

Coach Says 'Should Have Scored 15'

Booters Bounce Back Against Syracuse, 7-0

By SANDY PADWE
One of the toughest tests any athletic team faces is the "comeback" test. Many coaches contend they can tell when a team "has it" by the way they play after losing a tough game.

Penn State's soccer team passed this test Saturday when it overwhelmed Syracuse, 7-0.

Bouncing back from last week's loss to West Chester, the booters took control of the game at the outset and held it the rest of the way. They took a total of 47 shots while holding Syracuse to three.

"We should have had more than seven goals," said Lion Coach Ken Hosterman. "Our forward line was dribbling the ball too much and we lost a lot of shot opportunities. If we would have shot more from farther out the score might have been 15-0."

Hosterman continued: "If you shoot from farther out then you can draw the defenses out. When you draw the defenses out there are more chances for shots."

Right halfback Herby Hertenner started the scoring for the Lions when he took a cross pass from Bill Fiedler and hit the corner of the nets at 10:30 of the 1st period. Wadsworth made it 2-0 three minutes later when he connected for his second tally of the season. He was playing his first game at right wing.

That was all the scoring until center forward Fran Manley, who was also playing his first game at a new position, scored at 7:44 of the second period. Manley's goal was the last of the half for the Lions.

In the third quarter the Lion offense pounded the Orange defense, but failed to tally. Inside right Bill Fiedler missed a clean shot at 9:00 when he had an open goal, but an alert Syracuse fullback managed to deflect the ball with his arm. A minute later, left halfback Gary Miller missed a direct kick. Fiedler came back in the fourth quarter to start the Lion offense rolling once again. He scored the first of his two goals at 5:26 and the Lions led 4-0.

Gary Miller came right back at 7:19 with a 40-yard shot that caught the corner of the nets. At 15:52 inside left Mike Stollmeyer gave the Lions a 6-0 cushion when he scored on a perfectly placed pass from Fiedler.

Fiedler garnered his second goal with 18:10 gone in the period when he managed to kick in a loose ball that was bouncing around in front of the Syracuse goal. Fiedler now leads the Booters in scoring with six goals.

After the game Syracuse Coach Pete Cataldi remarked that the Lions are a picture of precision on the soccer field. "It's a real treat to watch them perform," he said.

Lion coach Kenny Hosterman didn't quite agree: "Sure we played a good game. But we could have played better. We're going to work on our passing and outside shooting this week."

There were quite a few "soccer alums" at the game Saturday. Included among the former soccer booters were Galen Robbins ('55), Ihor Stelnyk ('56), Emil Borra ('54), Gerry Gillespie ('55), Bob Little ('55) and Frank Fullmer ('53).

Frosh Cagers to Meet

Freshman basketball candidates will meet with frosh coach Don Swegan at 6:30 tomorrow in Recreation Hall.

Hart running the ball except for one incompleated pass by Brewster.

Hart had the wind knocked out of him as he ran to the (Continued on page eight)

DELICIOUS

- Orange and black creme Hallowe'en cats
- Filled chocolate baskets
- Gold chocolate footballs
- University ice cream sandwiches and bars

The Candy Cane

Between the Diners

Frosh Display Speed In 21-6 Opening Win

By MATT MATTHEWS
Associate Sports Editor

It didn't take long for freshman coach Earl Bruce's charges to prove they had the flash and speed that was expected of them Saturday.

On the first play from scrimmage, halfback Roger Kochman burst up the middle on a 19-yard run that gave the spectators a sample of the Lion backs' speed and elusiveness.

The play was called back and the Lions were penalized to their own 20. But that didn't dampen the hopes of quarterback Allen Brewster.

On first down and 23, the 5-9 field general calmly dropped back from his own 20 and hit another fast half, Mike Daniels, on the Lion 40. Daniels danced through the Mountie secondary before being tackled on the West Virginia 42.

Kochman and Daniels carried the ball down to the two in eight plays and fullback Bob Hart lugged it over for the touchdown.

End Bob Mitinger, who played a tough game at the left terminal, booted a low attempt for the extra point which was blocked. The frosh held the 6-0 lead throughout the first half.

The first time they got their hands on the ball in the second half, they again scored—this time less dramatically.

The 56-yard drive took them 15 plays with Kochman, Daniels

Inebriates, Acacia Remain Undefeated

By BILL BARBER

Adding to their spotless records, the Inebriates rolled over the Cavemen, 27-6, in independent play, while Acacia edged Lambda Chi Alpha, 7-6, in a come from behind fraternity game.

In other fraternity games Tau Phi Delta downed Alpha Zeta, 6-0, Alpha Chi Rho beat Theta Xi, 7-0, and Alpha Epsilon Pi forfeited to Phi Kappa Psi.

All other independent games ended in ties which were either decided by first downs or in overtime action. The Meteorites eked out a victory over Watts I by outdoing them 6-1 in first downs.

The Hamilton Bulldogs defeated the Skidrowers, 3-2, in first downs, while Thompson I took their contest with the Knights, 3-2, in first downs. On a last play gain the Hamilton VII beat Jordan I in overtime, breaking a 4-4 tie in first downs.

Taking a commanding lead from the start, the Inebriates charged to their 27-6 victory over the Cavemen to remain undefeated.

Robert Knepp, flashy quarterback for the Inebriates, started the ball rolling early with a 35-yard pass to end Ralph Bitsko for a touchdown. Knepp kicked the extra point.

A few minutes later, a 30-yard pass from Knepp to Pete Kopschak chalked up the second score Knepp again converted.

The Caveman rallied shortly when Dave Harrington tossed a 40-yard aerial to Carl Pappalado for a Caver TD. They failed, however, to make the conversion.

The Inebriates, which are composed mostly of track men, then turned on the speed. Dick Holp snared a 35-yard Knepp pass and dashed to the Cavemen's one-yard line. Two plays later Knepp once again tossed one to Bob Brown over center for the tally.

Late in the second half, Knepp flipped a short pass to Bitsko for the fourth marker. He split the crossbars on his extra point attempt making the final score 27-6.

By downing Lambda Chi Alpha, 7-6, Acacia also retained its undefeated record in the fraternity league. Lambda Chi Alpha took the lead on a 50-yard pass by Dan Wilson to Tony Thomas who went over for the touchdown. A conversion attempt that was to be the deciding factor of the game was no good because Lambda Chi Alpha did not have the required five men on the line.

Late in the second half Bob Bastin on the "lonesome end" play snagged one from John McSparran to tie the score at 6-6.

Late in the second half Dave Swavely of Acacia intercepted an aerial and dashed 40 yards to the 10-yard line. On the next play Lambda Chi was offside which moved the ball up to the five.

Two plays later John McSparran passed one off to Bill Bowers for the score. McSparran completed the vital extra point giving Acacia a 7-6 victory over Lambda Chi.

Tau Phi Delta downed Alpha Zeta 6-0 on a pass interception by Walt Knapp who ran it 20 yards for the marker.

Fiedler

Knepp

THE McCOY CORNER:

A CHALLENGE

The Real McCoy, Bill McCoy, the new manager of Danks Men's Shop, has an exciting "dare" for you! Bill dares you to come in and compare the value of the new "Madisonaire" suit against any other suit in the same price range. The Madisonaire, styled by Varsity Town, is so tremendously smart and outstandingly correct for the college man and for men who are on their way up in the business world.

Danks & Co.
MEN'S SHOP

Two Entrances on West Beaver Avenue

Breyers
QUALITY

Wonderful BUTTER ALMOND ICE CREAM

Lots and lots of crunchy, gently toasted almonds... filled with flavor... buttered and salted just right! And they're blended with the smoothest, creamiest ice cream ever made! You'll love every delicious spoonful of Breyers Butter Almond Ice Cream!