Nittany Netmen Meet Juniata

In its third straight home match, Penn State's tennis team will try to rebound on to the winning side today at 1:30 on Beaver Field courts against the Juniata Indians after Saturday's loss to a strong Maryland team.

The Indians are a direct contrast to the Lions in one way in particular — inexperience opposed to experience—regarding returning lettermen.

Only two letter winning warriors are with the Juniata netment from last year's squad—Del McQuaide, two time J-winner and Chuck Seely, both seniors.

Surprisingly, for college tennis, Juniata's number one man is a freshman, Jack Merrill, an 18-year-old from Riverton, New Jersey. But Juniata is allowed to play frosh on the varsity because of the small number of students at the school.

The experience contrast is very evident in the number one match today since Merrill will face State's 2-year veteran, Captain Fred Trust.

The number two pairing involves Seely and State's Charlie Bibleheimer. Bibleheimer lost to Maryland's Carl Bucks on Saturday and along with Trust will seek the winning trail again.

As in the number one match, the third match opponents are a two year veteran and a freshman recruit—Lion Chuck Questa and Indian Jerry Leatherman, respectively.

Questa will be attempting to extend his season's win record to three straight. The Lion's only two time singles winner has been State's most consistent player, using amazing control and a good back hand to best advantage.

Lion coach Sherm Fogg has revamped the bottom half of his lineup, putting in three untried netters in anticipation of little expected competition from these spots.

On the number four court will be Czaba "Cobby" Coblos, a Hungarian who came to this country from Germany, John Krall and Herb Laub will be number five and six respectively. All three are sophomores who will be getting their varsity singles baptism. Krall teamed with Mel Royer in doubles play against Western Maryland.

Juniata's bottom three are Mc-

Quaide, Pete Wright, and Dick Ott. Wright is a senior and Ott a sophomore.

Fogg has also changed the first two doubles teams. Today the number one duo will be Bibleheimer and Gene Flick and number two doubles will be Questa and Don Harnett. The only doubles combination intact from Saturday is that of Royer and Dick Jacobs, the only Lion doubles winners on Saturday.

Golf Team Faces Penn, Villanova

The Penn State golf team will meet the University of Pennsylvania and Villanova University today at the Plymouth Country Club in Norristown.

The Nittany Lions hope to have a repeat performance of last year's triangular meet victory when they scored an impressive 7-0, win over both the Quakers and Wildcats.

Captain Pat Rielly will be seeking his third victory of the campaign. Rielly has previously beaten Lehigh's Jack Ramsay, 3 and 2, and shot a superb two under par 71 to beat Army's Bill Parks, 5 and 4, on the West Points greens.

In last year's triangular meet, Rielly scored a 75 and edged Villanova's Ben Klemancowicz, 1 up, and Quaker Fran Poore, 3 and 2.

Bill Davidson, who carded 2 over par 73 to win honors for the Lion linksmen in the 1957 encounter, will also be after his third straight win of the season. Davidson's two wins this year have been over the Engineer's Stuart Iliffe, 3 and 2, and Army's Randy Edlestein, 4 and 2.

In his usual number three position, John Felus hopes to break back into the win column after dropping a sudden-death 1-up thriller 16 West Point's Dick Groves.

However, in his first victory of the season, Felus missed a hole-in-one by six inches on the third hole as he beat Lehigh's Bill Cummings, 6 and 5. Felus fired a 76 against the same clubs last year, beating Penn's Charlie Adams, 3 and 2, and Bill Mawn of the Wildcats, 6 and 5.

In addition to Rielly and Davidson, another Lion golfer, Bob Bainbridge will be after his third win. Bainbridge scored two easy decisions this season by beating Lehigh's Dan Weaver, 6 and 5, and the Cadets Art Mace, 7 and 5.

After dropping a close 1-up decision to Army's John Soper, Charlie Decker will be looking for his second win of the season.

Aaron's Three-Run Homer Helps Beat Pittsburgh, 5-2

PITTSBURGH (P) — Hank Aaron's three-run homer and Bob Buhl's clutch pitching combined for a 5-2 Milwaukee victory Tuesday over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Aaron's homer—his second of the year—came off starter Ronnie Kline in the fourth inning after a walk to Bob Hazle and a single by Eddie Mathews.

The Braves added two more runs in the seventh on a trio of singles by Johnny Logan, Del Rice and Red Schoendienst. Rice got three of the Braves' nine hits.

The Pirates combed Buhl for 10 hits, connecting in each of the first eight innings, but three double plays by the Braves bailed out Buhl. He walked only one and struck out four in earning his second victory.

Kline absorbed his second loss of the season and again it was the home run ball that made the difference. A four-run blast by Vada Pinson off Kline gave Cincinnati a 4-1 opening day victory at Forbes Field last Friday.

The Pirates, despite three Milwaukee errors, managed to score only lone tallies in the sixth and seventh innings. Groat's double, an error and a single by Clemente accounted for the first run and a single by Dick Foiles.
