

Frosh Talent Show Auditions Will Begin in HUB Today

Auditions for a freshman talent show will be held from 8 to 10 a.m. and from 2 to 4 p.m. today in the Hetzel Union assembly room.

The talent show will be presented as a part of the Freshman Class Night, to be held from 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday in Recreation Building.

Show auditions will be conducted by Robert Navarra, secretary of the Board of Dramatics and Forensics, which is sponsoring the class night.

Freshmen wearing dinks and name cards will be admitted without charge to class night. Upperclassmen dates also may attend.

The class night is being held this year for the first time. It replaces Fun Night, the traditional event held as a get-acquainted mixer for freshmen.

The class night program includes dancing from 8 to 9 p.m., singing school songs from 9 to 9:30 p.m., the talent show from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m., refreshments from 10:30 to 11 p.m. and dancing from 10:30 to midnight.

The singing will be led by Dr. Hummel Fishburn and Frank Gullo, of the Department of Music.

Ferguson Appointed Relations Director

T. Reed Ferguson, administrative head of the Extension Conference Center since 1954, has been named to the newly-created post of director of University relations.

In his new role, Ferguson will be responsible for formal public occasions and effective reception of visitors to campus.

He also will assist the vice president for development in administering the University's relations with the State.

President Eric A. Walker said the new office was created primarily to expedite the reception of the steadily-expanding number of visitors to University Park and centers throughout the State.

At the present time, more than 30,000 persons annually enroll in conferences, institutes and short courses. Additional thousands visit the campus for field days, tours, professional meetings and exhibits.

Ferguson will coordinate the various means used by the University to welcome these individuals and groups to the campus.

Ferguson, a graduate of the University, Class of 1936, served as administrative head of the Pottsville Center before joining General Extension on the campus in 1954.

He also had served the Pottsville Center as an instructor in fine arts during the years from 1942 to 1945.

Upon graduation he joined the Avon-Grove Consolidated Schools at West Grove as supervisor of art, going next to Fort Hill High School, Cumberland, Md., as an art teacher and spending a year as technical illustrator and editor for Consolidated Vultee at Allentown.

He served the American Red Cross in 1945-46 as assistant field director in the Fleet Chaplain's Office at Pearl Harbor.

Ferguson, a native of Kirkwood, Lancaster County, spent a year in graduate study at Harvard University, and also pursued special work in art at the University of Pennsylvania and the University.

He is married to the former Cornelia Carpenter, of Pottsville, and they live with their daughter, 10-year-old Cornelia, at 512 W. Hillcrest Ave., State College.

Cornell Awards 'Ph.T.'

Cornell University has awarded a Ph.T. "degree" to 30 wives of its graduate students.

The letters stand for "Putting Husband Through."
