

Lion Golfers Win 7th; Top Pitt, 4-3

By LARRY JACOBSON

Penn State's undefeated golf club overcame wind, rain, a new course and a tough University of Pittsburgh golf squad Saturday to add the Panthers to their list of growing victims, 4-3.

In winning, the Nittany Lions cemented their position as one of the top match play teams in the East.

But before the Lions made Pitt victim number seven, they almost made Coach Joe Boyle a regular Milton user.

After nine holes of play, Boyle's aspirin pounders were trailing in five of the seven matches, and having a rough time with the elements and Pitt's new course. It took some steady playing—spearheaded by Charlie Decker—to pull the Lions into contention and hand Pitt its second loss in six outings.

It was the second time within a week the Lion linksmen pulled one out of the fire, doing the same trick against Georgetown Wednesday, 4-3.

The meet resembled a figurative see-saw as each squad took turns in the lead. Pitt drew first blood when its number one man, Ron Schwarzel handed Lion captain Pat Reilly a 2 and 1 loss. Pat's brother and captain of the Pitt squad, Bill Reilly, reciprocated losing to Lion Bill Davidson, 2 and 1. The meet was tied.

Then Pitt's Bob White fought off a last-ditch stand by Johnny Felus to register a 1 up 19-hole win. Number four man Bob Bainbridge tied the meet for the Lions, topping Wade Hersperger, 3 and 2. But it was Decker who finally put the Lions on top.

Decker became the first player to top Panther Bob Hixson in college competition when he recorded a 2 and 1 win to put the Lions ahead, 3-2.

Scott Stultz ... sews up win with a 3 and 1 victory over Lion Roy Altman, dropping Altman from the unbeaten ranks, tying the match, and setting the stage for the last match.

Anchor-man Scott Stultz pulled through with a 3 and 1 conquest of Pitt's Tom Tresse, to remain the only undefeated Lion linksman, and sew up the match.

Boyle was satisfied with his squad's overall performance, singling out Bainbridge (6-1), Decker

(6-1), and Felus (4-3) as the outstanding players. The former two played Penn State's best golf, he said, and Felus played well even though he lost.

He credited the closeness of the match to "a tough Pitt squad" and the newness of Pitt's course with new grass and rough greens. In addition, Boyle said, Altman (6-1) had a bad day, while Reilly (3-4) and Davidson (6-1) "weren't too red hot."

Thinclads Win 1st, Rout Mounties 87-44; Will Host Colgate

By MACK McGAUGHAN

The Nittany cindermen brought home their first victory of the dual meet season as they routed the Mountaineers of West Virginia, 87-44.

The Lions racked up eleven first place victories to West Virginia's four.

Jim Norton, the Lion's speedy co-captain, ran a sizzling 48.4 quarter-mile to cop first place honors in this event. Norton's time came within one tenth of a second of Bruce Austin's record set in 1956.

Dick Hambright, sophomore quarter-miler, ran second to Norton with a time of 48.7. Hambright took first in the Navy meet with a 48.5-second quarter.

Coach Chick Werner had hoped that Hambright and Norton would push each other and have been doing just that.

One of the highlights of the meet was the superlative performance of sophomore sprinter Blaine O'Conner. O'Conner, who has never run the 100-yard dash in under 10.2 at Penn State turned in a speedy 9.9 to finish second to West Virginia's undefeated Ray Peterson.

But O'Conner proved to be Peterson's nemesis as he defeated him in the 220-yard dash. O'Conner, who was trailing by five yards until the final 30 yards of the race, turned on the steam to nip his opponent at the wire and turn in a time of 22.3 seconds.

Lion middle distance ace Ed Moran turned in a 4:15.1 mile to lead the Lions in a slam of the mile run.

Sophomore miler Dick Engelbrink turned in his best performance of the year as he finished second to Moran in 4:17.9. The Nittany's Clem Schoenebeck placed third in the event to complete the Lion slam.

West Virginia's Dave Tork

Jim Norton ... nearing 440 record edged out Nittany co-captain Ogie Norris for first place laurels in the pole vault. Tork cleared the 14' mark to tie the school's record in the event.

The Lion's Bob Szezyler won the 220-yard low hurdles with a time of 25.5. Ted Lopushinsky finished second in the event for the Nittanians.

Bill Schwab chalked up another first for the Lions as he led the field in the 880-yard run. Schwab ran the grueling distance in 1:56.9. Charlie King

WVU Hosts Netters Today

Coach Sherm Fogg's netmen travel to Morgantown today where they meet the Mountaineers of West Virginia. The Lions will be after their third straight win over West Virginia.

In 1956 the Lions trimmed the Mounties, 8-1, and last year they won by the same score.

The Nittany Lions will be seeking their third win of the current campaign. They have dropped four. The Lions were washed out of a scheduled match with Lehigh Saturday.

Coach Fogg will go along with his usual starting singles lineup of Fred Trust, Chuck Questa, Charlie Bibleheimer, Dick Jacobs and Mel Royer. The doubles lineup won't be decided until after the singles matches are finished.

Last year in the Lions' victory over the Mountaineers, Jacobs, Bibleheimer and Questa were all victorious. Top man and captain of this year's team, Fred Trust lost to the Mounties number one man, Al Griffiths, 7-5, 1-6, 6-3.

When asked to comment on the West Virginia match coach Fogg said that he had no idea what West Virginia had.

The Lion tennis team has had their troubles this year. The boys are eager to break into the win column and will be playing with everything they have today.

Outfielder Ron Rainey, of Johnstown, was the No. 1 hitter on the Lions' 1958 unbeaten baseball team. The bespectacled junior batted .350 in 19 games, and led the team in runs-batted-in with 16. Included in his 21 hits were 6 doubles, 3 triples, and 1 home run. He bats from the left side of the plate.

WAS HE A MAN OR THREE MICE?

Steve Whittaker was one of the most phenomenal split personalities on record. Not content with a mere 1 or 2 distinct personalities, Whittaker was split 3 ways. His analyst's greatest problem was in deciding which of the 3 Steve Whittakers should be permitted to survive.

Steve Whittaker I was noisy, rude, and loutish. The only thing admirable about him was his Van Heusen walking shorts which he wore to each session.

Steve Whittaker II talked to the analyst while covering him with a gun. During one session, as the doctor was staring past the muzzle of the revolver, he noticed that Steve was wearing a particularly attractive sport shirt. Further inquiry showed it to be a Van Heusen.

Steve Whittaker III was a playboy. He'd walk into the office, toss his sweater on the couch and talk about country clubs and backgammon. He was a total bore. One day, the analyst noticed that the label on his sweater read Van Heusen.

Which of the 3 Whittakers did the analyst let survive? The answer is: none of them. The wise doctor diagnosed that each of the 3 had only one redeeming feature—each wore one Van Heusen leisure wear garment. So he created a fourth Steve Whittaker. This last had the walking shorts of the first, the shirt of the second, and the sweater of Whittaker the third. He was a paragon of style and common sense, and has been a useful citizen ever since.

You see, Van Heusen leisure wear is for your one personality. It's coordinated. Slacks, shirts, walking shorts, leisure jackets all designed to go together perfectly and give you a wonderful, unified look.
