presidents.

Cabinet Issues To Be Aired

The All-University Cabinet Forum of the Air to be heard from 9:30 to 10 tonight over WMAJ and WDFM will feature a debate on the referendum bill now being discussed before Cabinet.

John Rhodes, past All-University vice president and acting parliamentarian, who has already spoken against the motion will discuss the proposal with Charles Welsh, senior class president and a member of the Cabinet executive committee which proposed the plan.

The program will be moderated by Peter Duncan.

Reds Drop SAC Flight Accusations

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union yesterday withdrew its demand that the United States be asked to end arctic flights of the U.S. Strategic Air Command on the grounds they could trigger an atomic war.

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev took the action in the UN Security Council, where a Soviet resolution condemning the United States for such flights faced certain defeat.

Sobolev said he was withdrawing his resolution because U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, the Council president, had steamrollered the Council toward a vote.

Lodge replied that "The simple fact was that the Soviet Union did not have enough votes to push its proposal through."

The surprise Soviet move came after six hours of debate.

Eight of the Council's 11 members had lined up in support of the United States.

During the debate Lodge vigorously rejected Soviet charges that the flights by U.S. planes carrying hydrogen bombs could accidentally set off atomic war. He declared they will be continued to enable the free world to meet the threat of Soviet aggression.

Sobolev sought unsuccessfully to delay the vote until Tuesday.

Only Sweden remained silent in the Council. Canada, Nationalist China, France, Britain, Japan, Colombia, Iraq, and Panama all supported the United States.

Thunderstorms Seen by Lion

The Lion, with a roar of disappointment, lay his tennis racket aside after his 10 o'clock this morning. And he was so looking forward to a game before lunch.

The reason: considerable cloudiness today, with occasional showers and thundershowers mostly in the afternoon.

He did say, however, that he would thoroughly enjoy today's predicted temperature range of 68 to 73.

"Now that the monsoon season is definitely on its way in," he wailed, "I'll never learn to play tennis."

Monday Night Interviews Rescheduled for Sunday

Students who were supposed to interview last night for Freshman Customs Board but were not notified in time will have their interviews Sunday night in 218 Hetzel Union Building.

Women students have been asked to report at 7 p.m. and men at 7:30.
