

Nittany Cindermen Host Pitt Panthers Tomorrow

The Nittany spikers will host the Pitt Panthers in their final home meet of the season tomorrow.

Top man on the Panther cinder roster is sophomore sensation Mel Barnwell.

Barnwell, in the opinion of Pitt's Sports Publicity Director "Beano" Cook, is a potential great in the 440-yard run.

Barnwell ran wild against the Irish of Notre Dame. He claimed top honors in the 220-yard dash and the 440-yard run and recorded the best times of his career—21.4 in the 220 and 48.2 in the 440.

The husky Brooklynite also ran the anchor leg on the Panthers victorious mile relay team.

Paul Thrash, Pitt's team captain and top hurdler, turned in a speedy 14.9 in the 120-yard high hurdles against the Irish. Thrash's best time for the 220-yard low hurdles is 24.4.

According to Cook, Pitt lacks strength in the field events, with the exception of the shot put and discus.

Their top weight man, Wes King, hit the 165'4" mark in the discus and the 49'4" mark in the shot put against Notre Dame. This is his best showing of the season.

The Panthers have a potentially great mile relay team but so far they have failed to produce outdoors.

During the indoor season, the Panther relay team was unbeaten, but, under the strain of added events in the outdoor schedule, they have failed to better the 3:20.0 mark. They have compiled a 1 and 3 record in dual competition.

Regis Goggin, Pitt's top high and broad jumper, will be in contention for top honors tomorrow. Goggin's best distance in the broad jump is 22'9½". The lanky junior cleared the 6'2" mark in the high jump against the Irish—

Gutterballs, SChi Win IM Bowling

Beaver House, led by the top playing of Bede Bender, tried its hardest to upset defending champion Sigma Chi but the going was too tough. The Sigma Chi's refused to give up the Intramural crown that they wore last year and won again, 4-0.

The Gutterballs came through to cop the independent bowling title by downing the Fowls, 3-1. Frank Telesca led the Gutterballers with a 3-game average of 530. Although the Fowls' Lou Klukosky was the top bowler of the night it was a losing cause. He bowled the high single game, 232, and the high 3-game average, 627.

IM Horseshoes

Last year's defending horseshoe champions Steve Baidy and Larry Metzger of Alpha Chi Rho were knocked off last night by Roy Sinclair and Joe Hyson of Sigma Nu, 21-2, 15-21, 21-16.

In other matches, Paul Felton and Russel Beatty of Alpha Gamma Rho defeated Mike Rohrbach and Dick Ferrari of Alpha Sigma Phi by taking two straight, 21-6, 22-20.

Don Tinsman and Sam Kurtz of Acacia downed Joe Burns and Ed Shaffer of Kappa Delta Rho, 21-20, 17-21, 21-2.

12 Enter Preakness; Tim-Tam Favored

BALTIMORE (AP)—Martins Rullah, a notorious fifth-place finisher in four major stakes races this year, joined the Preakness lineup yesterday as Staysail dropped out, leaving a probable field of 12 for Pimlico's great $100,000-added gallop.

The Calumet Farm's Tim Tam, winner of the Kentucky Derby, is listed as the 7 to 5 favorite for Saturday's mile and three-sixteenth classic.

Tim Tam, Silky Sullivan, Gone Fishin, Martins Rullah, Jewel's Reward, Liberty Ruler, Lincoln Road, Nouredin, Talent Show, Chance It Tony, Michore, and Pli-on are the starters.

Mel Barnwell ... Panthers' top sprinter this is his best of the season.

The Panthers are weak in the distance events. Their best miler, John Christoff, turned in a 4:21.0 earlier this year. He will have to better that mark to be in contention tomorrow.

Pitt's top two-miler, Vince Timon won the event against Notre Dame in 9:41.4.

Max Kumer, the Panthers top pole vaulter, hit the 12-6" mark at Notre Dame. This is his best of the season.

Pitt enters the meet with a 1-3 record in outdoor dual meet competition.

Ike OK's Olympic Area Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Thursday signed a bill financing construction of an arena for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The $3.5 million project will be built with funds already available to the Defense Department. It will be constructed on government-owned land.

After the Olympic Games it will be used for recreational purposes by the state of California, with the government receiving a percentage of the proceeds.

Reds Stop Buc Win Skein

PITTSBURGH (AP)—George Crow's third homer of the year with a mate abroad in the eighth powered the Cincinnati Redlegs to a 9-4 victory over Pittsburgh Thursday, halting the Pirates winning streak at six games.

The Redlegs jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning, lathering starter Bob Friend for a walk, a fielders' choice and four singles—three of them back-to-back.

Crow's homer provided two more in the eighth and four more runs crossed the plate in the ninth.

Why Millions Call Him "HOLY FATHER"

Catholic loyalty to the Pope is the cause of never-ending amazement to many non-Catholics.

They wonder how an exclusively spiritual leader can command the devotion of nearly four hundred millions of people. They cannot explain why this vast religious family... representing every race, color, language and political belief on the face of the earth... lives and grows through the ages, while man-made empires have their day of glory and then disappear.

What is there about this one man that causes people to speak of him in a hundred tongues as "Holy Father"?

We find the answer, of course, not necessarily in the holiness of the man himself; but in his Christ-given office. The answer is found by tracing the history of the Catholic Church... the history of 262 successive Popes... back through nearly 2,000 years to Jesus Christ Himself.

We know as a matter of historical fact that Christ did establish His Church... that He commissioned the Apostle Peter as its first head... that He sent His Apostles forth to teach men to observe all things He had commanded.

We know from the New Testament that the Church was actually organized... that it was governed by the Apostles under the leadership of Peter... that it was teaching Christ's truth far and wide, long before the last book of the New Testament was written and the books of the Bible were collected into one volume.

Christ's purpose in organizing a Church was to make certain that the good news of Redemption would be preached to all men... even to the end of the world. To accomplish this with fallible men, required that He establish a Church—divinely protected from error in transmitting His teaching through the centuries.

The Catholic Church traces its unbroken history back to the Apostles—back to Christ. And Catholics today call Pope Pius XII "Holy Father" because he is the lawful and historical successor to Peter, the first Pope. He is in our time... as Peter was in the first century... the Vicar of Christ on earth.

Would you like to know more about the Pope... why the promises made by Christ to Peter and his successors make the Pope the most important man in the world? Then write today for a pamphlet which we shall send you free, in a plain wrapper. And nobody will call on you. Ask for Pamphlet No. KC-4.
