

Dulles to Discuss Crisis With Chiang

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles will fly to Formosa Tuesday for talks with President Chiang Kai-shek.

The meeting is expected to clear up questions tending to portray the two allies at odds. The Nationalists, who issued the invitation, regard Dulles' trip as notice to Red China that there is no split in U.S.-Nationalist policy for defense in the Formosa area.

Ike Accused Of Fight Over Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scrappy Harry S. Truman said Friday it was President Eisenhower and the Republicans who started the political campaign squabble over foreign policy.

"The Republicans put foreign policy into the political scramble and now they're sorry for it," Truman said.

The former President told reporters he is glad that after several years of White House experience Eisenhower "agrees with me" that international relations ought not to be a campaign issue.

"But he's the one who started it," Truman said.

"In 1952 the statement was made that the Korean War was my war and that it would be settled after the campaign. A trip was made to Korea and a settlement was made that I could have made on the same terms three years before. I call it the Korean surrender."

This was a reference to Eisenhower's trip to Korea after his 1952 victory and the subsequent armistice.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Celso Cardinal Constantini died last night as he was about to leave his sickbed to participate in the election of a new pope.

Catholic 'Vigor' In Papal Choice Surprises Reds

VATICAN CITY (AP) — All but a handful of the cardinals who will elect a new Roman Catholic Pope were on hand in Rome last night.

As they gathered Communists were attempting to cast popular suspicion on the forthcoming conclave.

The Communists appear to have been astonished at the vitality of the Catholic faith, underscored by tributes to Pope Pius XII.

This show of vigor seems to worry the world Communist command. The line European Communists will take—a cautious one—has been laid down openly by the Moscow press.

Izvestia, the Soviet government paper, charged Friday that Americans, French, Germans, and Italians would negotiate over the candidate to be chosen, and that the American cardinals were trying to organize the outcome.

This propaganda is attempting to put over the idea that the choice of a new pontiff will be dictated by world political considerations, with the United States exercising powerful pressure.

Eisenhower Seeks Peace During Last Two Years

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — President Eisenhower said yesterday the overriding task of his last two years in office will be to work for a just and lasting peace—"if the Lord spares me that long."

Addressing a crowd police estimated at 85,000 to 100,000 at the National Cornpicking Contest, Eisenhower said this task "overshadows everything we do in America."

A constant theme of U.S. foreign policy under his direction must be "a firm refusal to countenance Communist territorial expansion by force," the President added.

In an apparent reference to the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu, and the controversy over whether the United States should defend them, Eisenhower said: "We must understand that we are trying to defend today not merely territory... Once you retreat from principles you cannot turn around again and face your enemy."

Market Trading Ties Record High

NEW YORK (AP)—Trading was the heaviest in three years as the stock market advanced vigorously yesterday and matched its record high.

The market erased the sharp losses of mid-week and moved forward on a broad front. The lower-priced motor shares were the trading favorites.

Based on the rise in the AP average the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange increased an estimated two billion dollars.

Announcements in Taipei and Washington said Dulles will come in accordance with the two countries' Mutual Defense Treaty. This calls for periodic meetings of the foreign ministers.

The Nationalists have worried about a possible change in U.S. policy ever since Dulles and President Eisenhower criticized the size of Nationalist troop concentrations on Quemoy and Matsu, at Red China's doorstep.

Dulles' coming is regarded in Taipei as for two purposes:

1. To weld a solid front making clear to the Chinese Communists they are unable to crack U.S.-Nationalist solidarity.

2. To seek Nationalist agreement to some inducement that will get Red China to replace its present tentative cease-fire in the off-shore islands with a more permanent agreement.
