Unbeaten Golfers Topple Orange,

By LARRY JACOBSON

With the exception of captain Pat Reilly, Penn State's golfers fattened their individual and team records Saturday en route to a 6-1 win over Syracuse University.

In racking up their fifth straight win, the unbeaten Lions established themselves as one of the top golf squads in the East, and they can cement this position with a win Wednesday over Georgetown University.

Coach Joe Boyle's aspirin pounders were led by "Hatchetman" Bob Bainbridge and Charlie Decker, who gets better with age.

One of the best number four men in the East, Bainbridge led another lamb to the slaughter in the person of Syracuse's Bill Corey, 7 and 6. The win upped big to the state of t his record to 5-0, and was the fifth straight match in which he hasn't played more than 13 holes. Bainbridge has racked up opponents to the unholy scores of 6 and 5, 7 and 5 (twice), 8 and 7, and 7 and 6.

Decker outblasted Orangeman Jack Kress, 6 and 5, to up his season record to a respectable 4-1. Playing in the fifth spot, Decker's last three wins have been by 5 and 3, 8 and 7, and 5 and 5 and 5 and 7. 6 and 5, giving Boyle a murderous one-two punch.

But Bainbridge and Decker weren't the only reasons Boyle ate a healthy supper Saturday. Bill "Goofy" Davidson (5-0) bested Syracuse's Mike Dritz, 4 and 2; Johnny Felus pushed his record above the 500 mark (3-2) beating wasn't particularly sharp. Al-

The only dark spot of the day was Pat Reilly's loss to Eastern Intercollegiate golf champ Warren Simmons. It was the second time in two years that the Lion captain has bowed to Simmons.

got the rest of the feath taking.
Upon finishing off his latest opponent in 12 holes, teammates
kidded "Next thing you know,
he'll just tee off the tenth hole
and walk back in." Another clubhouse regular chimed in
"He just gets tired after 12 or 13 holes. He probably deen't The 4 and 3 loss brought Reilly's season record to 3-2. In beating Reilly, Simmons holes look like."
