

Alums Grumble--

(Richie) Lucas called a great game," the Wisconsin sportsman added, "I don't know what he's done previously, but if he plays the rest of the games like he did today, he should rank as one of the country's top quarterbacks."

Our main comment on the game concerns the play of Gilmore, who looked like an All-American runner against Marquette, gaining 142 yards in 19 carries. It was refreshing to almost every Penn State rooter to see the rejuvenated Gilmore return to the form he so lustily displayed as a sophomore. An injury kept him on the sidelines most of last season after a rookie year which saw him impress college and professional scouts alike with his speedy and elusive running.

Gilmore knew his work was cut out for him this season, with regular Dave Kasperian and sophomore Dick Hoak applying the pressure. He started out slow—showing little in the Nebraska debacle, but gaining momentum in the Penn and Army games.

The Marquette game was the clincher. If he can perform the rest of the season like he did against Marquette, Penn State's remaining foes will be in for a workout.

Of course, let's not forget Kasperian. He was the Lions' "bread and butter man" last fall and will probably continue to be so. But this observer, for one, is glad to see the Lions with two "first team" left halfbacks. Both Gilmore and Kasperian should help the Lions' strong offensive rushing punch.

Now all we need is a pass offense.

Kickoff Return a First

Nebraskan Pat Fischer's 92-yard kickoff return against Penn State in this year's opener was the first time a kickoff had been run back for a touchdown against Rip Engle in his 28 years as a coach.

Irish Interested In New Conference

CHICAGO (P)—Notre Dame is interested in a new coast-to-coast conference which now is in the talking stage, Football Coach Terry Brennan said Tuesday.

"We are interested, but the conference is not yet a reality," he said. "There are many details to be ironed out, such as scholastic requirements, athletic policy, etc. There have been discussions but no decisions. We already have scheduled many of the schools interested in the so-called airplane conference."

Formation of such a conference has been bandied about for the last six months or more. Mentioned among the potential members are Army, Navy, Pitt, Notre Dame, Penn State, UCLA and Southern California.

Bermuda-Clad Coaches

Penn State grid coaches Rip Engle, Jim O'Hara, Sever Toretti and Frank Patrick sport Bermuda shorts at practice sessions.

Ugly Man--

In the indie division the finalists were: second place, William Bennett, Nittany Grotto; third place, Richard Miller, Nittany 42; fourth place, Ronald Pujia, Nittany 33 and 34; and fifth place, John Witmer, Hamilton 3.

Penny voting will continue on the Mall until tomorrow. Robert Johnson and Charles Skopic, Alpha Phi Omega co-chairmen of the contest, said they were pleased with the enthusiasm of the spectators and entrants last night, and said, "We hope the enthusiasm continues in the penny voting." The money not only helps decide the winner, but will also help provide for expansion of Hetzel Union Building facilities.

There was a total of nine fraternity contestants and 12 indie contestants. They were judged on a 4-point basis: four for excellent; three for good, not quite excellent; two for fair to good; and one for participation. The margin of points between first and fifth places was the closest in three years, Johnson said.

Coach Says--

(Continued from page six) the game to see his mother who was seriously ill in New Jersey. . . . Incidentally, it was learned that Drew is not a typical college coach—he remains calm on the field and allows his weekday coaching to take effect. . . . Richie Lucas' 38-yard punt into the end-zone probably ruined his record as the top punter in the East. . . . The guests in the sideline chairs on the 20-yard line were from the Altoona Veterans Hospital. . . .
