

Senators Refer Request For Holiday to Cabinet

By DENNY MALICK

The Senate Calendar Committee yesterday heard a student request for a floating half-holiday and recommended that any formal action be made through All-University Cabinet.

John Bott and Patricia O'Neill, student members of the committee, requested the half-holiday as one of two provisions being sought for the 1959-60 school year.

In a second proposal, the student representatives suggested an extension of the time between the last class of the semester and the start of final examinations.

Bott will introduce the proposals at Thursday's Cabinet meeting.

If the Cabinet draws up a formal request for a half holiday, it would be submitted to the administration, Bott said. The request in its formal form would probably be channeled back to the calendar committee for action, he said.

The holiday could not be provided before the '59-'60 year since the present calendar has already been set up, Bott said.

The half-holiday has been a long-sought privilege to be used for important away football games or similar events some distance from campus. One half-holiday previously sought was Penn State-Penn football weekends.

Bott and Miss O'Neill suggested to the Senate committee that one floating half-holiday be provided for each semester. They would be used "at the students' discretion," they suggested.

"Where the half-holidays would come from would have to be decided by the committee," Bott said last night, "but I'm sure they could be provided."

Another detail that would have to be decided would be the method of selecting the date for the half-holiday. This would probably be decided by Cabinet, or by a method determined by Cabinet, Bott said.

In their second request, Miss O'Neill and Bott asked that more time be given between the last semester class and finals. As it stands now, the last class of the semester ends at 11:50 a.m. and finals begin at 1 p.m. of the same day.

Prexy to Return From Vacation For Meeting

President Eric A. Walker will return later this week from 10 days of rest and relaxation.

Walker will return to campus by Friday when he is scheduled to meet with All-University President Jay Feldstein and Senior Class President Charles Welsh concerning the recent flareup over dropping of the senior class gift.

Wilmer E. Kenworthy, administrative vice president, did not say where Walker and his family were vacationing.

Kenworthy said the president was "just resting at a place that is not too fancy." Walker had planned a vacation for earlier this month, but his son Brian came down with a case of the whooping cough which postponed the trip.

Young GOP's of County, University, to Meet at 7

The Young Republicans of the University and Centre County will meet at 7 tonight in 202 Willard.

A vice chairman and treasurer will be elected to fill vacant offices. A trip to Bellefonte on Thursday to hear McGonigle, VanZandt, Stuart and Fulmer speak will be discussed.

Judicial Imposes 8 Strict Campuses

Six women students were given a strict 4-week campus and one student a strict 8-week campus for failing to leave State College within 24 hours of the closing of the semester last June.

The Women's Judicial Board imposed these penalties last Tuesday following the disclosure by the office of the dean of women that the girls had checked in motels and hotels to attend the Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Kappa Psi parties on June 4th.

This investigation came as the result of a woman student, who after signing out with her housemother, came back the following day to get her suitcases which she had left in the residence hall. The residence hall was locked and the incident was reported. The dean's office then made a check of the motels and hotels in town where the girls were found to be staying.

One girl received a strict 4-day campus because she had not signed out correctly when leaving school. She attended the parties but did not remain in town overnight.

The student receiving the strict 8-week campus must appear before the Senate Committee on Student Affairs for committing a major judicial offense. This was the only major offense in the incident.

The violation of this Women's Student Government Association ruling which states that "each woman student is to leave the residence halls and State College within 24 hours of her last exam and the closing of the semester" is termed a judicial offense.

Condition Of Dean Weston Unknown

The reports of tests at the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh, where Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, was admitted last Thursday, show "nothing to date" on Miss Weston's condition.

R. Mae Shultz, assistant dean of women and acting dean in Miss Weston's absence, said yesterday that she had spoken to Miss Weston's sister, Mrs. James K. McNaull of Carnegie, who said that Miss Weston "looked better and seemed better."

Miss Weston has been subjected to a series of tests and examinations since her admittance to the hospital. Mrs. McNaull also said that these tests would be continued today.

The duration of Miss Weston's confinement is not yet known but will probably depend on the results of the observation and diagnostic work when completed.

Miss Weston took leave of absence from her duties as dean of women last Wednesday on the advice of her physician. She had not been feeling well for some time and was taken to the hospital by Mrs. McNaull.

University Party Meets, Organizes Committees

About 35 students registered for University Party committees Sunday night.

Freshmen made up about 80 per cent of the total, according to Howard Byers, clique chairman.

Byers asked students to serve as both committee members and dormitory coordinators.

Adams Resigns Under Pressure As Ike's Assistant

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sherman Adams resigned under fire last night as President Eisenhower's top assistant.

The former New Hampshire governor said that he has been besieged by "a campaign of vilification" by those seeking to remove him from public life and it is clear these efforts have been intended to destroy me and in so doing to embarrass the administration and the President of the United States.

Adams announced his decision to get out of the second highest job in the White House in a dramatic nationwide television-radio appearance. He said his action is "final and unqualified. It is not open to reconsideration."

Adams had flown to Newport, R.I., yesterday morning for a surprise conference with Eisenhower at the latter's vacation headquarters, then hurried back to Washington and completed arrangements for the broadcast.

Eisenhower accepted the resignation "with sadness."

Back of the resignation is the disclosure last June that Adams accepted costly gifts and favors from wealthy Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine while Goldfine was in difficulty with two federal agencies.

Adams acknowledged accepting the favors, but said he got no favored treatment for Goldfine from any federal agency.

Adams said he had tendered the resignation in yesterday's conference with Eisenhower at Newport and the President had accepted it, to become effective as soon as an orderly transition can be arranged for the transfer of his duties and responsibilities.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty passed out copies of the Adams speech to reporters at the instant Adams went on the air. Along with it he distributed a presidential statement.

Warmer Weather, Fair Skies Seen

The temperature will rise to 78 degrees today, after last night's low of 38. The weather will be clear and a little warmer than yesterday's, the weather man said.

That so-called breather turned into an almost unbelievable nightmare Saturday afternoon when upstart Nebraska surprised Penn State's veteran-laden grid outfit, 14-7.

The outcome was only one of a wave of upsets that shocked the nation's pigskin followers over the weekend. But to the 25,000 partisan Cornhusker fans crowded into Lincoln Memorial Stadium it was the only one that really mattered.

Nebraska, which had six sophomores in its starting lineup was rated a two-touchdown underdog before the opening whistle, and even its most avid enthusiasts had all but conceded defeat.

But the fired-up Huskies surprised everyone except themselves in hogtied their visitors from the East.
