

POISED AND PROUD were the members of Alpha Omicron Pi (top) and Tau Kappa Epsilon as they sang their way to the IFC-Panhel Sing championships Saturday night in Schwab Auditorium. —Daily Collegian Photos by Bob Thompson

Players Show Will Highlight Arts Festival

A performance by the Penn State Players of Noel Coward's "Tonight at 8:30" and an exhibit by the Department of Home Art, "Backgrounds for Living", will highlight the program of an Arts Festival scheduled to begin Friday and continue until May 17.

The Festival will consist of lectures, concerts, theatre arts productions and exhibitions, and will open Friday at 8 p.m. with the first public campus performance of "Tonight at 8:30" at Center Stage.

The play consists of three of Coward's one-act plays, "Red Peppers", "Still Life" and "Hands Across the Sea." The play will continue every Friday and Saturday night after that for five weeks.

The home arts exhibit at the Hetzel Union Building will also open on Friday and will continue until May 2.

The program next week will be:

A concert by the Penn State Glee Club, 3 p.m. Sunday, Schwab Auditorium; a lecture by Dr. Anton Ehrenzweig, British author and lecturer, on "Freedom and Discipline in Modern Art," 8 p.m. Monday, Hetzel Union auditorium; a University Symphony concert, 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 30, Schwab Auditorium.

A photographic exhibit by the Department of Theatre Arts; Saturday, May 3, HUP, and a concert by Toshiya Eto, violinist, 8 p.m. Saturday, May 3, HUB auditorium.

TIM Will Meet Tonight

Town Independent Men Council will meet at 7 tonight in 203 Hetzel Union.

RADIO
Service and Supplies

- Car Radios
- Portable Radios
- Phonographs
- Batteries

State College TV
232 S. Allen St.

Job Interviews

Companies interviewing—May 6:
ACF Industries: BS MS in ME, EE, Eng Sci, Metal.

Howard Johnson's (Penn Turnpike Shops Inc): BS in Hotel Ad; Home Ec, LA, Bus Ad, or any undergraduate interested in summer work in food preparation, waitresses, or cashiers.

Philadelphia Naval Shipyard: BS MA in ME, EE, IE, CE, Eng Sci, Arch E, Aero E, Metal, Chem E, Math, Phys.

U.S. Naval Boiler & Turbine Lab: BS MS in Cer, EE, ME; also Frosh-Soph Jr Sr in Cer for summer employment.

CAMP INTERVIEWS
Camp Pine Forest (women), April 23
Camp Conrad Weiser (men), May 2, 3.

From Here--

(Continued from page four)
big toe in so gently, and just let's everyone know that the water is just too chilly for her dainty body.

Then there's the guy all us men envy. He's the outdoor type. He takes his girl for hikes in the woods.

Elections Committee

The All-University Elections Committee will meet at 7 tonight in 217 Hetzel Union.

The committee will discuss the Division of Counseling student council elections.

"See here Jones, you can't drive 40 miles just to eat at Christy's!"

With traveling folk we've passed the test They try them all and pick the best.

Soph Photos to Be Returned

Contestants in "The Sophomore Queen Contest" who have not had their pictures returned may pick them up at the Hetzel Union desk.

Rock Climbers to Meet

The Rock Climbing Division of the Outing Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in 121 Mineral Industries to elect officers and discuss a trip to Washington, D.C.

Correction: WDFM Promotions

Joseph Slater is program manager, not production manager of WDFM, as erroneously reported in The Daily Collegian yesterday.

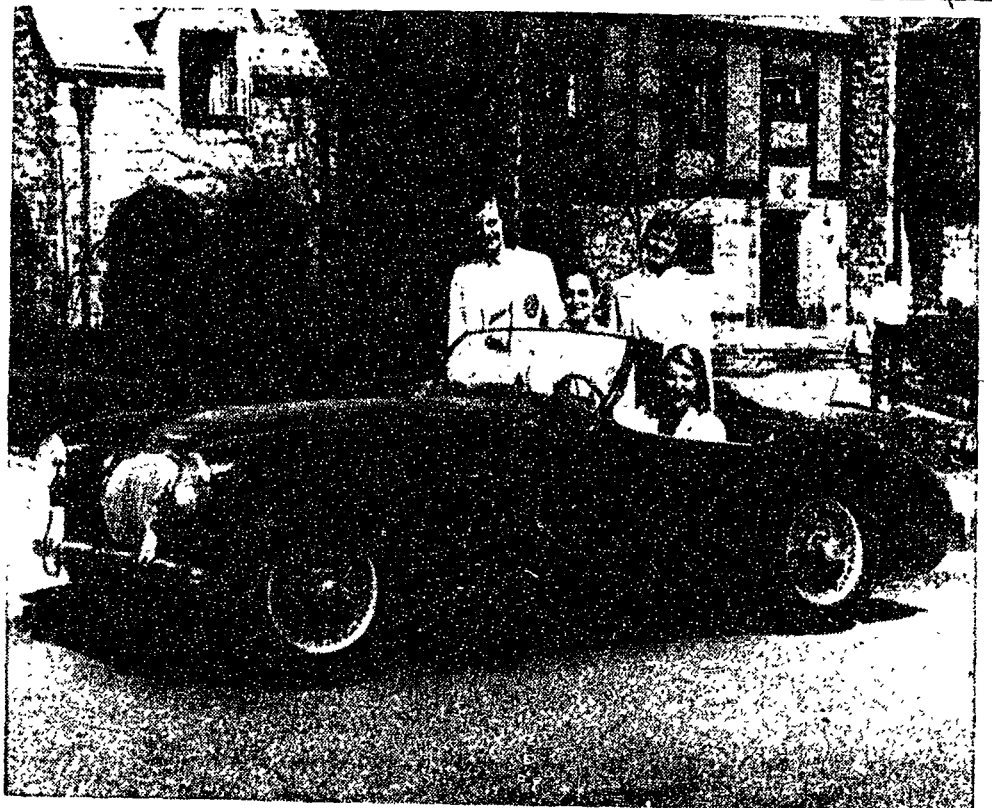

PHOTO BY GARY KRIMMEL

A sunny day,
an Austin Healey,
four pretty girls*
and ETON BRITISHER BLAZERS

to make spring all the happier.
For chilly evenings, for breezy rides, for class or date, you'll be prettier in an Eton Britisher blazer from Charles. $17.95
*Carol McWhorter, Ellie Woodward, Audrey Finney, Lynn Kinnier.
For a wide assortment of spring sportswear, it's—

124 S. Allen

... and Allentown