

Formosa Strait Storms Stop 7th Fleet Convoy

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Stormy weather in Formosa Strait stopped the U.S. 7th Fleet—called the biggest single naval force ever deployed by any nation in peacetime—from conveying the supply run to beleaguered Quemoy yesterday. The fleet commander, Vice Adm. Wallace M. Beakley, acknowledged that the Chinese Nationalists are going to have a tough time dealing with Communist shore guns which threaten to cut Quemoy's lifeline.

Rogers Submits Integration Plan For Little Rock

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Rogers yesterday submitted to Little Rock, Ark., officials a proposed federal-local plan for preserving order in the event Central High School there is directed to continue its racial integration program.

Rogers released letters addressed to City Manager Dean Dauley and President Wayne Upton of the Little Rock School Board setting out the cooperative proposal. Rogers had received word the communications were now in their hands.

In Little Rock, city officials acknowledged receipt of the letter.

Mayor Werner Knoop and Dauley refused to say whether the letter had anything to do with the school integration crisis here.

Unemployment in August Drops to 7-Month Low

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported yesterday unemployment dropped 600,000 in August to a seven-month low of 4,699,000. The decline fell short of seasonal expectations.

Because the drop percentage-wise wasn't as large as normal for this time of year, the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment rose.

Candidates Urge Ouster Of Adams

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the backwash of a shattering Republican defeat in Maine, GOP candidates were reported swamping party leaders yesterday with fresh demands for the ouster of presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

One influential administration official said Adams' resignation could be expected within a few days as a result of the thumping defeat of GOP Sen. Frederick G. Payne in Maine's warmup balloting in the contest for control of Congress.

Another official on the same level said no final decision had been made. He added, however, it looked as though Adams would have to go or face official repudiation by some GOP campaign organizations.

Adams, who has been under fire for accepting costly favors from Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine, was reported fishing somewhere in New England and could not be reached for comment.

However, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty stood on his previous statements that he knows of no plans for Adams to quit or be fired.

Youth Swims to Safety; Three Rescuers Drown

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—When Nelson Antonio de Silva, 11, started to swim the Tiete River near here last Sunday, his mother, fearful her son might drown, swam after him.

The boy's father, Mario, 36, started after both, and he was followed by the boy's grandfather, Cristiano, 70.

The boy reached shore safely. The other three drowned.

Pitt Plans $100 Million Expansion

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh yesterday outlined for the mayor and city council a long range expansion program that would cost in excess of 100 million dollars.

Chancellor Edward H. Litchfield said the master plan calls for erection of a new library, and a group of buildings to house the professional schools of business administration, retailing, law education, social work and public and international affairs. The plan also includes new dormitories for 3500 students and other housing for an additional 1000 students and faculty members.

Leader Asks Constitution Change

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gov. Leader yesterday urged changes in the State Constitution to permit future chief executives of the state to succeed themselves.

FOR YOUR BACK TO SCHOOL NEEDS

Ball Point Pens . . $1.95 up

Liquid Lead Pencils . . $2.95

Alarm Clocks from $4.95 plus tax

Also . . .

Penn State Jewelry

Penn State Class Rings

Everything you would expect to find in a fine jewelry store

A Hearty Welcome to Returning Upperclassmen

You returning upperclassmen will naturally want to resume your Keeler shopping habits. You'll remember our courteous sales staff of last year, the same courteous clerks are here to welcome you again.

Frosh, just ask any upperclassman and he'll tell you to shop at Keeler's first.

This year again we're selling only the CORRECT books for all courses as we have in the past. Don't forget our complete line of supplies including slide rules and drawing instruments by K&E, Post, and Dietzgen. We're still featuring a complete line of art supplies and materials.

Stop in and browse around—you're sure to find the supplies you want at Keeler's, first for personalized service.

KEELER'S

THE UNIVERSITY BOOK STORE

WEST COLLEGE AVENUE