

Golfers Finish 2nd to Yale

Davidson Wins Golf Title On Three Stretch Drives

While Felus was knocking off Frates in the first round, 3 and 2, Davidson was pulling a "Silky" with Holy Cross's Tom Cunningham. Down most of the way, the new EIGA champ finally eked out a 1 up win over the Crusader, but not before Cunningham had sunk a hole-in-one on the back nine.

In the second round, Felus bested Yale's Alan Gelison, 1-up after 19 holes, and Davidson, stayed ahead of Princeton's Charles Dudley to win 2 and 1.

Then came one of the sporting world oddities. The Lion duo faced each other in the semi-final round. Once again Davidson came from behind edging his teammate, 2 and 1.

Blue and White mentor Joe Boyle had nothing but praise for his two aspirin pounders: "They both played wonderful golf all the way," he said. The only sad note was expressed by Davidson and Felus, who wanted to meet each other in the finals, instead of the semi's.

Davidson felt just as bad about winning, as Felus did in losing. "I didn't like it one bit," the new titleholder said. "Johnny played real good golf, and the only reason I won was because I got a few more putts down," he added.

Bill Davidson ... EIGA champ

EIGA Team Standings (top ten): Yale: 608; Penn State: 625; Princeton: 625; Syracuse: 635; Boston College: 641; Holy Cross: 645; Cornell: 646; Penn: 648; Pitt: 653; Army: 655.

But Davidson's and Felus' scores weren't enough to give the Lions the team title, as Decker (158), Bob Bambridge (160), Scott Stultz (160), and captain Pat Reilly (161) ran into trouble on the rough Yale course.

The par-70 course continually gave the Lions trouble. Termed the "roughest in the world," by Boyle, the fairways were in excellent condition, but intermittent winds added to the golfers' woes. The course is so difficult that Boston College's Charles Volpone had a 69 round Saturday morning and an 85 in the afternoon.

"If you don't know the course, and misplace a shot," Boyle explained, "you're in trouble."

Taking nothing away from the victorious Elis, Boyle called Yale's team "terrific." Four Bulldogs qualified for the individual title, and a fifth just missed. Princeton qualified three men, while Penn and the Lions had two apiece.

Frosh Nine Shutout Lock Haven ST, 7-0

Penn State's freshman baseball team won their first game of the year yesterday when they downed Lock Haven State Teachers College, 7-0, on Beaver Field.

Behind the brilliant pitching performance of Ken Shook, the Lions jumped into an early lead and never lost it. The Lion Cubs gave their best hitting performance of the year, collecting nine base hits. Biff Naylor's double was the only extra base blow.

The Frosh now have a record of 1-3. They host Frostburg Teachers at 3:30 this afternoon on Beaver Field.

Moran, Hambright Star

Lion Thinclads Upset Michigan; Half-Mile, 440 Records Fall

By MAC MacGAUGHAN

The Penn State cindermen racked up their third consecutive victory as they upset a powerful Wolverine contingent 63 1/6 to 58 5/6 on a fast Beaver Field track Saturday.

Lion middle distance star Ed Moran, his teammate Bill Schwab and the Wolverines' John Deardorf ran an outstanding half-mile to highlight the meet.

Coach Chick Werner considered the race the fastest that he had seen in dual competition. All three boys turned in the fastest times of their careers and the trio bettered the Penn State mark—1:52.9—recently set by Moran in the Navy meet.

Moran turned in a time of 1:52.2, cracked his old mark and took the first place laurels. Schwab finished second with a 1:51.2 and Deardorf placed third with a 1:51.6.

Lion 440 ace Dick Hambright nosed out his teammate rival Jim Norton and cracked the Penn State quarter-mile mark—48.3—set by Bruce Austin in 1956.

Hambright took the lead early in the race and held it all the way to the tape. Both men ran under the old mark with Hambright taking first place in 48.1 and Norton taking second in 48.2.

Nittany distance star Fred Kerr upset the Maize and Blue's Geert Keilstrup to cop first place honors in the two-mile run.

Kerr took an early lead and held it until the last lap when Keilstrup passed him on the first turn.

But Kerr turned on the steam, reclaimed the lead as they came into the homestretch, and went on to finish five yards in front of his opponent.

The only Nittany slam occurred in the mile run. Kerr finished first in 4:16.1, sophomore flash Dick Engelbrink came in second in 4:18.2 and Moran finished third in 4:19.2.

Lion discus man Andy Nyce turned in his best performance of the season as he recorded a heave of 155' 3". Nyce took first place honors in the event. John Bushong claimed second for the Wolverines and Jim Wambold, who was hampered by a stiff neck, finished third.

Nittany co-captain Ogie Norris finished in a tie for top honors in the pole vault. Both he and the Wolverines' Mamon Gibson cleared the 13' 6" mark.

Lion vaulter Dick Gross soared over the 13' mark to record his best performance to date.

"I just threw back my head and pulled like a son-of-a-gun," Gross said.

In summing up his team's performance, Werner said, "All the boys shot the works and we came out on top."

Lion Net Squad Beats Syracuse, 7-2

Penn State's tennis team rode the victory wagon home from Syracuse on Saturday after beating the Orangemen, 7-2, to even their season's record at 3-3.

Captain Fred Trust started the triumphal tour by whipping the number one Syracusean, Dick Wooley, 6-1, 6-4. For the first time this spring, Trust had a good backhand to go along with his powerful forehand smashes.

Chuck Questa and Charlie Bibleheimer, who exchanged positions as part of Coach Sherm Fogg's lineup revision, both made Fogg's juggling act a successful one by winning their respective tilts.

Dick Jacobs, replacing Gene

Flick in the number four spot, soundly beat sophomore Dick Young 6-1, 6-4.

Flick and Mel Royer, the Nittany netters' only first-year men, lost their matches to veterans Bill Seagar and Dave Applehoff.

Trust and Questa lost the first set of their doubles match, 4-6, but teamed to trounce Wooley and Al Maguire in the next two, 6-2, 6-1, to cop their first combination win of the year.

Bibleheimer and Royer, playing together for the first time, met Morey and Young and lost a marathon first set, 6-8, but like the top duo, found themselves and won the next two 6-0, 6-4.

Flick and Don Harnett combined to win the third doubles match, 7-5, 7-5. They were losing the first set, 0-5, but pulled the top stunt of the day to stop their opponents dead.
