

Undeclared Golfers Top Cornell, 4-3, for Ninth Win

Thinclads Defeat Pitt, 76½-54½

Moran Adds Mile Mark To Collection

By MAC McGAUGHAN
The Lion cindermen closed out their home dual meet season in fine form as they smothered the Pittsburgh Panthers 76½-54½ Saturday.

Ed Moran, the Lions' middle distance ace, added the mile run to his list of Penn State records. Moran, two-time breaker of the half-mile mark, snapped the tape in the mile in 4:10.5.

Mel Barnwell turned in a top-notch performance for the Panthers as he nipped Lions Jim Norton and Dick Hambright in the 440-yard run. Hambright took the lead on the first turn but the speedy Barnwell overtook him in the backstretch.

Barnwell was clocked at the 47.5 mark and Hambright and Norton finished in 47.8. All three when Hambright took over the Nittanians had a 2-yard lead. Hambright rounded the first turn with Barnwell right behind him. Barnwell inched past the Lion ace in the backstretch and snapped the tape at the 3:14.2 mark to set a new meet record. Barnwell's time for the anchor leg was 46.7—Hambright's was 47.7.

—Daily Collegian Photo by Bob Lloyd

NEW MEET RECORD set as Pitt's Mel Barnwell nips Lion captain Jim Norton and Dick Hambright in the 440-yard run. The Nittanians scored a 76½-54½ victory over the Panthers in Saturday's dual meet at Beaver Field.

"I was really scared when I passed him (Hambright) in the backstretch," Barnwell said. "I thought he was stronger than I was and I was afraid that he'd pass me after the turn." Buster Thomas, Nittany sprinter and high jumper, copped first place laurels in the 100-yard dash. Thomas's time for the distance was 10.0.

The Lion freshmen rolled over the Panther Cubs 104-26. Bob Brown, the Lion Cub's dash star, ran away with first place honors in the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Brown's time for the 100 was 9.8—his time for the 220 was 21.6.

Linksmen Host Bucknell; Seek 4th Unbeaten Year

By LARRY JACOBSON

If Nittany golf coach Joe Boyle doesn't wind up with a good case of gastric ulcers, it won't be because his undefeated squad hasn't tried.

The Nittany linksmen notched their ninth win Saturday against Cornell, 4-3, at Ithaca, but it was one of those photo finishes that make coaches apply for hazard pay.

Boyle's juggernaut will try to wrap up Penn State's fourth unbeaten season when they meet a weak Bucknell squad at 1 p.m. today on the University course.

The Cornell victory was the third 4-3 win in the last four matches for the Lions, as they again resorted to depth to put the match in the win column. The loss was Cornell's second in six starts.

With pressure on and the match tied 3-3, number six man Scott Stultz came through with a 1 up come-from-behind win over the Bears' Lynn Alexander to send Boyle home happy. Stultz, who won the big one against Pitt in the same situation, did it the hard way.

The latter two were playing even par when their matches ended.

But it was Bill Davidson, Johnny Felus, and Charlie Decker who sent Boyle looking for some "Tums." Davidson, still weak from a physical ailment the previous night, was plastered by Cornell's top man, Steve Klein, 6 and 5. The loss brought the Eastern Intercollegiate champion's record to 6-3.

Just as surprising was Felus' 3 and 2 loss to the Bears' Joe Giomonde. Felus, with a 5-4 season record, has been the hottest Lion golfer lately, but ran into some excellent golf by Giomonde.

The sole undefeated Lion was 1 down with three holes to go when he started pouring it on. Alexander, Cornell's top man last year, lost the 16th and 17th holes to Stultz. The Lion played to halve the last hole and nursed the ball home, giving him a 1 up decision and his ninth win.

Scott Stultz ... wins "big one"

Bob Bainbridge, captain Pat Reilly, and Roy Altman racked up the other Nittany wins. Altman, playing one over par (72), toppled Ted Antos, 4 and 3 for his eighth win in nine starts. Bainbridge (8-1) upended Karl Foster, 5 and 3, while Reilly was administering a 4 and 3 loss to John Tallman for his fifth win against four losses.

Like Davidson, Decker's loss was aided by physical woes: a bad hayfever attack. Decker lost to Art Hemker, 2 and 1, bringing his season log to 6-3.

PUTTING AROUND—Boyle will go with the same lineup against Bucknell. The Lions are not expecting too much trouble from the Bisons . . . the linksmen's last unbeaten seasons were in 1948, 1953 and 1955 . . . Cornell's John Tallman has lost three matches during his collegiate career. All losses were to Penn State golfers, and all were by identical 4 and 3 scores.

Netters Whip Bucknell, 8-1 Play 3 Matches This Week

By BEN BRONSTEIN
The Lion netters closed out their home season Saturday with a smashing 8-1 victory over Bucknell to even the team's season record at 4-4 with three matches remaining to try for a winning season.

The netters start the final week today against Georgetown, possibly the top team in the East. Tomorrow the Nittanians meet Navy and Friday they travel to Pitt to end the week's series of away matches.

Coach Sherm Fogg, after last Wednesday's disappointing loss to Cornell on a cold day at Ithaca, called the Lions a "warm weather team." Saturday was a burning hot day and the netters made Fogg's Cornell statement look good.

Chuck Questa, playing in the top spot for the first time, engaged in a marathon contest with Bucknell sophomore, Bill Sweets, and obviously weary at the end lost 9-11, 5-7.

Dick Jacobs was terrific in equeezing out a pressure-packed win in three close sets, 6-4, 4-6, 7-5 over a flashy speedster, sophomore Henry Livas.

Captain Fred Trust made a bid to regain the number one spot with an impressive 6-3, 6-2 win over Charles Siede. It was a satisfying win for Trust who lost to Siede last year.

Gene Flick and Mel Royer, fifth and sixth men, won respectively over Bob Goeker and Tom Cowan. The two Bison sophomores have been the top winners for their team, which pre-

Major Leagues

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Yesterday's Results
No games scheduled
	W	L	Pct.	GB.
New York	19	5	.792	—
Kansas City	13	12	.520	6½
Cleveland	15	16	.484	7½
Pitt more	12	13	.480	7½
Boston	14	16	.467	8
Washington	13	15	.464	8
Detroit	13	17	.433	9
Chicago	11	16	.407	9½

Probable Pitchers
New York at Chicago (N)—Kucks (1-1) vs. Donovan (2-3).
Washington at Kansas City (N)—Pascual (2-1) vs. Garver (4-1).
Baltimore at Detroit—O'Dell (3-4) vs. Hoelt (3-2).
Boston at Cleveland (N)—Smith (2-0) vs. Narleski (5-2).

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Yesterday's Results
Milwaukee at Cincinnati (night)
	W	L	Pct.	GB.
San Francisco	21	11	.656	—
Milwaukee	17	9	.654	1
Pittsburgh	17	14	.548	3½
Philadelphia	14	16	.467	6
Chicago	15	18	.455	6½
St. Louis	13	16	.448	6½
Cincinnati	11	14	.440	6½
Los Angeles	11	21	.344	10

Probable Pitchers
San Francisco at Cincinnati (N)—McCo-mick (3-0) vs. Lawrence (1-3).
Los Angeles at Milwaukee (N)—Podres (4-2) vs. Conley (0-1).
Chicago at Pittsburgh (N)—Drott (1-0) vs. Friend (5-2).
St. Louis at Philadelphia (N)—McDaniel (2-3) vs. Simmons (4-3).

DACRON AND WOOL COOL, COMFORTABLE, and CRISP

Our Atherton tropicals lend themselves perfectly to campus life. With that little extra in fit and appearance, plus supple tailoring, the Atherton dacron and wool holds its shape—even in wily weather.

Dick Harper

CUSTOM SHOP

THE ATHERTON
No excess padding
or canvas stiffening
Easy lines

Around the corner from Bostonian Ltd., W. College Ave.

PENN STATE DINER

Fine Foods
OPEN 24 HOURS A DAY
"Tradition Demands Quality"

THESIS
MULTILITHING
FAST - ECONOMICAL
COMMERCIAL PRINTING
352 E. COLLEGE AD 8-6794

off to a GOOD START class of '58

with a subscription to

The Daily Collegian

$3.00-semester

$5.00-year

Carnegie Bldg.