

—Collegian photo by Ron Kerr
SIR JOHN GIELGUD
 "Hamlet is my favorite role."

Noted British Actor Favors Hamlet Role

By BOBBI LEVINE

Of all the roles that he has played in his more than 35 years in the theatre, Sir John Gielgud, noted British actor and director, said he enjoyed playing "Hamlet" the most.

"I have played Hamlet for 15 years, on and off," he said. "I think you could say it is my favorite role."

Talking backstage in his dressing room at Schwab Auditorium following his performance Saturday evening, Gielgud turned to the subject of audiences in America and Europe. "I don't think audiences vary much anywhere," he said. "The college audience, being younger, is more enthusiastic, but audiences don't vary much from place to place."

On the subject of contemporary playwrights and his favorite among them, Gielgud smiled and said, "I don't have any favorites." And when asked which of the many actresses he had worked with he enjoyed working with most, the veteran performer and diplomat of the theatre laughed aloud and said, "I'm not going to answer that."

Gielgud's appearance here was one of 75 dates that he is scheduled to fill in 55 cities in North America. He began his tour Sept. 20 with an appearance in Montreal, Can.

One of the reasons that Gielgud is making the tour, said Jerry Leider, co-manager of the tour, is to give the audience a chance to see him play the roles which he did so well in his younger years.

Gielgud is scheduled to take his solo reading of "Shakespeare's Ages of Man" to New York for a four-to-six weeks engagement, sometime between Christmas and New Years.

His New York performances will include Sundays so that theatre professionals will have an opportunity to see the man who is considered by New York Times critic Lewis Funke to be "among the finest on the English-speaking stage."

Gielgud's performance was the third program on the current Artist Series schedule.

Have a WORLD of FUN!
 Travel with SITA
 Unbelievable Low Cost
Europe
 60 Days from $645
Orient
 43-65 Days from $978
 Many tours include college credit.
 Also low-cost trips to Mexico $169 up, South America $499 up, Hawaii Study Tour $549 up and Around the World $1798 up
 Ask Your Travel Agent
SITA WORLD TRAVEL, INC.
 26th Year 545 5th Ave., New York 17 MU2-6544

Chess Team Wins Match With Altoona

10 IFC Workshops To Convene Tonight

The University Chess Club scored a 7½-3½ victory over the Altoona City Chess Club in its first match of the season.

The "Blue and White Knights" were handicapped by the absence of their strongest player, Dr. Orrin Frink, head of the mathematics department. Eugene Grumer, sophomore, was moved up to first board where he proved to be keen competition for Durwood Hatch, Central Pennsylvania's strongest player. Jerry Wentzel, sophomore, playing on second board, lost to Altoona's Bill Buck. The "Blue and White Knights" won all of the last nine boards except for a draw on the fifth and a loss on the sixth.

Wins for the University team were: Carl Dietrich over George Bender; Karl Forsberg over James Donaldson; Robert Haas over William Carlin; Fred Shaffer over Scott Lockard; Jerry Eckman over Howard Kramer; Craig Geyer over Harry Brunner; and Harry Winter over Mike De Nicola. Altoona's wins were: Durwood Hatch over Eugene Grumer; William Buck over Jerry Wetzel; and Nick Papadeas over Anthony Warakea. John Seeds of Altoona played a draw with Mordecai Treblow, each receiving ½ point.

New officers of the Chess Club are Fred Shaffer, president, and Robert Haas, secretary-treasurer. The club meets 7 to 10 p.m. Wednesdays in 7 Sparks.

Juba Issues Reminder About Burning Leaves

State College Police Chief John R. Juba issued a reminder yesterday that it is illegal to burn leaves in borough streets.

He said that some residents are guilty as well as some fraternities. It is also a borough rule that leaves can't be burned after 6 in the evening.

Virtually every phase of fraternity administration will be thoroughly discussed at the Interfraternity Council-sponsored workshops which begin tonight.

The 10 workshop programs will begin with dinner at 5.30 p.m. at the host fraternities. The dinner will be followed by a short speech and then proceed to group discussions.

The speakers at the workshop will be either members of the University administration or executive secretaries of national fraternities, Leonard Julius, workshop chairman, said. The discussions will be led by the workshop chairmen.

The workshop program will be the first of three events planned for the IFC workshops. A panel discussion program on national fraternity problems will be held at 7 p.m. tomorrow in 121 Sparks and the workshop banquet at 5:45 p.m. Thursday at the Nittany Lion Inn will close the program.

The presidents' workshop will be held at Delta Sigma Phi with Ralph Moore as chairman. Richard Witman, national executive secretary of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, will be the guest speaker.

Kappa will host the treasurer's workshop and H. L. Stuart, national president of Phi Delta Theta, will be the speaker. The pledge presidents' workshop will be held at Phi Kappa Psi with Lanny Dey as chairman and Robert Miller, national executive secretary of Phi Delta Theta, as speaker.

Public and alumni relations will be discussed at Phi Sigma Delta with William Jaffe as chairman and James Coogan, director of the Department of Public Information, as speaker. Ronald Eash will head the rushing chairmen's workshop at Phi Mu Delta and Robert Lynn, national executive secretary of Pi Kappa Alpha, will be the speaker.

The scholastic chairmen's workshop will be held at Alpha Gamma Rho with Charles Carlson as chairman and Frank J. Simes, dean of men, as speaker. Wallace Hodge, Acacia, will lead the pledgemasters' workshop with Charles Connell, national executive secretary of Delta Chi, as speaker.

Fraternity house managers will meet at Sigma Alpha Epsilon for their workshop with Carry Campbell as chairman and Charles Stoddart Jr., adviser to Chi Phi, (Continued on page seven)

Go to the game in an exclusive outfit that you made yourself with fabrics and patterns from Egolf's Opposite Old Main

Danks & Co. invites you to attend the WORLD PREMIER SHOWING of Berkshire Lingerie makers of Berkshire Stockings - the world's largest selling brand
OCTOBER 21st thru 25th
 25 lovely prizes

The City of State College has been selected by Berkshire for the World Premier Showing of their entire line of lingerie.

For years the largest selling brand of women's hosiery—now Berkshire puts all of its skill and quality into a beautiful new line of lingerie.

Don't miss the fashion shows with models wearing the lovely fashion colors and exquisite designs.

25 lovely prizes will be given away—just fill out this coupon and bring it to our lingerie department any time between the 16th and 25th. The drawing will be the evening of the 25th and it won't be necessary for you to be there to win.

Danks & Co. STATE COLLEGE, PA.
 City..... State.....
 Name.....
 Address.....

Home Economics Chicken Barbecue

Sponsored by

HOTEL GREETERS ASSOCIATION

Date: October 26—Sunday

Time: 4 p.m.

Place: Hort Woods Inclement Weather - Stock Pavilion

Price: $1.25

Tickets Available in Home Economics Building until 5 p.m. Thursday