

Soviet Note Given Big 3 Ministers

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko called in the ambassadors of the three Western powers one by one yesterday and handed them a new Soviet note. Diplomatic sources said the note left preparations for a summit conference still up in the air.

The Western envoys said the Soviet Union plans to publish the note. Presumably it will be released in London, Paris and Washington at the same time.

Llewellyn E. Thompson, U.S. ambassador, told newsmen after his 30-minute talk with Gromyko that the situation remained unchanged. As the situation stands now, the two sides have not even begun to talk about the preliminaries.

Thompson said he intends to leave Moscow today as planned for a Paris conference of U.S. envoys in Europe. He added that he will stop off at Copenhagen to report directly to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles who is attending a North Atlantic Pact meeting there.

Gromyko's note follows the West's rejection last Saturday of a Soviet proposal to include Communist Czechoslovakia and Poland in pre-summit discussions. The West also agreed, reluctantly, to continue the ambassadorial talks on the basis of individual meetings.

Ex-Joint Chiefs Back Ike's Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two former chairmen of the Joint Chiefs of Staff endorsed President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, the famed World War II commander, said the Eisenhower proposals would help reduce confusion and lower secrecy barriers between the armed forces.

Retired Adm. Arthur W. Radford, who also testified before the House Armed Services Committee, said he was in full accord.

Radford said changes in the nation's defense setup are necessary to convert a basically peacetime structure to be effective under wartime conditions.

Senators Suggest Action on Unions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two senior senators told Congress it has a duty to act this year against corruption and other unsavory conditions in some labor unions.

Failure to legislate, declared Sen. William F. Knowland of California, the Senate's Republican leader, will stand as a permanent indictment of the record of the 85th Congress.

Knowland said the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee has produced uncontested evidence of widespread corruption, arrogance and abuses in the operation of internal union affairs.

Butler Predicts Ike Resignation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Paul Butler, Democratic national chairman, predicted last night that President Dwight D. Eisenhower may resign before the end of his second term.

"Undiluted nonsense," said Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman.

Butler said there are indications Eisenhower now feels the burdens of office are too great for him and he may leave the White House in advance of the GOP presidential nominating convention in 1960.
