

Registration Begins For 'Ugly' Contest

Registration for the Ugly Man contest started yesterday and will continue through October 1.

The contest is planned for Oct. 14, 15, 16 and 17. It is open to independent groups, fraternities and any other campus organizations. Each group may sponsor one candidate only.

Tribunal Places Soph on Pro Until June '59

One student has been placed on office probation until June 1959, on a Tribunal recommendation and five other Tribunal cases will be referred to the Senate subcommittee on discipline today.

The office probation was recommended for a third-semester man who was caught near Simmons Hall windows the night of Sept. 11. He was standing with two companions, not students of the University, who were tapping on the residence hall windows.

The five referrals to the subcommittee on discipline concern fighting. Two of the men, both third-semester, were found guilty of disorderly conduct. They were fined $10 plus $11.50 costs each.

The other three men, also third-semester, were involved in a brawl May 25. Tribunal recommended office probation until June 1959 for all three.

The subcommittee will review their case because some of the facts are not clear.

Plan International Tea

An international tea will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the Wesley Foundation

The Ugly Man parade, which will be held Oct. 14, will begin the contest. It will consist of two divisions, independent and fraternity, which will be judged separately as they pass along the route.

During the rest of the week, the candidates will be allowed to campaign on the Mall for votes, between noon and 1 p.m. Each vote will cost one cent and the money collected will go to a worthy cause.

The finalists will include the five fraternities and five independent groups receiving the largest parade vote and collecting the most money from the votes. The finals will be held the following weekend and will consist of a 6-minute skit with a title or theme. The judges will be professors in the Departments of Theater Arts and Speech.

There will be a first and second place awarded in each division and one grand champion Ugly Man.

The contest is being sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, men's national service fraternity. Charles Skopic and Robert Johnson are general chairmen.

The grand champion prize was won last year by Nittany Hall 43, which sponsored Paul Craska in the role of "Simon Legree of 43."

WRA Forms Available

Freshman coeds interested in running for WRA Freshman representatives may pick up application blanks this week in either the dean of women's office or White Hall.

Thespians to Present 'Entertainment USA'; Satire of Troubles of TV Quiz Contestants

By JENETTE SAXE

The curtain rises, bringing the Thespians' production of the musical comedy review, "Entertainment U. S. A.," to the audience, and loads of trouble to the show's leading character, Fineous T.

Fineous T. is the average man doing average things until he becomes a contestant on a TV quiz show, "Your Ignorance Is Our Bliss" (a take-off on Truth or Consequences), and loses.

As his penalty, Fineous T. must, among other things, get an honorary membership in the Barber Shop Quartet Society, go to a small town theater which is presenting Romeo and Juliet and get the rose which Juliet is growing on the balcony, find out how Rock 'n Roll is written and get an original manuscript of a Rock 'n Roll song.

One of the highlights of the show comes when Fineous T. goes to a burlesque show to get a balloon from a ballon dancer, Choo Choo la Bump.

Fineous T. manages to get everything he was sent after and returns to the quiz show where he receives a prize which is worth all his trouble.

The dialogue of "Entertainment U.S.A." was written by Ray T. Fortunato, director of employee relations; Theodore Paul-
