

Nittany Tennis Duos Win; Cornell Victor in Match

By BEN BRONSTEIN

Cornell's Big Red, plus 40 degree temperatures, cooled off the Penn State tennis team yesterday, by whipping the Nittany netters, 6-3.

The Lions, making their second trip to New York in five days, found the atmosphere of the state quite different at Ithaca than at Syracuse where they won 7-2. The Lions lost all six singles matches to Cornell, but scored victories in the three doubles affairs.

After the loss, Lion mentor Sherm Fogg said "we seem to be a warm weather team," and it was really cold at Cornell yesterday. The Lions warmed up after a while, as evidenced by closer scores in the second sets of most of the singles matches and the clean sweep of the doubles.

The Lions, now three and four, in the won and lost column, have four matches remaining in the season—ending next Saturday at Pitt—and must win three to register a winning season. It was the second win of the Spring for the Ithacans, having beaten Syracuse the day before, 8-1.

The new juggled singles lineup Fogg used against the Orange Saturday remained intact for yesterday's tilt except Don Harnett replaced Mel Royer in the number six spot.

Number two man Chuck Questa was the hardest Lion to beat, losing to Floyd Bownf in two extended sets, 5-7, 7-9. In the second set the score was tied, 7-7, with each player unable to break the other's serve. Finally, in the fifteenth game, Bownf broke Questa's serve and won his own in the sixteenth to win the marathon match.

Lion Captain Fred Trust, playing on the number one court, lost to a champion, Kay Champion, that is, by a 1-6 2-6, score. Trust couldn't keep his tremendous first serve in the court, thereby losing one of his primary weapons, and his performance was a complete reversal of his fine exhibition at Syracuse.

Cornell's Dick Sun was too bright for Charlie Bibleheimer in winning the third match, 2-6, 4-6. Brian Miscall beat Dick Jacobs, in the Lions' fourth spot, 2-6, 2-6.

In the fifth and sixth matches, Gene Flick lost to Ken Derr, 0-6, 5-7, and Harnett dropped his match to Dick Ball, 0-6, 4-6. Flick was behind five points in the second set when he staged a comeback—a habit with him—to score five straight points and tie the set, only to lose the next two points and the match.

Fogg resorted to his regular duos for the doubles competition while Cornell experimented freely and accomplished the only success of the day for the Lions.

Trust and Questa combined to take the top match Arom Sun and Miscall in a close one, 7-5, 6-4.

Bibleheimer and Flick topped Jon Minikes and Tom Takurer in a come-from-behind three set effort, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Jacobs and Royer beat Ball and Chris Demtra 6-2, 7-5.

Indians Edge Tigers, 9-8

DETROIT (AP)—Roger Maris' second home run of the day in a wild ninth inning gave the Cleveland Indians a 9-8 victory over the Detroit Tigers yesterday at Briggs Stadium. The Indians scored five times after the Tigers appeared to have things all wrapped up. A Detroit castoff, J. W. Porter, drove in the tying run with a single. Porter came up as a pinch-hitter in the top of the ninth.

Delta Upsilon Takes Lead In IM Race

Delta Upsilon is leading the pack in the race for the IM All-Year Point award, but only a few paces behind and coming up fast is Lambda Chi Alpha.

Alpha Sigma Phi (3rd) and Tau Kappa Epsilon (4th) are fighting hard to take over the leaders. Finishing out the top ten in order are: Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Sigma Phi, Alpha Zeta, Kappa Delta Rho and Phi Delta Theta.

Delta Upsilon picked up the majority of its 662 points by taking the swimming championship and the co-championship in boxing.

Lambda Chi Alpha stuck close on DU's tail with 651 points by taking top honors in wrestling, co-championship in boxing and Dick Burgoon's golf crown.

Lambda Chi has made its big break by knocking off DU in the golf team matches and the tennis doubles.

Although they are 15 points away from the lead, Alpha Sig isn't giving up hope. They have already won laurels in volleyball and touch football and are still hopeful in soccer and horse-shoes.

TKE may be the dark horse in this year's race. They meet Lambda Chi in golf on the 17th and this match may very well decide the fate of Lambda Chi.

House Committee Undermines Critics Of Pro Sports Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY), cracking out again at top officials of major league baseball, declared yesterday a House committee report undermines critics of his sports bill.

He said the report by a bare majority of the House Judiciary Committee "cuts the ground completely from under them."

Celler heads the committee, which split sharply on wording of the bill to establish what professional baseball, football, basketball and ice hockey can and cannot do under federal antitrust laws.

"They can have a reserve clause, farm systems, territorial rights, commissioners and all that," Celler told a reporter. "But they cannot have a blank check to do whatever they want, reasonable or unreasonable."
