

Netters Shutout Juniata Squad

By BEN BRONSTEIN

With almost effortless ease the Penn State tennis team shutout the Juniata Indians, 9-0, sweeping all six singles and all three doubles matches—every one in straight sets.

The Lions did the job with three second string players in the last three singles spots and without the number one duo of Captain Fred Trust and Chuck Questa (who practiced on court one while the doubles matches were in progress).

As usual, number three man Questa was the first Lion to complete his match, winning easily in two sets, 6-2 and 6-1. It was his third single victory in as many tries. To the spectators the calm Questa never seems to work up a sweat as he goes about his game with ease and today he didn't have time to — he finished the entire match in twenty minutes.

Trust blanked the Indians' number one man in the first set, 6-0, and took the second set 6-3.

Lion number two man Charlie Bibleheimer downed lefty Chuck Seeley, 6-4, 6-1. Seeley was the only letterman with the squad yesterday. Two year letterman Del McQuaide didn't make the trip due to an important examination.

Bibleheimer was off-stride at the beginning of the match with Seeley leading the first set, 3-2, at one point. He soon recovered and faced no trouble in the second set, winning five games before his opponent copped one.

The fourth, fifth, and sixth men for the Lions were in their first varsity singles contests but came through like veterans.

Czaba "Cobby" Coblos won both sets with identical 6-2 scores in beating the Indians' Pete Wright, regularly the number five player.

John Krall defeated Dick Ott, 6-2 and 6-2, in the number five match. Krall's only other previous varsity competition was in doubles against Western Maryland. In the number six match Herb Laub beat Bill Wise, 6-0, 6-3.

The highlighted doubles event featured a double 6-0 whitewash by Lions Mel Royer and Dick Jacobs over Wise and Ott. Royer and Jacobs combined for their second doubles win in five days. Royer was also half of a winning duo in the Lions match with Western Maryland.

Royer, in his first year of varsity play, is undefeated in three doubles matches and one singles affair—the only unscathed Lion on the team.

Charlie Bibleheimer and Gene Flick, the regular fourth man, replaced Trust and Questa as the number one team and won the match, 6-0, 6-4.

The number three Lion duo was a new combination. Krall and Don Harnett. They teamed beautifully to win 6-0, 6-0.

In beating the Indians the sixth straight time, the Lions now have two wins against one loss for the season in completing a three game home stand. Their first away competition will be on Saturday with Colgate at Hamilton, New York.

Juniata thus lost its third straight, falling previously to Indiana State Teachers College and Elizabethtown. Their first meeting of the season with Pitt was rained out.

LION JOHN KRALL slams back a high shot in winning his first varsity singles outing. The victor and the vanquished, Juniata's Dick Ott, end their match with the sport's traditional handshake. Krall won 6-2, 6-2, in one of the tougher matches for the Lions yesterday. None of the matches were extended to three sets.

Lion Golfers Down Quakers, Villanova; Remain Undefeated

By LARRY JACOBSON

Paced by Bob Bainbridge and Charlie Decker, the Penn State golf squad added a triangular meet victory over the University of Pennsylvania and Villanova University to its growing list of victims yesterday at Norristown.

Bainbridge and Decker racked up two lopsided wins apiece as the undefeated Lions whipped Penn, 5-2, and Villanova, 7-0, hiking its season win total to four.

Three other Nittany linksmen also chalked up double victories, while Lion captain Pat Reilly and Johnny Felus split their matches. Reilly's loss was his first this year.

Bainbridge, one under par when his matches ended after 13 holes, beat Penn's Jerry Mander, 7-5, and Villanova's Reggie Zurinskas, 8-7, to raise his season record to 4-0.

By far the hottest Lion golfer this year, Bainbridge has yet to play more than 13 holes in any of his matches.

Decker, with a 1-1 record before yesterday's meet, blasted the Quaker's Bob Goldsonit, 5-3, and the Wildcat's Nick Aquilino, 8-7. Number two man Bill Davidson,

Davidson

Roy Altman, and Scott Stutz were the other double winners. Davidson continued on his unbeaten path as he scored his third and fourth wins over Bob Roy (P), 3-1, and Frank Kruse (V), 3-2.

Undefeated Altman, 4-0, had trouble with the Plymouth Country Club course, but was good enough to beat Marv Kramer (P), 2-1, and Marty Connelly (V), 2-up. The remaining undefeated Lion linksman, Scott Stutz, 4-0, scored a 2-up win over Penn's Joe Callahan and a 2-1 victory over Villanova's Jay Zibney.

'Nine' Meets Bisons Today

Wet grounds forced postponement of Penn State's baseball tilt with Villanova at Philadelphia yesterday afternoon, but the Lions hope to get back in action today against Bucknell at Lewisburg.

Cal Emery, who was slated for mound duty yesterday, will be on the hill for Penn State. The Lions beat the Bisons 7-4 earlier in the season.
