

COME TO CHURCH

Persons and Communities worship that to which they ascribe supreme worth, that around which their lives are organized or integrated—whatever that person, object, or God may be. Worship may be formal, informal, communal, or private. Each must choose for himself. The Services described here represent in our community the diversity of traditions within the Judaeo-Christian tradition, to which most of us give our loyalty. Anyone is cordially invited to participate in these Services—in Chapel, Church, or Synagogue.
