

Braves Win on Burton's RBI

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Billy Burton stroked a line drive single to right against fireballing Ryne Duren to give Milwaukee's Warren Spahn a 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday in a tense 10-inning opening World Series game.

Benched at the start because left-handed Whitey Ford was pitching for the Yanks, Burton came in as a pinch hitter in the ninth but fanned.

Given another chance after singles by Joe Adcock and Del Crandall in the 10th he came through beautifully with a drive that probably would have been good for two bases if more were needed.

A year ago Burton was in the hospital undergoing a knee operation while his Milwaukee mates were upsetting the proud Yankees in seven games. He didn't get back into action until midseason and even now still has trouble with his knee.

Spahn got better as he went along, justifying Manager Fred Haney's move in starting him over Lew Burdette, the three-time winner of last year.

In one stretch from the sixth until the 10th, Spahn retired 14 straight Yankees. Ford, who had the edge in the early going, stumbled in the eighth when he fired and gave way to Ryne Duren.

Duren was the hard-throwing speedster of early season when he first replaced Ford in the eighth. But the Braves kept after him and finally got to him in the 10th.

Hank Aaron, perhaps the Brave most feared by the Yankee staff, struck out, opening the 10th. Joe Adcock ripped a single to center and the fat was on the fire.

Wes Covington sent Elston Howard deep into left with the wind helping the ball but the Yankee outfielder caught his long drive. Del Crandall, a Duren strikeout victim on three pitches in the eighth, bounded a high hopper to short center for a single.

That brought up Burton, who used to be a speed demon before he injured his knee. Duren threw a strike and then two balls before Burton lined the game-winning hit to the fence in right center. Nobody ever had a chance to get close to it.

It was an appropriate ending for the roaring crowd of 46,367 who watched this opening game on a chilly, sunny afternoon.

Spahn, beaten by Ford in last year's opener at Yankee Stadium, lived up to his season .333 batting average as well as his 22-11 pitching record.

Spahn stroked the single to center that scored Crandall with the tie-breaking run in the fourth.

Again in the ninth, Spahn tried to start his own rally with a single to right. He got as far as second but pinch hitter Franke Torre and Eddie Mathews failed.

In today's second game, Burdette, the Yankee killer of '57 will try to make it two in a row for the Braves.

The 20-game winner who has been brilliant since the All-Star break, will be opposed by another right hander, Bob Turley. Turley was the Yanks big winner with a 21-7 season.

THINKLISH

—the funniest, easiest way yet to make money!

PUT IN A GOOD WORD AND MAKE $25!

Speak English all your life and what does it get you? Nothing! But start speaking Thinklish and you may make $25! Just put two words together to form a new (and much funnier) one. Example: precision flight of bumblebees: Swarmation. (Note: the two original words form the new one: swarm+formation.) We'll pay $25 each for the hundreds and hundreds of new Thinklish words judged best—and we'll feature many of them in our college ads. Send your Thinklish words (with English translations) to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Enclose name, address, college or university, and class. And while you're at it, light up a Lucky. Get the full, rich taste of fine tobacco, the honest taste of a Lucky Strike.
