Lions Beat Hoyas, 2-0, 13-0; Set Sights on Playoff Berth

This is the make or break week for Penn State's baseball team. Coach Joe Bedenk's diamondites have three games scheduled this week and a victory in every tilt is a must if the Lions are to get a repeat bid to the NCAA District 2 playoffs.

The Lions are under heavy consideration by the playoff committee (which meets in New York City Sunday)—especially after the double-header shut-tried a delayed double steal. Stickler was thrown out at second but not before Fegley had crossed the plate. Fegley's single tallying Emery finished the Lion scoring.

Fegley, Hoover, Ron Rainey, Stickler, Steve Baidy and Jack McMullen led the Lions' offensive barrage in the second game. Fegley, Hoover, Stickler and Baidy had two hits. Rainey three and McMullen one. However, McMullen accounted for three runs-batted-in with a two-run single in the first and a sacrifice fly in the seventh.

with no outs. But Emery proceeded to eliminate the trouble by striking out the side. (He fanned 10 all told).

Emery aided his own cause in the fifth when he scored on a single by Larry Fegley after blasting a two-out double to right field.

Riese didn't allow a man past first base in his seven-inning stint. And the only hit off the little righthander was a second inning smash to center.

The Lions only collected three hits themselves in the opener before erupting for 12 in the nightcap, including two doubles by Fegley.

Fegley figured in both Lion runs in the first tilt. In the first inning, he walked and moved to third on a sacrifice by Bob Hoover and an infield out. Don Stickler walked and with Joe Moore at the plate, Fegley and Stickler Baidy's hit was a three-base blast, scoring Doug Caldwell in the seventh. The Lions had men on in every inning but the fourth, and scored in every inning but the fourth and fifth.

out sweep over Georgetown Saturday. But the Nittanians will have to beat Temple tomorrow, Penn on Friday and always-dangerous Lafayette on Saturday to stay in the running.

As for the Georgetown victories, Penn State had a rather easy time—winning the opener 2-0 behind the two-hit hurling of lefty Cal Emery and taking the nightcap 13-0 behind the one-hit pitching of diminutive Ron Riese.

Emery, who now owns a 7-0 season record, was in serious trouble only once as he set the Hoyas down in order in four frames. Georgetown threatened in the second when they placed men on second and third (via a single, walk and wild pitch) points. The Blues tied it again early in the fourth period when Andy Moconyi bulled over left guard from 10 yards out after two large gains by Kasperian and a 20-yard Jacks to Jim Kerr aerial had set the play up. The Jacks-Kerr combination was good for the PAT, too.

And that was all the scoring until Lucas' sparkling breakaway run.

Lucas' 65-Yard Run Beats Blues, 22-14

By LOU PRATO

Reckless Richie Lucas is still as reckless as ever. The crafty Lion quarterback, who earned the "reckless" monicker with his daring escapades on the gridiron last fall, proved that Saturday afternoon on Beaver Field when he led the Whites to a 22-14 win over the Blues in the annual Blue-White grid classic.

Lucas scored two touchdowns and passed for another as the injury-riddled White squad edged its rebel teammates before 2000 football-starved fans. But it was the junior (to-be) signal caller's dazzling 65-yard touchdown run from a pass formation which left the crowd gasping.

The score was tied at 14-all with seven minutes left in the final stanza when Lucas faded back to his own 45-yard line to pass. But finding no receivers open, he darted around left end, cut back sharply 10 yards from the scrimmage line to a void three would-be tacklers, picked up some downfield blockage, and sped into the end zone standing up. Chaffee's end run for the extra points (two for a run or pass, the new rule states) was anticlimactic.

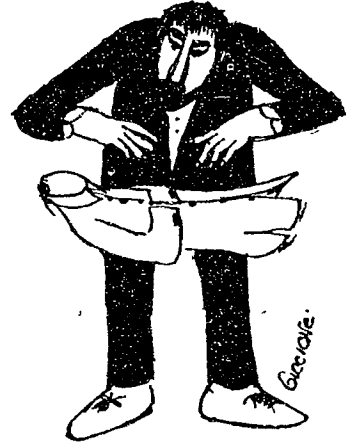

Lucas started the White's on their victory trail in the early moments of the game after the Whites had taken possession of the ball on their own 45 (in absence of a kickoff). Veteran Eddie Caye broke away on a 40-yard gallop down the left sideline and three plays later Lucas went over center for the first score. His pass to Bruce Gilmore for the PAT fell incomplete.

Caye and Pat Botula, the other White first team halfback, were injured later in the second quarter and didn't play the second half).

Regular varsity field general Al Jacks, handling that role for the Blues, brought his team back into contention midway in the second period with an 8-yard aerial in the heart to halfback Dave Kasperian (who was easily the most impressive back on the field). But Jacks' pass to Kerr for the Blues' extra point(s) was out of the end zone.

Late in the third quarter, the Whites regained the lead when a Lucas punt was muffed by rookie Jim Pae on the Blues 15-yard marker. Several plays later Lucas hit Chaffee in the end zone. Another pass to Chaffee was good for two more

THE POWER OF POSITIVE WRINKLING

While everybody knows that the soft collar on Van Heusen Century Shirts won't wrinkle, ever, a Van Heusen survey among college students has revealed that precious few know why. Here are some of the responses:

J. L.—sophomore at the Psychodynamic Institute for Arts, Crafts, and Number Painting—"Obviously, the collar won't wrinkle, because it's afraid to wrinkle. It may have been threatened by some surly Van Heusen vice-president. Ergo, it exhibits the Cavandish anti-wrinkle syndrome."

G. F.—junior at Usury School of Advertising—"Collar-wise, there's no demand for wrinkles. No customer benefit. Now, this is strictly off the top of my cranium, but the statement, 'the soft collar that won't wrinkle, ever,' is too negative. Substitute 'never' for 'ever' and you not only have a positive statement—but—as demonstrated by that famous cigarette, this ungrammatical concept will be attention-getting."

L. V.—senior quarterback at Milltown College—"I wouldn't be without a Van Heusen. Look here... under my pleatless shoulder pads. See? Out of simple decency, the collar refrains from wrinkling. It's this kind of restraint that recently led to our glorious victory over Birdbrain U. Not a man was scathed. Huzzah for the collar—and fight furiously, fellows."

Yes, this is the kind of ignorance we run across. Actually, while other collars are made of 3 pieces of material, the secret of this soft collar with its wrinkle-shunning qualities is one-piece construction. Van Heusen Century shirts come in 5 collar styles. $4 and $5.
