Nine Loses; Stickmen V

PENN STATE'S catcher Don Stickler readys to tag Mort Teplitsky at the plate as the Temple player tries to stretch a triple into a homer. He was out on a perfect relay throw: Joe Moore to Bob Hoover to Stickler.

Temple Upsets Lions 5-2; Emery Loses First

It's a good thing that Penn State's baseball coach Joe Lehigh yesterday at Beaver Field. Bedenk has a strong heart. Otherwise, the Lions would be looking for a new boss today.

Bedenk needed a tough ticker yesterday afternoon at attack consisting of Harry Brown, Beaver Field (as did every other loyal Penn State diamond Dave Wilkinson and Bill McDon-fan who was there) when upstart! Temple handed the Lions a shock- Playoff berth.

Behne, Donahoe Score 3 Goals Each

Smother Lehigh, 13-3

A blitzkrieg type offense coupled with a brilliant defensive performance best describes Penn State's 13-3 lacrosse victory over

John Behne and Fred Donahoe each netted three goals to spark the Penn State offense. The "new" ough, kept up their fine play with five goals. Brown and McDonough had two each while Wilkinson had

Despite the fact that Lehigh's Captain Walt Pijawka took the opening faceoff and scored at the 8 second mark, Penn State controlled the game both offensively and defensively from that point to the end of the game.

Just sixteen seconds after Pi jawka's goal, Harry Brown scored Yesterday's tilt was beyond a for Penn State. Then came a series doubt, one of Emery's worst pitching experiences. He was in trouble for the first period with the Lions giving up eight but including about 4.1

lowed suit. Harry Brown's second goal with three minutes left gave Penn State a 9-1 halftime bulge.

In the second half, the Lion netted only four goals-one each by Donahoe, Behne, McDonough and Dick Bullock. Lehigh managed to score twice off the Lion defense in the second half as Don Bateman connected at 14:54 and Bob Swanson hit at 25:13. Swanson's goal was the last for both teams. The main reason the Lions were goal. so successful, according to Coach Earnie Baer, was the sparkling display put on by the defensive unit. Gove Elder played his finest one. Wilkinson also had four as-game this season, as he consistently broke up Lehigh's offen-sive thrust. "Elder was terriffic turned in his steady job at the nets," Baer said.

Houseworth had to leave the game midway in the second half when he was hit in the arm by a Lehigh attackman. Versatile Dave Wilkinson, who had been playing attack, took over in the nets for the Lions and gave up only one

Yesterday's victory gives the Lions a good chance to tie Drexel for the Penn-Del league lead. A win over Dickinson Sat-urday would clinch at least a tie for the Lions. A winning season (Continued on page eight)
