Toshiya Eto, Oriental violinist, will give a recital in the Hetzel Union Auditorium at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Eto is on the faculty of the Curtis Institute. He has been well-reviewed by New York critics.

Eto's recital will include Sonata No. 9 in A major Op. 47 by Beethoven; Sonata No. 3 in D minor Op. 108 by Brahms; sonata in G minor by Claude Debussy; Siegfried-Paraphrase by Wagner-Wilhelmj; and Sazastana (Suite of Spanish Dances) by Efram Zimbalist.

ponized version of that of Toscha Seidel, one of the famous virtuosi from the Western world. Seidel's tours of the Orient in the early 1930's fired the small Japanese boy with the desire to take up the serious study of the violin.

At the age of 12 Eto was studying at the Imperial Academy of Music in Tokyo, and had won the empire-wide Mainichi Competition, entitling him to an appearance as soloist with the Nippon Philharmonic under Joseph Rosenstock.

Throughout his conservatory years, Eto enjoyed the status of a national celebrity, acclaimed by his countrymen for concerts in all the leading cities of Japan and frequent broadcasts over the Nippon Broadcasting Company network.

After three years of study with Efram Zimbalist, concert idol of his early youth, Eto made his Carnegie Hall debut in 1951, which moved New York critics to acclaim him as a top-rank violinist by international standards.

Since then Eto has appeared with orchestras under such conductors as Ormandy, Golschman, Jorda and Alessandro.

Applications for the Association of Independent Men Judicial Board of Review are available at the Hetzel Union desk and must be returned by noon today. Applicants must have at least second semester standing and possess a minimum 2.2 All-University average.

He said he then sold the beer to the other student who was caught with it. The Board said that although only one had any intention of drinking the beer, both were equally guilty.

Two of the students received leniency pleas in their behalf from the resident hall counselor. The disciplinary action will be in effect until the end of the 1958 fall semester. At that time the suspended student may re-apply for admission to the University.

The two students who received office probation were found in possession of four unopened bottles of beer. One of the students claimed he had just bought the beer from a third student in an attempt to help him stay out of trouble.

One of the four was also charged with possession of an automobile since Easter recesses and another with perjuring himself before the Board last week. The destruction of University property occurred following a drinking party in one of the student's rooms. According to the charge sheet, approximately 10 quarts of beer and two quarts of ale were consumed in the room by the group before the destruction began. Damage was listed as 12 towel racks, a commode post, wall tiles, and floor tiles.

800 'Big Sisters' to Welcome Frosh Coeds Next Semester

Approximately 800 "big sisters" will be on campus to greet new women students this fall in the first University-wide "big-little sister" program.

The "big sisters" are coeds who have volunteered for the job and are working through their colleges. They will meet their "little sisters" sometime during orientation week.

Seven of the nine colleges are cooperating with the program. The college of Physical Education and Athletics will not participate. The Liberal Arts Student Council (the old council) voted not to support the program, but stipulated that the present council could vote again on the issue.

If the College of the Liberal Arts does not support the program, some coeds from that college who signed up can be "big sisters."

The program is being coordinated in the various colleges by chairmen within the colleges. The Colleges of Chemistry-Physics, Engineering and Architecture and Mineral Industries are conducting their program as one organization because of the small number of women students enrolled in these colleges.

Since there will be more new students than "big sisters," some "big sisters" will have more than one "little sister."

New students will be contacted by their "big sisters" by letter between August 5 and 15. The "big sisters" will tell the "little" ones about campus life and activities as well as academic life. They will also tell them about such strictly feminine items as campus wardrobes and dating.
