Long Pass Big Factor

By BILL BARBER

Sixty yard passes seemed to be order of the day as several of the high fliers hit their marks; and the scoring column in intramural football action last night

In the fraternity play Phi Epsilon Pi downed Phi Mu Delta, 6-0; Kappa Delta Rho defeated Sigma Nu, 12-7; and Sigma Phi Epsilon beat Alpha Zeta, 7-0.

Independent games featured the Sabre Jets romping over the Thompson Three team, 19-0, and the Thompson P.R s crushing Thompson V, 26-0. Other Indie games were: Cool Ghouls, 7, Dorm 43, 0; McKee Majors, 0; Hi-Fliers, 6. Eagles. 0. Thompson Three team, 19-0, and Eagles, 0.

The passing combination of Mike Carey. and Chuck Baldock proved to be the major reason for the KDR victory Early in the first half Carey hit Baldock with a forty-yard aerial shot for the first tally. Then late in the second half, Carey grabbed the ball deep in his own territory from the kickoff and winged a seventy yard pass right into Baldock's arms for the touchdown.

The KDR's also proved to have a hard charging line and, spearheaded by Dick Burgoone, they pushed Sigma Nu back for losses up to ferty yards.

The losers were not without startling plays themselves as Jack Solomon intercepted a KDR pass at the fifty and straddled the sideline for fifty yards for the score. Chick Rolling made the conversion.

Two independent games proved to be scoring feasts as Thompson P. R. rolled up the impressive score of 26-0 over Thompson V. and the Sabre Jets zoomed past the Thompson

Three 19-0. The Thompson P.R.'s formed a winning combination in Jim Johnson and Steve Solmes as the Freshman Harriers pair accounted for all but one of the P.R. scores. Early in the first Beat Plebes, 22-33 half Solmes recovered a fumble in the end zone for the first marker.

Parkinson accounted for the sec-ond score, with Dick Kuntz split- 22-33, Friday at Annapolis, Md. ting the crossbars for the extra proved to be the sparkler as his three seconds slower than the 2.7-quarterbacking paved the way mile course record set last fall for a Jets victory over the Thomo-son Three, 19-0. Black grabbed a Bill Kiggins. pass from Dan Lipperini and dashed into the end zone for the first score and then kicked the extra point. Black also figured in the next two tallys as he passed to Lipperini and Julian Weiss.

Black graved and Miller was timed in 14:20 and Larson in 14:25.

Other top freshman finishers were Dave LaHoff (6th), Larr Milhouse (10th), Herb Carver to Lipperini and Julian Weiss.

FOUR-IN-ONE-Dick Engelbrink (3), Herm Weber (5), Capt. Fred Kerr (1) and Ed Moran (2) cross the finish line in a four-way tie for first place in Saturday's dual meet with Navy on the University golf course. Navy's Bob Kunkle (arrow) trails far in the distance.

Harriers Crush Navy, 16-46, As 4 Lions Tie for 1st Place

By GEORGE FRENCH

The Nittany Lion Harriers opened the 1958 cross-country season like bulls in a china shop as they shattered Navy, 16-46, on the University golf course Saturday. Capt. Fred Kerr, Ed Moran, Dick Engelbrink and Herm Weber broke the tape shoulder-to-shoulder in 26:54.6 over the 5-mile course.

Naval first classman Bob Kunkle trailed well behind the Nittany foursome in 27:09 for fifth place—two places higher than he finished last fall.

The Nittany hill-and-dalers swept the next two positions. Junior Chick King took sixth in 27:40, 20 seconds ahead of sophomore teammate Denny Johnson.

Navy Captain Dick Winter grabbed eighth place in 28:06. Winter was sick last fall and did not run against the Lions. Penn State's George Jones took the ninth position in 28:16, one place higher than he finished last fall.

The Middies' Chico Chavez showed the biggest improvement in position over the course of a year as he moved from 20th to 10th. His time was 28.32.

Two seconds behind Cavez was Frank Young — another Middle first classman.

Then came the Lions' power that did not figure in the scoring. Although Ernie Noll fin-ished ahead of the fifth midshipman-Brad Smith-he was the eighth Lion to cross the finish line and only the first seven men on a team can raise their opponents score. Noll-a sophomore who came out for cross-country for the first time this fall—was clocked in 28:49.
Smith—another first classman running against the Nit-tany barriers for the last time dropped from third last fall to 13th this year. His time was 28:49.

Just a step behind Smith was Penn State junior Sam White. At this point, the Lions had swept six of the first seven positions and nine of the first 14 places.

The fifteenth place was taken by Naval first classman Leslie Palmer in 28:54, 14 seconds ahead of third classman Bill Kiggins-the winner of the Navy Plebe-Penn State freshman meet last fall.

Navy annexed the 17th position in 29:44 by Ken McLeod, with the Nittanies' Jack Williams just a step behind.

First classman Tom Monghan sixth for the Midshipmen last fall-dropped to the 19th position in 31:00.

Penn State's Dick Doyle finished 20th in 31:04, followed by teammate John Norton in 34:14.

Varsity Coach Chick Werner was generally pleased with his team's showing and pointed out that their performance was about as good as could be ex-pected in the unusually warm weather. Werner was particularly pleased with the performances of sophomores Weber, Johnson and Noll.
