

Stickmen Play Dickinson In Championship Game

The Dickinson Red Devils invade the liar of the Nittany Lion tomorrow at 4 p.m., for a game which will decide the Pennsylvania-Delaware lacrosse championship.

Both Dickinson and Penn State are undefeated in league play. Dickinson remained unbeaten by virtue of their 13-6 win over powerful Drexel. Their overall slate stands at 8-2.

Dickinson boasts the top scorer in intercollegiate lacrosse ranks. He is attackman Don O'Neill. O'Neill has scored 46 goals in eight games this year (this doesn't include Dickinson's games with Delaware and Washington College). O'Neill set a single game scoring record when he threw in 12 goals against Franklin & Marshall earlier this year.

The Nittany Lions will counter with their high-scoring mid-field duo of John Behne and Fred Donahoe. These two—along with the starting attack—Dave Wilkinson, Harry Brown and Bill McDonough—give the Lions their share of scoring power.

Should the defense keep up their fine play, the Dickinson offense will have a very hard time getting to Burt Houseworth. In its last two games the Lion defense unit has given up just six goals. The starting defensive unit today will be Gove Elder, Mike

Fred Donahoe . . . high scoring midfielder

Beattie and Ray Tuleya.

Coach Earnie Baer is confident that the Lions will come through today. The stickmen have really come to life this month and have given Baer and all Penn State lacrosse followers something to cheer about. Their season's record stands at 5-6, but they have been playing their best lacrosse in the last four games. The Lions are riding a 2-game winning streak and are aiming for a winning season. A win today and a victory over Colgate next Saturday will give them a winning slate.

A strong reason for Baer's confidence is the fact that scouting reports reveal Dickinson as having trouble clearing the ball and getting it to the offense. With the way the defense has been playing, the Lions might be considered a slight favorite.

Lacrosse Briefs . . . Dickinson boasts eight players from Baltimore, Md., the "heart" of lacrosse country . . . Last Wednesday Ray Tuleya played the last few minutes of the Lehigh game at attack . . . After Burt Houseworth was lifted Wednesday because of an injured arm, Dave Wilkinson, an attackman, went in for him. Houseworth then looked on the field and saw defenseman Ray Tuleya playing attack and asked Earnie Baer: "Where's my attack stick?"

when, with one down, Gordon Achilles homered to deep left. The pint-sized right hander allowed seven hits, but they were scattered beautifully.

The Lions scored their first run in the second without the benefit of a hit on walks to Don Stickler, Caldwell, Steve Baidy and Miller's infield out.

Two more tallies followed in the fourth on singles by Caldwell and Miller, sandwiched in between a walk to Baidy. Baidy scored on a wild pitch.

The Lions had two big three-run innings in the fifth and seventh frames and both times, it was Bob Hoover who started the rampage. He dropped a two-bagger down the left field line with one out in the fifth and scored on Ron Rainey's single.

Rainey was out on Stickler's fielders choice, but another single by Caldwell and McMullen's triple plated two more runs. McMullen was picked off at third to end the threat.

Seniors in Home Farewell

Netters Host Bisons In 1:30 Test Today

Lion Captain Fred Trust, Chuck Questa and Dick Jacobs face the home fans for the last time when the Nittanians take on rival-neighbor Bucknell at 1:30 p.m. today on the Beaver-Field courts.

Coach Sperm Fogg is making only one change in the Lion lineup that suffered a disappointing loss to Cornell Wednesday. Chuck Questa, who gave the toughest fight against the Big Red in losing, 5-7, 7-9, will replace Trust in the number one position.

Questa has been the steadiest player this spring. Of his promotion Fogg said: "He earned it."

The Lions enter today's match with a 3-4 season record including two wins on the home courts over Western Maryland and Juniata and one loss to Maryland. One other home tilt with Lehigh was canceled because of rain.

The netter's chances for a winning season look slim with today's match and three next week against Georgetown, Navy and Pitt finishing up the season. Georgetown is possibly the top team in the East according to Fogg. "If we couldn't beat Cornell," Fogg said, "it will take upsets to beat Navy and Pitt since both are better than Cornell."

Bucknell's major weapon today will be the spirit the Bison always show against the Lions in every sport. Fogg calls Bucknell mentor, Hank Peters, "a cagey coach" who knows his own personnel and always has them "up" for the Lions.

Penn State beat Bucknell twice last year by 6½-2½ and 6-3 scores. The odd first match score resulted this way.

The third doubles contest was tied with each duo winning a set when, during the third set, a downpour of rain stopped the match. A compromise of a half-point each was decided upon. A match scheduled earlier this year at Bucknell was rained out.

Bucknell is led by Captain Charles Siede and two returning lettermen, senior Bob Riondexter and junior Al Reubel. According to pre-season releases, Peters will be depending on sophomores Bob Goecker, Harry Livas and Bill Sweet to complete the squad.

Band Day Set for Furman

Band Day, an annual fixture, will highlight Penn State's first football meeting with Furman at University Park, Pa., Nov. 1.
