Finalists Await Miss PSU Crown

By LUCY THIESSEN

Spring Week will be a period of suspense for five coeds, one of whom will be crowned Miss Penn State of 1958 Thursday night at the coronation ceremonies to be held in Recreation Hall.

The week's activities will begin for the five finalists with the float parade Monday night.

Co-Edits

The coeds, wearing Penn State blazers, will lead the float parade. Each will ride in a foreign sports car.

Judges of the contest, Robert Breon, William Coleman, and James Kepler, three local photographers, and their wives, will dine with the five finalists at a banquet at 5 p.m. Thursday in the Hetzel Union.

New 1958 convertibles, loaned by town dealers, will take the coeds from the HUB to Recreation Hall along Pollock Road at 6:15.

Stuart Kahan, Awards Night master of ceremonies, will interview each of the finalists. They will then parade in front of the judges, who will be seated in the front row.

Full-length pastel gowns will be worn by the finalists. Their court will show ballerina length spring formals.

The Phi Mu Alpha Band will play a concert of four numbers while the judges choose the winner.

Wearing her robe, she will be crowned Miss Penn State of 1958 by James Jimirro, Spring Week Chairman.

Engagements

Shogren-Lenthall

Dr. and Mrs. Paul W. Shogren, Regent Square, Pittsburgh, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sandra, to Lt. Ronald C. Lenthall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lenthall of Mt. Lebanon, formerly of Washington, Pa.

Miss Shogren is a junior in arts and letters at the University. She is a member of Chi Omega and has been nominated to Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary society.

Lenthall attended the University and is now stationed at the Dover Air Force Base, Dover, Del.

Baker-Steadman

Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Baker of Conneautville have announced the engagement of their daughter Genevieve to Mr. Ross Steadman, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Steadman of McKean.

Miss Baker is a graduate of Erie Business College and is now employed at Walston and Co., Inc. in Erie.

Mr. Steadman served in the U.S. Navy in World War II and was graduated from Edinboro State Teachers College. He is now doing graduate work at the University.

A Sept. 6 wedding is planned.

Elliott-Storch

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Elliott of Pittsburgh have announced the engagement of their daughter Marjorie to Mr. Champ R. Storch, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Storch of Catasauqua.

Miss Elliott is a senior in business administration and a member of Delta Zeta sorority. Mr. Storch was graduated from Moravian College where he was a member of Omicron Gamma Omega fraternity. He is now a graduate student in guidance and counseling and is co-ordinator of Hamilton Hall.

A total of 53,000 Americans were injured in car-bicycle mishaps in 1957.

Cool Hair Styles For Hot Weather

It's a sure sign that summer's on its way when coeds get out the scissors and begin to snip away at their hair, trying for a cool style for the hot weather.

Summer is a good time to try the short haircuts—the kind that don't require a bathing cap for swimming. An old favorite that's still popular is the shagged feminine version of the "DA." Naturally wavy hair or a good permanent is almost a must for this style. To avoid that "shingled roof" effect.

Another good summer hair-do is the pixie cut, with wispy locks curling softly toward the face.

Coeds that have been letting their hair grow all winter and can't bear to cut it now probably intend to wear a pony-tail or chignon in the hot weather.

But a style that's just as becoming and a little different is the up-sweep. And for coeds who like a really casual look, a return to the braids of elementary school days is recommended.

Those good-looking sun streaks are hard to come by naturally, but cosmetic manufacturers have provided an easy way to acquire them. The product resembles a golden lipstick, and can be brushed out without a shampoo.

Golden blondes might like to try a more exotic trick—pastel streaks. They come in shades which match most of the pastel summer dresses. A mint green or powder blue streak is guaranteed to attract attention.
