

Honor Code Dissolution Tribunal— To Go to WSGA Senate

A recommendation to dissolve the Honor Code will be presented at the next meeting of the Women's Student Government Association Senate, Sybil Kersh, chairman of the WSGA implementation committee and former chairman of the Honor Code committee said.

Prelims For He-Men Set Saturday

Preliminary events for the He-Man and Queen of Hearts contests Monday after the float parade will be held 2 p.m. Saturday at the Golf Course.

For men, two events will be held, the 100-yard dash and the shot put, the same as standard track and field events.

The first 10 men in each event will receive points in order of their finish. The 10 men with the highest combined scores will qualify for the finals Monday night.

An egg-throwing contest will be the preliminary event for the Queen of Hearts contest. Two girls from each group will toss a raw egg back and forth, increasing the distance at each throw. Finalists will be the eight teams who keep from breaking their eggs.

In case of rain, the events will be held 2 p.m. Sunday at the Golf Course.

Leslie Phillabaum, contest chairman, said yesterday that a rule stating that contestants may not wear spiked shoes was omitted from the letter sent to participating groups.

Men who have won a letter in track or cross-country or are members of the track or cross-country squads are not eligible to enter the contest.

Each group will receive one point for entering the contest.

He-Man and Queen trophies will be presented at Awards Night next Thursday.

Spring Week Standards To Be Explained Tonight

The organization and standards for Spring Week will be explained to chairmen of all participating groups at 7 tonight in 3 Carnegie.

Hat Society Applications Available in Old Main

Students may apply for men's hat societies at the dean of men's office instead of the Hetzel Union desk under the new student activities file card system.

Persons who had previously filled out cards at the HUB desk are asked to fill out new ones in the dean of men's office.

turn over his matriculation card.

He said he was standing in a large crowd of people and after he heard others yelling similar words, he said "Let's go to Atherton." The dean of men's office charged him with planning to incite the crowd.

The third student, a freshman, was apprehended by O. Edward Pollock, assistant to the dean of men, when he was found to have his face covered by a handkerchief and was wearing only a pair of bermudas and no shirt.

He was not apprehended at the time of the raid but only told to move along by his last semester's dormitory counselor. He was notified by the dean of men's office Monday morning of his apprehension.

The fourth student was standing in front of the steps of Petee Library and said "look out behind" when he saw officials of the dean of men's office approaching the students who were crossing the Mall and returning to the West Halls area.

He was recommended only for disciplinary probation because he was not near Women's Building nor did he take any further part in the demonstration, Tribunal said.

Associate Dean of Men Harold W. Perkins said the immediate expulsion recommendation is the severest penalty the University can take regarding student conduct. The penalty will be entered on the student's permanent record and he will not be able to return to the University.

The two other students recommended for suspension will be able to reapply for admission in February of 1959. No time limit was set on the fourth student's disciplinary probation recommendation.

In the report on the entire incident by the dean of men's office, women were reported taunting men and encouraging the raid. The report also cited misconduct in the West Halls area when plastic bags full of water were thrown out of windows and onto the sidewalks.

that women students be allowed "Penny a Minute Nights." On these nights upperclass women would be allowed out until 10:30 and freshman women until 9:45 for the price of one cent a minute.

The proceeds would go to charity, according to Constance Jones, chairman of the committee on evaluation of future WSGA projects, which made the recommendation.

The recommendations were formulated at the WSGA retreat at which the issues were discussed by old and new members of the committees.

Miss Jones also said her committee will recommend that the costs of May Day be cut next year, possibly by using Beaver Field instead of the lawn of Old Main.

At the WSGA Senate meeting following the retreat, Senate voted to give $25 to World University Service.

Audrey Jersun, chairman of WSGA Judicial Board recommended the following hours that were approved by the Senate:

For the night of Carnival (Tuesday), all women are permitted out until 12:15 a.m. except those especially delegated to clean up booths. Those women must be in by 1 a.m.

Senior Ball weekend freshmen women have an interchangeable 12:00 p.m. and 1 a.m. Upperclass women have a 2:00 a.m. for Friday, the night of the ball, and the regular 1 a.m. for Saturday night.

German Unity Said Hurt by Rebuilding

By JEFF POLLACK

The Reverend Eberhard Bethge, anti-Nazi leader who was involved in the famous July 20, 1944, plot to assassinate Hitler, said last night that Germany's being rushed into an important role in world politics has been unfortunate.

It has made it impossible, he said, for Germany to find a symbol which can be used as a bond among her people.

The German people, Reverend Bethge said, now live in a state of "nihilism." They trust no one, he said—they are afraid to.

Bethge also condemned Americans for being ready to accept the German people too soon. "Germany is lacking any basic feeling of being one country," he said; "the forces of east and west have given Germany something she should not have so soon."

Bethge, speaking together with Mrs. Charles E. Raven, a Resistance leader in the Belgian Underground, went on to say that Germany has been unfortunate in that her brief moments of democcracy have come after defeats, unlike the United States and Britain where freedom and democracy followed some type of victory by the people.

Mrs. Raven, who since her liberation from the Nazis, has been working with refugees, said that she believes every individual German cannot be condemned for the actions of the majority. If you treat people with love, she said, you will receive love in return.

Bethge commented that although the movement once had a small backing, the move to unite Germany through war is now virtually dead.

Traffic Court Issues Warning

Traffic Court has issued a warning that students are not permitted to park near the golf caddy house between 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.

The court also found four students guilty of their fourth violation and has suspended their campus driving privileges for 60 days.

A total of 34 students were fined $175 by the court for illegal parking, failure to display registration stickers and failure to report to campus patrol after receiving a summons.

The court suspended a total of $30 of the amount fined.
