

Turley Blanks Braves on 5 Hits; Milwaukee Leads Series, 3-2

NEW YORK (AP)—New York's aroused Yankees shattered Lew Burdette's spell Monday and kept alive in the World Series on Bob Turley's five-hit, 7-0 shutout of the Milwaukee Braves. It was the Yankees' second victory—both by shutouts—in the first five games.

Turley, the sturdy, 21-game winner who was routed in the seven-run first inning of the second game, had the Braves in hand all the way. Firing a sizzling fast ball and back-breaking curve with his no windup action, he struck out 10 Milwaukee batters.

The Yanks nudged Burdette, their four-time conqueror, for the first hit and run in the third inning—a home run against the left field foul screen by Gil McDougald.

They really caught up with their tormenter in the sixth when they rattled him loose during a six-run explosion. The charm and skill that had carried him to four straight over the Yanks deserted him as New York's long slumbering bats finally came alive.

This third straight shutout game in Yankee Stadium sent the clubs back to Milwaukee with the Braves leading 3-2. They will resume with the sixth game Wednesday afternoon after a day for travel.

Neither manager was definite about his pitcher for Wednesday's game.

Casey Stengel hinted it might be Ryne Duren, his righthanded relief ace, Fred Haney, boss of the Braves, was expected to pick Bob Rush, another righthander.

Going to the last of the sixth, Turley clung to a perilous 1-0 lead on McDougald's sixth series homer. The 28-year-old right-hander was firing hard and true but the Yanks hadn't done much with Burdette.

Yanks, saved Turley a run in the top of the sixth.

Hank Bauer, restored to his old lead-off spot, opened the sixth-inning drive that floored Burdette when he singled to left. Jerry Lumpe, attempting to hunt, fouled a third strike for a strike-out. Mickey Mantle singled to short left.

Yogi Berra, playing his 59th series game, doubled to right field scoring Bauer. It was his 58th series hit, tying Frankie Frisch's all-time record. The double gave him 97 total bases in series play, beating Babe Ruth's old mark by one.

Haney directed Burdette to walk Howard intentionally, loading the bases. But Skowron wrecked this strategic move with a single to right. Mantle scurried home.

This gave the Yankee bench and fans a chance to enjoy a sight they never before had witnessed—the walk of Burdette from mound to dugout in the middle of an inning.

The Yanks finally were warmed up and in no mood to be stopped by fast balling Puerto Rican, Juan Pizarro. McDougald drove Pizarro's first pitch to deep left. Wes Covington apparently lost in the sun. The ball hopped into the visitor's bullpen for a ground-rule double. Both Berra and Howard romped home.

Tony Kubek struck out before Turley came to the aid of his own cause with a single to left that drove in both Skowron and McDougald with the final runs.

Lions Lose--

 counted for a 0-10 passing mark in the second half.

Captain Pete Dawkins and end Bill Carpenter—he's that lonesome end—were the offensive stars of the contest. Dawkins, who gained 73 yards rushing and almost 100 by pass receiving, ran his touchdown total to six with a six-yard jaunt in the opening period and a 72-yard short pass-run collaboration with Joe Caldwell in the third.

In that 72-yard payoff, he was apparently trapped at midfield by three Lion tacklers, but shook them loose—and rambled unmolested.

For his efforts, Dawkins was voted the outstanding back by the press box scribes. It was the second straight week the fleet-footed senior had edged his All-American teammate Bob Anderson for the honor.

Carpenter received an almost identical honor for his work on the Army forward wall. He grabbed 3 passes for 119 yards including a 55-yard touchdown job from Caldwell that caught the Nittany defenders sleeping.

Anderson, who didn't do so bad in the rushing department himself with 71 yards in 13 carries, scored the other Army TD on a one-yard slant in the first period. It was the first touchdown of the year for Anderson, who last year was second in the nation with 14
