

Modern Infirmary Serves University

Because the University is a community of over 15,000 population, one of the busiest and most vital spots on campus is the Ridenour Health Center, composed of both an out-patient dispensary and a modern 60-bed hospital.

The hospital is staffed by eight doctors, nurses and technicians, and is equipped to handle all cases except major ants include Guernio DeGregario, 6', 190 pounder from Drexel Hill; Dick Zadrozny, 6', 205 pounds, from Coraopolis; Harry Saxton, 6', 200 pounds, from Lewistown; and Tom Dumm, 5'10", 190 pounds Tackle appears to be the weakest spot with only five able-bodied players. Jimmy Smith, 6-2, 225, comes recommended with a county and Sun-Tele "All-Star" choice.

Martin Lawrence, 6', 205 pounds from Tamaqua; Gerry Farkas, 6', 220 pounds from Northampton, and Bill Slezosky, 6-1, 269 pounder from Shenandoah also join the squad.

But as Bruce said, "They all need a lot of work. It's a big jump from high school to college football."

Barber Shops to Raise

Haircut Prices Saturday

The cost of haircuts in State College will be raised from $1.25 to $1.50 starting Saturday.

The Barber's Association of State College also announced yesterday that all barber shops will be open Wednesday afternoons but will close at noon on Saturdays.

The Juilliard String Quartet and the Quartetto Italiano both have appeared in State College in previous Chamber Music Series concerts.

Tickets for the entire series only are now on sale. They may be purchased from members of the State College Choral Society or at the following local stores:

overlooking his own veteran-laden outfit.) All of the Middies' other votes were cast for second place, so there's no question as to them being the pre-season Eastern independent favorite.

Army, which was the first place pick of the New York Times' Jesse Abramson (Street and Smith), Red Grange (Kickoff) and the Associated Press' Harold Classen (True), is rated second.

Other first place votes were given to our own Lions (Playboy) who wound up third in the voting, fourth-place finisher Pitt (Look) and the Dark Horse of the East, Holy Cross (Sports Forecast), who place a low seventh.

The rest of the top ten includes Syracuse, fifth; Boston College, sixth; Boston University, eighth; Villanova, ninth; and Rutgers, tenth.

But just to show you how phony some of the selections can be, let's see what the "great" Playboy magazine said about their top selection:

Success (for Penn State) depends largely on developing adequate depth at end and guard positions and digging up a brainy quarterback to run Engle's wing-T."

Now how silly can one get? We have not only dug up one "brainy" qb, but two (and possibly three)—and we dug them up last fall.

Before closing, we'd like to make our personal selection on the Eastern indies. (I'll bet my mailbox is cluttered up after this.)

Pride and confidence (and maybe a little too much patriotism) makes me throw my weight towards our own Lions. Even with all our injuries, I feel we have the material to sweep the Lambert crown—and that includes a win over Army.

I look for Navy to be runnerup with Holy Cross (surprise), third; Pitt, fourth; Army, fifth; Syracuse, sixth; and Boston College, seventh. (Let's see how good this "expert" is?)
