

Title Hopes in Balance As Booters Host Colgate

The Red Raiders of Colgate University will be looking for their first win against Penn State's soccer team when they invade Beaver Field for a tilt beginning at 1:30 today.

Colgate has yet to beat the Lions in a series that dates back to 1941. Last year the Lions dumped the Red Raiders in a tough game at Hamilton, N.Y., 2-0.

With ten lettermen returning Colgate coach Mark Randall hopes to give the Lions a real battle. Penn State coach Kenny Hosterman has a lot of respect for Randall and his boys. "Last year they gave us a real scare, and this year they should be tougher. I expect a real exciting afternoon."

Leading the Red Raiders into today's game will be Captain Carl Biddulph. Biddulph is a two year letterman who plays right half-back. He is rated by Randall as one of the top defensive players he has coached.

The Colgate scoring attack depends mainly on center forward Bob Morvillo and his two insides—Vic Cino and John James. All three are potential scoring threats and will be watched closely by Hosterman's defensive crew.

Herby Hertner will probably be one of the most active defense-men on the field. The Lion right half will be responsible for watching Morvillo and James but Hosterman has plenty of confidence in him. "He has improved quite a bit this year and his defensive play is better," said the Lion coach.

The Nittany Lions will enter today's game without the services of their leading scorer Bill Fiedler who was operated on yesterday morning at Centre County Hospital for the removal of a chest growth. Fiedler is reported resting comfortably and is expected out sometime next week.

Gary Miller will replace Fiedler at inside right. This is the third position the versatile Miller has played this year. Miller's left halfback slot will be filled by sophomore Gene Raiford.

The rest of the Lion lineup remains the same as the last two weeks.

Today's game is an important one for Hosterman and the Lions, because they can get back in contention for the national title with a convincing win.

According to Hosterman the Lions have a fair chance for national honors if they can get past Colgate, Maryland, and Navy. The reason for the rebirth of the title hopes come as the result of some games played last week.

The national title is decided by the Saylor System—the system that rates a team by who it beats and by how they played.

Although West Chester beat the Lions they haven't played well in their last two games. In a key game Maryland tied Navy. The Terrapins and Navy are very good this year according to official soccer reports. Thus if the Lions can beat them they still have a chance for the title. But first they must get past Colgate.

Only 6 Harriers to Run Against Pittsburgh Today

By GEORGE FRENCH

Penn State's cross-country entries are growing smaller each meet.

Varsity cross-country Coach Chick Werner will send only six entries against Pitt this afternoon on the 4.3-mile Schenley Park course in Pittsburgh. The Lions entered the maximum of 12 runners against Navy in the opener two weeks ago and eight last week against Cornell.

Explaining his reason for so few entries, Werner said, "We're optimistic about winning the Pitt meet and believe that we will not need a full squad against the Panthers. Pitt has a pretty good squad, but they are certainly not in a class with a couple of our other opponents—Michigan State and Manhattan."

It is probable that Werner will enter a full squad of 12 against Michigan State next Saturday on the University golf course. The Spartan harriers were NCAA champs two years ago and runners-up last fall.

Running for the Lion harriers today will be Capt. Fred Kerr, Ed Moran, Dick Engelbrink, Chick King, Herm Weber and Ernie Noll.

Werner was particularly pleased with the running of Moran, Engelbrink, King and Noll.

"If Moran is as tough next Saturday as he has been in practice this week, Fordy Kennedy (Michigan State's top runner) will have to hold a big lead over Moran going into the stretch drive to beat Ed—and that is likely to be nearly impossible. Moran has really looked terrific all week," Werner said.

"And Eagle (Engelbrink) has also been running very well in practice this week. He is getting steadily stronger all the time and will probably cause a lot of trouble for our opponents by the time the season is over," he said.

"King is beginning to show the power he had in track last spring (4.13 in the mile and 1:53 in the half-mile) and this new sophomore Noll has been a really pleasant surprise," Werner said enthusiastically. "On Wednesday, we had a tough hill workout at Centre Hill Country Club. Noll ran well through the entire workout, and on the final of the four big hill loops, Noll led the pack."

This is Noll's first year on the campus. Last fall he attended the University's forestry school at Mont Alto. In his first collegiate cross-country meet, he finished 12th, and then placed ninth last week against Cornell.

This afternoon's meet with the Panthers will be the 26th in the series dating back to 1924. The Lions hold a 21-4 bulge over Pitt, winning the first 11 meets. The Panthers' only victories over the Nittany harriers came in 1936 (25-30), 1940 (24-31), 1954 (24-33) and 1955 (21-40). Those Pitt squads were led by such Olympic greats as John Woodruff and Arnie Sowell.

"S" Club Will Meet

The Varsity "S" club will meet at 10 p.m. Sunday at Phi Kappa Psi.

Delta Sig, Theta Chi, DU, Hi-Fliers Remain Undefeated

By BILL BARBER

Delta Sigma Phi, Theta Chi, Delta Upsilon and the Hi-Fliers remained in that charmed circle of undefeated teams by downing their various opponents last night in intramural football action.

In fraternity play, Theta Chi downed Alpha Tau Omega in overtime, breaking a 6-6 tie. Delta Upsilon crushed Tau Phi Delta 27-7, Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Lambda Chi Alpha 7-0, Delta Sigma Phi edged Phi Kappa Psi 3-0, and Delta Tau Delta squeaked by Phi Kappa Psi in overtime.

Independent play showed the Hi-Fliers beating the McKee Majors 14-6, the Eagles eaking a 2-1 victory in first downs over the Thompson Five, the Goopers downing the Stump Jumpers 19-6, and the McKee Mustangs defeating Thompson P. R. 13-0.

Delta Upsilon extended their winning string to three by downing Tau Phi Delta 27-7. Sy Dubinski opened the action on the kick-off by heaving a long aerial to Jack Chotta for the touchdown. His attempt for the extra point was no good.

After a series of long pass plays which moved the ball up the entire length of the field, Dubinski hit Chotta with a 20 yard pass that was good for a score. Dubinski then split the crossbars with his extra point kick to bring the score to 13-0.

Late in the first half Dubinsky chucked a 50 yard shot into the arms of Jim Anderson who ran it for the tally. Chotta then converted for the extra point.

In the second half after a series of pass plays, Dubinski once again found the range with Chotta who dashed into the endzone. Chotta completed the PAT attempt.

On the fancy running of Bob Hrobak, Tau Phi Delta made their only score. Hrobak took the kick-off late in the second half and straddling the sideline, evaded the DU defensemen by fancy dodging and streaked for the goal line. Charles Whiteman kicked the extra point.

By stopping the McKee Majors 14-6, the Hi-Fliers ran their victory streak to four wins.

Tony Hutskow opened the scoring for the McKee Majors by tossing a 10 yard shot to Steve Jackson who then ran the ball 60 yards through the Fliers defense to paydirt. The conversion attempt was no good.

On a pass from Tom Stefers, Joe Andrey made a spectacular diving catch for the Fliers to tie the score at 6-6. Andrey then kicked home the extra point to break the deadlock.

In the last few minutes of the game, Ken Pollenz snagged an aerial pitch from Stefers in the endzone for a Flier tally. Andrey made the extra point attempt good for added insurance.

A tie-breaking field goal by Walt Barnes decided the game for Delta Sigma Phi in their 3-0 victory over Phi Kappa Psi.

Out On a Limb

Picking games that they claim are "snaps", our fearless forecasters have again climbed onto the limb over the nation's football stadiums.

Genial George French, the top man on the pile, is said to be resting on his laurels this week. He only went out on the limb farther than the rest in one tilt—the Minnesota-Illinois game.

"Unlucky" Lou Prato, who has been goofing on his picks all year, has finally found his mistake. He put the wrong teams down. "This week," he yelled as he raced for the nearest ride to Boston, "things'll really be different."

Shirt Satellite Launched!

The first Shirt Satellite is finally a reality! Just yesterday, during their lunch hour, Van Heusen scientists launched a Van Heusen Century Shirt into the stratosphere. It's now circling the earth 180,000 miles up, in an orbit so large that a grown man couldn't walk it, even in a whole day! Traveling at the legal 35 miles per hour, it is expected that the Van Heusen Century Shirt Satellite will remain up there in the blue beyond for at least 1200 years. And, with luck, maybe 1201.

"But," you will ask, "what value will the Shirt Satellite have for science?" Just this, friend! It will further prove the immutable law that the soft collar on Van Heusen Century Shirts won't wrinkle ... ever! You see, the slick Van Heusen physicists have attached an electronic Wrinkle-rieter to the collar of the Van Heusen Century

Shirt. This clever device will constantly send back electronic reports on the condition of the collar, so, for 1200 years, we earthlings will have absolute proof that the soft collar on Van Heusen Shirts won't wrinkle ... ever. Should you ever have any doubts, just drop in to the Van Heusen office, and listen to the reports coming back from the Shirt Satellite.

One more thing—the Van Heusen Century Shirt Satellite will drop back to the earth in the spring of 3157 (possibly 3158) and you're all invited to the return party! If, in the meantime, you want to see the Van Heusen Century Shirt, you can at your campus haberdashery. He has them in 5 collar styles, in white, stripes and colors. $4 & $5.
